JUDGMENTS.

In these lists of judgments the names alphabetically arranged, and which are first on each line, are those of the judgment debtor. The letter (D) means judgment for deficiency. (*) means not summoned. (†) signifies that the first name is fictitious, real name being unknown. Judgments entered during the week, and satisfied before day of publication, do not appear in this column, but in list of Satisfied Judgments.

W. H. Beeching has sold for Ellen McKeever, of New York, the plot, 50x100, on the northeast corner of Rockaway avenue and Bergen street.

V. G. Hall & Co. have sold for Mrs. Eugene Schieffelin and Mrs. John T. Hall a plot of twelve lots on Lee avenue, extending from Heyward to Rutledge street, for $30,000, to Builder John Roth, who will erect a group of large double flats.

George Heiberger has sold for Kate E. Provoost the two-and-a-half-story frame dwelling with lot, 25x100, No. 589 Marcy avenue, to George Richdale, for $4,500.

Corwith Bros. have sold the four-story brick dwelling, No. 118 Java street, 25x42x100, for Patrick and Jane Cunningham to Fail Secor and Agnes, his wife, for $6,000; also the property of the Convent of Villa de Sales, on 18th avenue, to the City of Brooklyn, for the Disciplinary School, for $80,000.

John R. Horton, Jr., has sold the two-story house, No. 1032 Jefferson avenue, to F. G. Andrews for about $5,000.

Moore & Arnold have traded for John V. Brush the four-story brick flat, No. 70 16th street, with Charles A. Bollman, for property at Gillett, N. J.

How can a seller of real estate recover damages from a buyer for failure to accept a deed? Consult the new book, "Guide to Buyers and Sellers of Real Estate," by Geo. H. Van Siclen. This book tells you all you want to know about real estate, in plain language. Published by "Record and Guide," 14 and 16 Vesey street. In paper, 75 cents; postage extra, 7 cents; in cloth, $1.00; postage extra, 9 cents.

Brooklyn Builders.

Fourth avenue, east side, between 58th and 59th streets; six three-story buff brick and stone front flats, each 25x57, with extensions, 5x14; to cost about $5,000 each; Mary J. Lucke, No. 202 32d street, owner; W. H. Wirth, No. 358 17th street, architect.

Lee avenue and Hayward streets; ten four-story brick and stone flats; total cost, $95,000; Henry Roth, No. 1058 Broadway, owner; Henry Vollweiler, No. 483 Hart street, architect.

Boerum place, northeast corner of State street; the six-story brick factory, 50x100, recently damaged by fire, will be repaired at once. Ronalds & Co., No. 54 Cliff street, New York City, owners.

Java street; new sugar refinery; Arbuckle Bros., No. 111 Front street, New York City; George Newhall & Co., Philadelphia, Pa., consulting engineers.

Seventh street, south side, about 175 feet west of 3d avenue; Oscar E. A. Weissner's folding bed factory, recently destroyed by fire, will probably be rebuilt.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT WORK.

Bids will be received by the Supervising Architect, Wm. M. Aiken, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., for the new post office to be erected at New London, Conn., until Nov. 5. For an electric light and power plant for the New York City post office, until 2 p. m., Nov. 9.

Bids were opened at the Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., for the Appraiser's Warehouse work, in New York City. There were seven; that of D. H. Hayes, Chicago, Ill., at $322,500, was the lowest.

(For other Building News see page 634.)

Do you want to know all about real estate—deeds, mortgages, liens—your liabilities as a buyer or seller, told in plain language, so that anyone may understand it? If you do, send for the new book, "Guide to Buyers and Sellers of Real Estate," published by "Record and Guide," 14 and 16 Vesey street. This volume contains also the new Real Estate Law that went into effect October 1st, minutely indexed. Price, in paper cover, 75 cents; postage extra, 7 cents; in cloth, $1.00; postage extra, 9 cents.

JUDGMENTS.

In these lists of judgments the names alphabetically arranged, and which are first on each line, are those of the judgment debtor. The letter (D) means judgment for deficiency. (*) means not summoned. (†) signifies that the first name is fictitious, real name being unknown. Judgments entered during the week, and satisfied before publication do not appear in this column, but in a list of Satisfied Judgments.

BUILDING MATERIAL MARKET.

NEW YORK.

BRICKS.—There has continued a fairly steady tone to the market for Hudson River brick. The amount of business transacted has shown a falling off as with the near approach of the national election buyers generally have shown a disposition to hold back and await developments. Arrivals have continued fairly large, as manufacturers have been making fair shipments and receivers have been carrying over from 25 to 30 barges daily. There has been, however, no attempt to force business, as the belief has been general that with election settled, which is quite generally expected to be favorable for the sound money party, demand will improve; consequently prices have been maintained. The ordinary grades sold at $4.12@4.50 and the better grades have brought $4.62½@4.75, and specials have been unchanged at $5.00. The demand for pale brick has been slow, but as the supply has been limited prices have been unchanged and steady, ranging from $1.50@2.00, according to quality. There has been a quiet market for Jersey brick, but as the offerings have been small prices have ruled about steady at $3.75@4.00.

CEMENT.—The market has shown a fairly good tone. Demand latterly has been steadily increasing and offerings have been fairly well absorbed at steady prices, Rosendale selling at 75c.@80c. The demand for the domestic makes of Portland cement has been reported as fairly good at full values and foreign do. also have had a moderate call at steady prices.

IRON AND STEEL.—The market for pig iron has been steady, and there has been a moderate amount of activity to the trading, although at the close the near approach of the election, together with the fact that consumers are fairly well supplied with deliveries on contracts, had a tendency to check trade; prices, however, were fairly well maintained. We quote at $11.75@12.50 per ton for No. 1 X foundry, $11.25@12.00 for No. 2 X do., $11.00@11.25 for No. 2 plain and $10.75@11.00 for Gray Forge. A steady market has been reported for old material and there has been a moderate amount of business transacted, although at the close the interest in the approaching election has a tendency to interrupt trade. We quote at $12.50@13.50 for old iron rails; $10.50@11.50 for No. 1 wrought scrap; $11.00@11.50 for cast scrap; $10.50@11.50 for old car wheels, and $6.00@9.00 for borings, stove plate, etc. The market for manufactured iron has shown a fairly steady tone. There has been a moderate number of orders placed at unchanged values. At the close, however, there was a lull in trade, the result of the near approach of the national election; prices were well maintained. Steel rails have been quiet and unchanged with the combine price, $28, f. o. b. mills.

LATH. — The arrivals during the past week have continued very limited, consisting almost exclusively of parts of cargoes. Demand, however, has been slow and prices have shown no changes, ruling steady at $1.50 for round lots, but sales in a jobbing way have been made at $1.55. Pine lath has moved slowly.

LIME.—At the opening of the week there was a moderate supply of Eastern lime in first hands, but as demand was fairly good the offerings were quickly absorbed at full quoted values and the close was firm, with common at 70c. and finishing do. at 80c. A limited amount of business has been transacted in State Jointa lime at steady prices, but the offerings of common state have been small and prices quoted have been largely nominal. St. John lime has been quiet and without changes.

LUMBER.—There has been almost a complete stagnation of business in the lumber trade during the past week. Buyers generally have shown a disposition to hold aloof from the market until the result of the national election is positively known. It is then expected that a general revival of business will follow, as a decided victory for the sound-money candidates is expected. Should, however, the result in any way be favorable to the free silver party the present unsettled condition of trade, it is thought, will continue. The stringency of the money market has been an unfavorable feature, and as a result of the calling in of loans some lumber has been forced on the market and it has gone at low prices.

There has been very little trading in the market for Eastern spruce. Offerings have been decidedly limited, as there were few cargoes on the way to this market, the shipments to England an South America absorbing the bulk of the supplies; prices have been unchanged and steady. The demand for special cargoes has been slow, but values have ruled firm; in fact it has been difficult to find mills that will take orders within the range of quotations. State and West Virginia spruce have been in slow demand, but as there have been no supplies on the market pressing for sale, prices have held fairly steady.

A slow market for white pine has been reported, buyers having shown a disposition to hold back until after the national election has been held. There has been, however, no pressure of supplies on the market and prices have held steady both for the coarse and better grades. There has been a practically neglected market for yellow and North Carolina pine and for supplies which were forced on the market, low prices had to be named to attract a buyer.

The market for hemlock has shown no important changes. The amount of business transacted has been decidedly limited, but as there has been no pressure of this lumber, mills in some cases being sold ahead, prices have been well maintained. There has been a slow and uninteresting market for cypress. Buyers apparently would not be interested until the result of the election was known but prices have been maintained with some show of steadiness.

It has been a slow and featureless work in the market for hardwoods. The only business transacted has been a few small hand-to-mouth orders, as trade has come practically to a standstill awaiting the outcome of the present political situation. For the more popular woods, including oak, mahogany, chestnut, birch, poplar, etc., there has been a steady market, as there has been no attempt to hurry business.

The Northwestern "Lumberman" says of northern pine:

A heavy movement by water is occurring from Lake Superior, Green Bay and other points to Buffalo and Tonawanda. Receipts at the foot of Lake Erie have been very large within a few days. This shows that the wholesale dealers are confident of future trade, and that they have taken advantage of low prices to put in ample stocks. An unusual number of vessels have been loaded for eastern points at Menominee-Marinette, during the week. Lumber to the amount of 5,000,000 to 7,000,000 feet has within a few days been sold at Duluth-Superior to be shipped to the east. Eastern wholesale dealers seem to have more faith in lumber than those at the west.

Cross piling at the mills is general, and a large amount of stock of the coarser varieties will be carried over the winter, and will furnish a good reserve of dry lumber to be drawn on in the spring. The trend of prices after the close of navigation will depend on conditions of

VOL. LVIII. NOVEMBER 7, 1896. No. 1,495

IT does not seem necessary to say more upon the business situation than that the predicted consequences of Major McKinley's election are coming to pass. Already there are reports of new works starting up and old ones being extended. People who were hoarding money a few weeks ago are shamefacedly asking the banks to take it back and mind it for them, while those who paid premiums for options on gold are out the premiums, as we said they would be, because there is no reason whatever why they should exercise their options. The money that is now returned to its proper channels must find occupation, as must also the muscular energies called into play by revived confidence; these will in due time produce prosperity. Men are no longer afraid to assume obligations, or to afford pecuniary assistance as the case may be. In Wall street the improvement in the market was made the opportunity for heavy realizations which brought about the decline on Thursday; but it cannot be said that the stock offered was not well taken, nor can it be denied that the probabilities point to higher prices. A reverse movement ought to follow the reverse of the conditions prevalent during the last scare. If, as is now incontestible, that scare was not warranted by the actual situation, the market ought to recover all the loss made in that time and more. So far the market has discounted practically nothing. A feeling of relief from dangers escaped brought about the advance of this week. To that will gradually be added the direct and practical influences of increased industry hardly yet begun and their pecuniary benefits to corporate securities. For these reasons the course of prices will continue to be upward.

FINANCIALLY the European situation is much improved by the results of the election in the United States. One way or another, the situation across the Atlantic had got mixed to European eyes and it was felt to be necessary to prepare for a possible, if not probable panic of unusual dimensions which would have seriously affected the foreign holders of American securities and the merchants and jobbers who had placed credits across the seas. Now that it is found that these preparations are unnecessary, that no commercial collapse carrying disaster in the world cycle of its influence can occur, everyone breathes more freely, and business has now only to contend with the nervousness that politics occasion. The word politics as applied to European affairs has a different significance than when applied to American affairs. In one place it relates to the opposing movements of nations and in the other to the strategy of parties. In the first there is no element of common nationality and interest to limit the measure of antagonism before the danger point is reached as there is in the other. Consequently there is always something awesome in the word when meaning foreign affairs. The condition now, however, is not worse than it has been many times before, except that now there seems to be an idea that the day of Turkey is done—an idea, by the way, revived at frequent periods during the last seventy years—and no one has yet devised a satisfactory plan for disposing of the remains. If there is to be a fight as of vultures over the carcase, the prospect is a terrible one, and quiet people who want nothing more than to go about their business in safety may well shudder. Lord Salisbury will have to say something on this question at the Lord Mayor's banquet next Tuesday. He would undoubtedly prefer to hold his tongue, but custom insists and the people are anxious, so that he cannot avoid speaking. His position is somewhat farcical, because if it is true that negotiations for an agreement between Great Britain, Russia and France on the Eastern question are proceeding they cannot yet have got to the stage where avowals and explanations would be safe. This is one of the disadvantages under which a constitutional minister labors; he can be interrogated in the hearing of his opponents and rivals. The recourse from this awkwardness is verbose ambiguity, and on this Lord Salisbury will probably rely when at the Guildhall. When Parliament meets his ordeal will be more severe unless he is then prepared to announce a policy that will satisfy the public demand that protection be extended to the Christian subjects of the Sultan. Until this question has been disposed of there will be anxiety abroad.

THERE is every probability of a considerable augmentation of the world's gold output in the next few years on top of the great increase that has already taken place as a result of the development of South African fields and the turning of mining enterprise from silver to gold, in consequence of the decline in the price of the former in the past three years. The Rand is continually beating its own record, the output for each of the last three months reported being worth more than $4,000,000, so that that amount per month is becoming its ordinary, instead of its extraordinary, capacity. The descriptions of the British Columbian fields given by special reporters of the daily press show them to be very extensive and fairly rich. We are led to believe that the Barima fields will pay out well as soon as political complications are unraveled and they can be developed with safety. It is not necessary to refer to the growing production of the United States, which has under keen prospecting and enterprise kept this country in the front rank of gold producers. But the most significant news comes from West Australia. Since the announcement of the first discoveries at Coolgardie and the rush of promotors to capitalize claims in this field, Westralians, as the shares of these mines are called, have been something of a disappointment. The returns have not come up to expectations, while the extreme aridity of the country in which the mines are situated, and the difficulties encountered in reaching it becoming known, have checked enthusiasm and, of course, the flow of capital necessary to the development of the mines. In order to acquaint the public with the true facts of the case, the London Economist, a journal that has hitherto treated Westralians not only temperately, but cooly, dispatched a special correspondent to Western Australia and has begun the publication of his letters. Although he had not reached the mines themselves, he met evidence at the capital of the colony that inclined him to expect very great things when he did. He found a people absorbed in mines and talking only of reefs and claims, and the government of the colony fully satisfied in regard to the future, vigorously assisting the development of means of transportation and inter-communication and energetically attacking the water problem, the chief source of difficulty at the moment. The gold fields are absolutely without fresh water, and the best way of supplying it is considered to be by a pipe line 300 miles long and rising 1,500 feet in that distance. This will require 90,000 tons of steel pipes and eight pumping stations en route. For this work a loan of $12,500,000 will shortly be placed upon the London market. Further confidence is shown by the government in building railroads and telegraph lines and in establishing a postal service. The correspondent's conclusion from these facts is that the government must have hard facts to justify them or they would never assume the enormous responsibilities these works involve and so court disaster. The reasonable inference is that these gold fields will be found to be rich, extensive and permanent.

AN important notice to property-owners, architects and builders is now being published by the Department of Public Works, the text of which will be found on another page. While calling attention to the fact that all ordinances in relation to the use and occupancy of the sidewalks will be enforced, it has particular reference to hoistways without the stoop-line limits. It has become the custom to construct these hoistways almost at the curb-line, particularly in the case of the new big buildings and the consequent obstruction to public traffic when they are open, it is claimed by the Department, has reached the extent of a nuisance and must be stopped. The Department of Public Works has requested, or will shortly request the Department of Buildings not to approve building plans that in this or other details anticipate a violation of the city ordinances in order that the latter Department may assist the former in keeping the streets free from all unnecessary obstructions to public traffic. In addition to the violations referred to, the general subject of sidewalk openings is complicated by the conversion of residence into business streets, and the interpretations that can be given to the privileges granted to the property-owners years before their present fates and characters were anticipated. For instance, on 5th avenue and 23d street, the owners of lots were, under resolutions of the Board of Aldermen, permitted to enclose courts fifteen feet wide in front of their lots on both sides of the street under certain conditions. We have before us a copy of one such resolution passed in 1845, which certainly does not give any further privilege than to enclose. With the change of the purpose for which the abutting property is used, the railings making the enclosure have been taken away, but the property-owners have claimed the right to use the whole fifteen feet and have arranged their sidewalk openings accordingly. The city claims that in these as in other cases the openings should not extend beyond the five-foot limit. Further, it claims that openings beyond that limit are violations of the vault permits and subject the latter to revocation. The differences in the opinions held by the Department of Public Works and some of the property-owners on 5th avenue, in regard to openings of the character referred to are assuming the proportions of a dispute, and will probably be forced upon public attention shortly. The notice by the Department is presumably the first gun fired in the little conflict that appears to be imminent.

The Safeguard of Awkwardness.

TO hamstring our governments, Federal, State and local, has long been a favorite way of protecting "the liberties of the people." Jefferson was the father of the system, and Bryce pertinently remarks that it was very fortunate that Jefferson was in Paris while our Federal constitution was being drafted and adopted. Jefferson believed that liberty was worth a little blood-letting, and would have sympathized with Altgeld in opposition to Cleveland's intervention during the Chicago riots. Mr. Bryan, who was a consistent Jeffersonian Democrat until the rising tide of populism swept him off his feet, expresses the old idea forcibly if not elegantly in his talk about nose-rings. John J. Ingalls, of the Republican party, is animated by the same thought when he says that we do not need a navy because, if we have a strong navy, we shall swagger and get into trouble.

Our Federal government was first made awkward as a safeguard for the States, but then the States slavishly copied the model and made themselves too awkward to defend the rights that had been left them. Finally the cities outgrew the States in which they were located, and the Legislatures have never token a vital interest in municipal reform, because they have seemed to feel that a cumbrous and illogical city government was more easily dominated from the State capitol than an efficient one would be. All these conscious efforts have therefore conspired to re-enforce the inherent difficulties of so organizing a people that they can work together with efficiency. We have been allowed to persist in this policy of gratuitous awkwardness by reason of our isolated position in the New World. The pressure of international rivalries would at once constrain a European State to become efficient in many regards, or else it would be wiped out of existence. Only Turkey, which lives by the grace of Christian jealousies, can permit itself to emulate our governmental inefficiency.

One who has watched State Legislatures or Congress at work cannot fail to have noticed that a fear of making the State too efficient influences men of all parties in opposing actively or passively many reforms. The active politician sees so many things go wrong in public matters he has an honest dread of seeing the State put in shape to do anything decisive. He knows more about the "Sins of Legislators" than Herbert Spencer, and all the conscience that he may happen to have left after some years of service, revolts against having the State try to do very much, and even against an organization of the State that would permit it to do very much. A good deal of the opposition of practical politicians to civil service reform had its root in this latent feeling that the State would become too efficient unless it was crippled in all its departments by something like the spoils system. A man who had served in a constitutional convention in one of the Western States and assented to a constitution which guaranteed a cumbrous, expensive and useless State Board of Transportation, defended his action on the ground that that was the best kind of a board to have. If the State was able to do anything in dealing with the railroads, he was afraid it would do something it had better not.

Strategy like this on the part of the corporation lawyers and prominent business men who serve in State constitutional conventions and who influence current legislation has been tolerably successful in aborting populistic plans for State control of industry. The system of checks and balances has been so intricate that the populists could do very little, even when they secured control of a given government. But if they have been checked they have worked a counter check by the same policy. The opposition to allowing railroads to establish legal and binding pools has its basis in the same distrust of centralized power that has rendered our governments too awkward for practical operations. "You have hamstrung the government. We will hamstring the corporations or the fight will be unequal," is virtually the position of the populists. Divide and conquer is his maxim, and he dares not let the railroads combine, and would prevent all combinations in industry if he could, because he fears if they once secured a coherent and businesslike organization they would be beyond the control of the unbusinesslike State.

The policy which the populists would adopt towards capitalistic organizations the capitalist class maintained as long as they could against organizations of workmen. Divide and conquer was also their motto. The conflict of awkward organizations found its reduction to absurdity and iniquity in the rioting at Chicago during the last great railroad strike. Here we had a large and semi-responsible organization of workmen, a tolerably effective but possibly illegal organization of railway managers contending with one another; the State Governor sympathizing with the workmen to such an extent that he was distrusted by their opponents, and the President of the United States co-operating with the railway managers and distrusted by the other parties. The evolution of the injunction for the purposes in hand, and the sending of the United States troops without a request from the Governor of the State, were two ways adopted by the Federal government of trying to make itself more efficient than people had supposed it to be. The statute under which President Cleveland acted was a survival from war times when we had been coerced into a large measure of Federal efficiency, and the use of the injunction was a return to an old English practice that had been at once an efficient means of government action and eventually an agent of tyranny.

On the whole the safeguard of legally ordained awkwardness has not worked well. The agitation for making the Federal government as impotent as Altgeld would like to have it has not been very popular. There is a widening appreciation of the fact that centralized and efficient organization is needed among workingmen, is needed among captains of industry and is needed in government. The organization that is really efficient is less likely to be violent and dangerous than the one which, being inherently powerful, is made gratuitously clumsy.

NATURALLY the result of the election has caused business men to anticipate better times. In the real estate world the opinion seems to be pretty unanimous that a heavy incubus upon endeavor has been removed, and that we may look for a steady growth in business under conditions that encourage confidence. Responsible officers of great loaning institutions publicly intimate that they are ready to receive propositions for loans and to examine them with a view to business, so that in a short time it will be possible to obtain the accommodations for real estate and building operations which it was not possible to do during the past three or four months. A canvass of the most prominent real estate agents and brokers shows that the animating spirit is one of general confidence and expectation of better times, though the views of all are expressed in moderate tones and in conservative language. Among the representative men who have made their views public are Geo. R. Read, Alfred E. Marling, Richard V. Harnett, George De Forest Barton, John N. Golding. Phillip A. Smyth and Peter F. Meyer. They all express themselves as confident that not only the real estate interest of the city of New York, but the whole of the United States will soon return to normal activity and ultimate consequent prosperity. Among the causes that are to produce this result are the freedom from political agitation and convulsion, the freeing of large amounts of money tied up by the fears of the timid, the passing away of the specific gold contract, and its obstructive influences and especially the fact that those who control the pecuniary resources of the public are likely to take real estate into their favor again. These are all logical anticipations of the result of the great event of the week, and predictions of improvement in business based upon them can be confidently received.

Sidewalk Openings.

The following notice to owners, architects and builders was recently issued by Gen. Chas. H. T. Collis, Commissioner of Public Works.

"Notice is hereby given that all ordinances of the Common Council, approved December 31, 1880, and subsequent thereto, in relation to the use and occupancy of sidewalks, must be complied with, and that all hoistways must occupy only such space of the sidewalks as is authorized by special ordinance of the Common Council, passed March 30, 1886, viz:

'Hoistways may be placed within the stoop-lines, but in no case to extend beyond five feet from the house-line, and shall be guarded by iron railings or rods to prevent accidents to passers-by.'

"You are further notified that all violations now existing of such ordinances must be removed, and that all conditions set forth in permits granted for vault or other purposes must be complied with within sixty days. The special ordinances permitting court-yard enclosures give no right to occupy this space otherwise."

Notice to Taxpayers.

The following official announcement, issued by David E. Austen, Receiver of Taxes, from his office, No. 57 Chambers street (Stewart Building), is self-explanatory:

"Notice is hereby given by the Receiver of Taxes, of the City of New York, to all persons whose taxes for the year 1896 remain unpaid on the first day of November of said year that unless the same shall be paid to him at his office on or before the first day of December of said year, he will charge, receive and collect upon such taxes so remaining unpaid on that day, in addition to the amount of such taxes, one per centum on the amount thereof, and charge, receive and collect upon such taxes so remaining unpaid on the first day of January thereafter interest upon the amount thereof at the rate of seven per centum per annum, to be calculated from October 1, 1896, the day on which the assessment rolls and warrants therefor were delivered to the said Receiver of Taxes to the date of payment, as provided by sections 843, 844 and 845 of the New York City Consolidation Act of 1882."

Wrinkles in House Building.

In West 87th street, on the south side, close to Riverside Drive, is a row of five houses that contain many noteworthy points. They are of the usual high-stoop pattern, with the first story divided into front parlor, back parlor, and dining-room, with the pantry in an extension, quite as usual in general arrangement. But on each side of the sliding doors that connect the back parlor with the dining-room, a large mirror has been placed, covering about all the wall space that there is on each side of the doorway.

The effect is good, as the reflection lights up the middle room—the back parlor—a room which has no other light, and is always inclined to be dim.

Besides this, the appearance, at a glance, is of a long and spacious suite of rooms, the mirrors seeming to be open spaces, and the door architrave reduced to a couple of posts. It would have been even better if this doorway could have been made with columns and an arch, to match the archway between the parlors.

The pantry has a little wrinkle, almost new, so rarely is it used that it may be considered quite new, in the shape of a couple of shallow, glass-doored cupboards, not more than eight or ten inches deep, at the back of the table shelf that, as usual, flanks the sink. These are made, too, with much thought, the doors swinging two or three inches above the table shelf, so as to clear plates and dishes that may be on the latter, while the bottom shelf of the cupboard itself is set up flush with the door openings, just as it should be—a trivial matter, no doubt, but showing thought and care exercised by somebody.

In the third story is a very new arrangement, unprecedented in New York speculation houses, I think, nothing less than the use of the front hall bedroom for a bathroom. This bathroom is an appendage of the large front bedroom, and is for the benefit of it alone, not for general household use, there being no entrance from the hall. A good piece of the space back of the bathroom is made into a large closet, four feet wide, by the width of the hall bedroom in depth. The rear bedroom on this same story has sole access to the bathroom in the extension, giving two large rooms on this floor only, but each with a private bathroom attached. How far this sacrifice of room to luxury will be acceptable to householders time will show.

On the second story the front room extends all across the front, making the arrangement of the third story impossible there. The extension bathroom in the rear, however, is the same. It is paved with mosaic, in a rather different form from what is usual, the tesserae or small pieces composing it being circular, of some burnt clay material, and, with the cement that fills the interstices, forming a pleasing pattern.

The floors of the upper stories seem to be of hard maple, No. 1 in quality, although not what is called in lumber-yard phrase "sap-white." This latter is of white, and perfectly uniform color. The No 1 is white, with various shades of pale brown mixed in irregularly, far prettier for general use, indeed, for any use, except, perhaps, where pure white is needed for an all-white effect.

This all-white effect has been tried for in the saloon dressing rooms, between the bedrooms, which are finished with white enamel paint, and light up well accordingly, even with the borrowed illuminates which light them. They have, too, large mirrors, not fixed in the closet doors in the usual fashion, but set immovably against a wall space prepared for them.

Going down to the basement we find more novelties. The partition between the extension laundry and kitchen is quite done away with, making kitchen and laundry but one large room, the laundry forming a sort of alcove, a plan which has its advantages.

In the cellar is a little piece of thoughtfulness, by which the connection of the cold-air trunk of the furnace with the outer air does not, as usual, cut off the light of the window with which it is connected.

The device is simple enough to look at, but hard to describe without diagrams. The window which admits air is as usual a "bulkhead" window, somewhat above the level of the galvanized iron trunk, and admitting light at an angle of about 45 degrees to the cellar. Opposite to this window, at that angle, is the valve which admits air from the cellar, instead of outside air, at pleasure. But the valve, instead of being made of galvanized iron, is itself a glazed sash, so that, even when it is shut, the light still comes through, lighting up, as well as ever, that part of the cellar.

There is a curious difference in the color of the plastering of most of the rooms, for, as the houses are but just finished, no painting nor papering has yet been done. This difference is very slight, and seems to be caused by the use of Windsor cement, or some other hard plaster, on the walls up to the frieze line, and of ordinary plaster above that line and on the ceiling.

Plaster centres, so long under a cloud, are again used, although very small and flat in these houses, and the cornices are for the most part perfectly plain, quarter circle coves.

Many other minute details show much care in the carrying out of these houses. The pulls of the sliding doors, for instance, are of the "flush pull" description, with a difference from the ordinary in this, that the pulls, thrust out, as usual, by pressing a stud, do not need to be pushed back into place, but rapidly fly back themselves as soon as the thumb relaxes pressure on the stud.

The storm doors at the entrance have rubber cushions let into the rabbet of the transom to strike against, not the usual button, but a more efficacious device; and to the stone step below are screwed stout rubber buffers for them to open against.

Things are done throughout these houses in a careful and interesting way; there are also several houses nearby, not yet finished, that show much the same ways of doing things, and are probably from the hand of the same architect.

Pier Roof Gardens.

The Board of Aldermen on Thursday week received from their Committee on Docks the following report and resolutions, which were, severally, accepted and adopted:

On June 2, 1896, the Committee on Docks presented a somewhat lengthy report on the subject of roof gardens on the piers of this city. In said report it was shown that, at the suggestion of the Commissioners on Docks, prompted by the action of this Board, it would be advisable to withdraw our request for a roof garden at the foot of 117th street, and instead approve of the recommendation to erect a new pier, with garden attached, at the foot of East 112th street. It was further suggested by our report of that date that this Committee "be continued, with instructions and power to further the movement in favor of roof gardens, as contemplated, and to report from time to time the progress made in that direction."

In accordance with the foregoing we beg herewith to report that the work, which we had hoped would be begun during the past summer season, has been delayed, and that it is now again proposed to change that contemplated work to conform to recent opinions, which favor an entire different location from that originally desired, and also from that recommended by the Dock Commissioners, as set forth in our report of June 2 last.

This change of view is based on the ground that greater good to a larger number would be afforded by locating the first roof garden, properly constructed, in a more thickly-populated centre of the city, and further away from existing parks and location whereat it is proposed to lay out new parks.

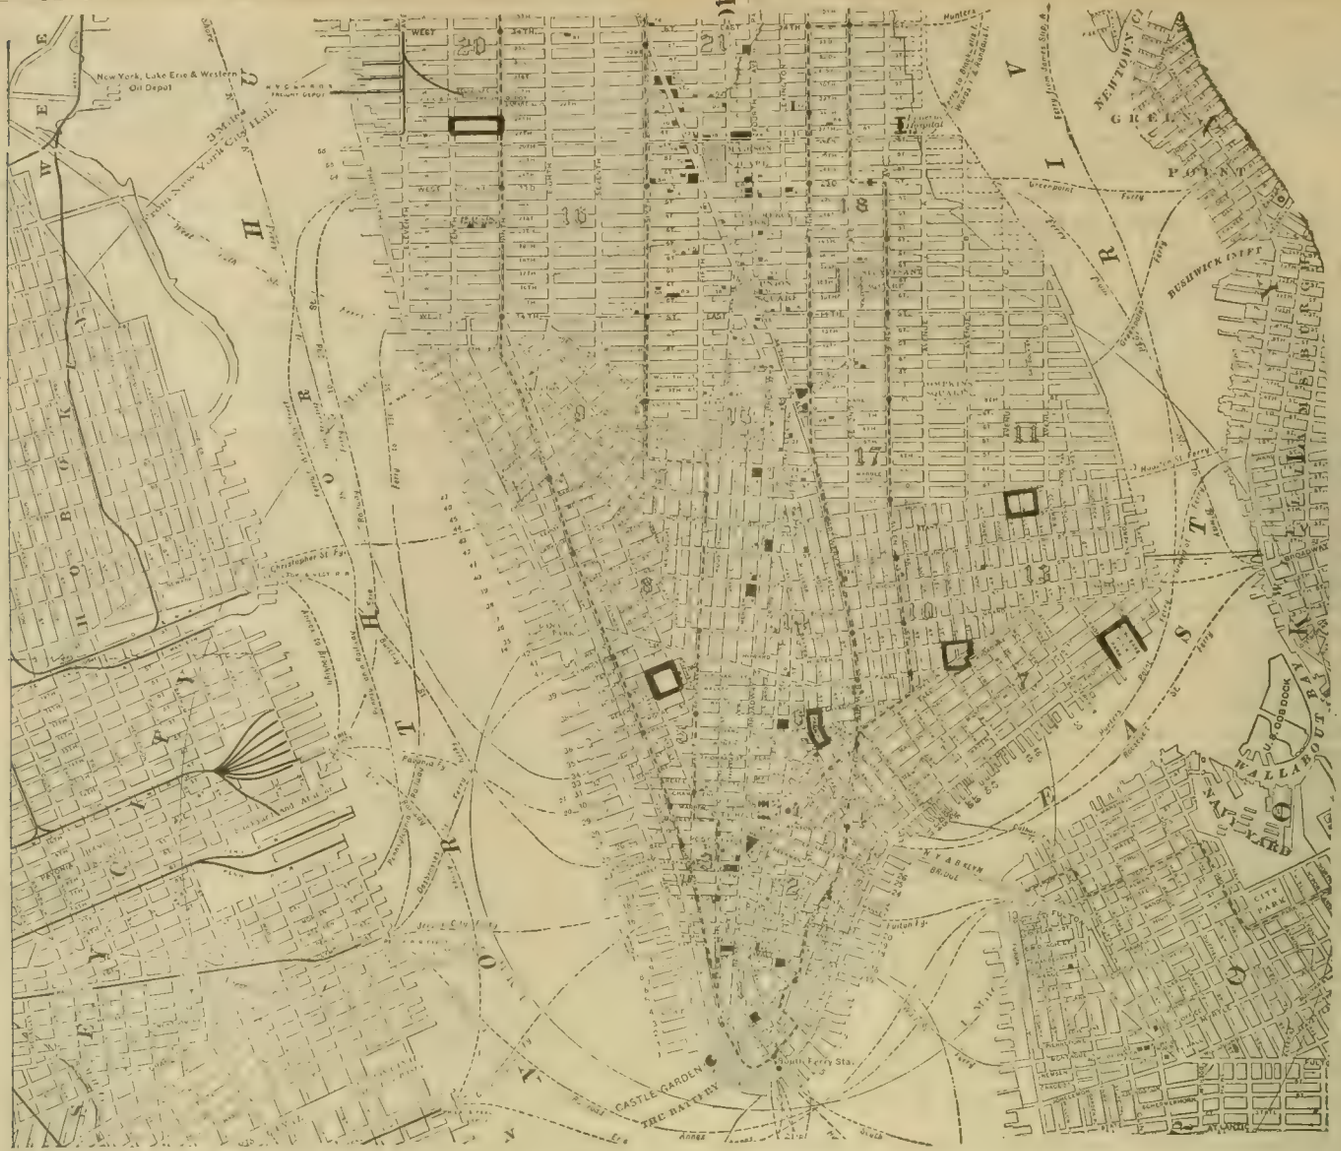
If the roof garden were built at the foot of 112th street, as agreed to, the amount of money appropriated for the purpose would be devoted towards a new pier and roof garden combined; but if built as now proposed (more in the heart of the city), the sum expended will be used for the roof garden proper at an already existing pier, under which conditions a more elaborate and complete structure is assured.

We are pleased to state that the Aldermen who have urged the original plan, and who are somewhat disappointed at the failure to realize their hopes and expectations, readily yield their desires for the general welfare, and join with the Committee in advocating the latter proposition. We feel that what is wanted is a proper test of the utility and benefits of breathing spots on the river front, for women and children, during the heated term of the year, and we want that test to be thorough in all particulars. Consequently, the more perfect the first roof garden is, which is especially built for that purpose, and the more thickly populated the locality where it is situated, the better the test. The citizens of the upper end of the island who petitioned this Board for a roof garden at the foot of 117th street can better afford to await the result of the first experiment, with a prospect of securing in the end much more consideration and greater facilities than would be granted them under the original propositions; and so also with the others who have requested this Board to locate roof gardens in their midst. We offer the following:

Resolved, That this Board approves of the change of location as suggested by the latter proposition, and urges the Commissioners of Docks to hasten the work with as much expedition as possible.

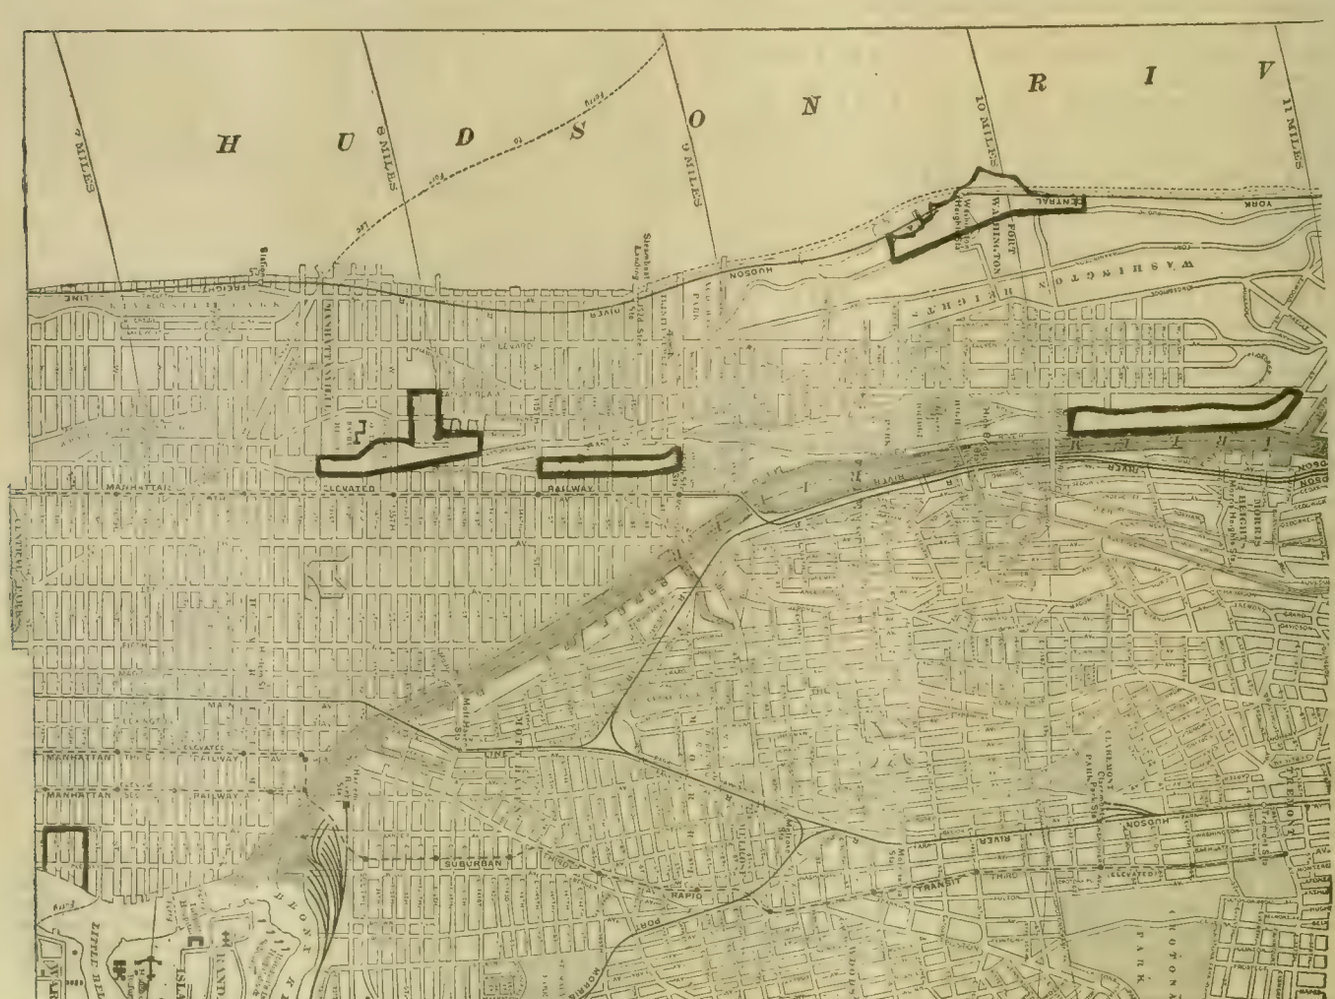
Resolved, That his Honor the Mayor, who has manifested a deep interest in this project, and favors the plan now presented, be and he is hereby respectfully requested to lend his influence and co-operation in this work.

Resolved, That the Committee on Dock Department be and they are instructed to carry out the provisions of the resolution of June 2, as far as it relates to "further the movement in favor of roof gardens on city piers generally, and to report to this Board from time to time the progress made in that direction, calling attention whenever necessary to needed legislation on the part of the Common Council and of the State Legislature."



The Department of Docks has decided to build a pier roof garden at the foot of 3d street.

Water in the 23d and 24th Wards.



The Board of Fire Commissioners received on Wednesday a report from Thoms J. Ahearn, Chief of the Sixth Battalion, located in the 23d and 24th Wards, on the pressure at the hydrants in his district. It states that there was an average pressure of more than 50 pounds to the square inch in most places, but that at Wakefield the pressure ran from 21 down to 5 pounds at two hydrants, from 28 to 6 pounds at another, and from 21 to 20 pounds at a fourth. In Williamsbridge at four hydrants the average drop was from 30 to 25 pounds, 45 to 37, 45 to 33, and 67 to 50 pounds.

Obituary.

Samuel Corn, who, for some time previous to 1895, was recognized as a factor in local real estate speculation, died on the evening of Friday, October 30, at his home in East 128th street. Mr. Corn was 71 years of age, and in 1855, eight years after his arrival in this city from his birthplace in Prussia, he established the business that later brought him a handsome fortune, that of a furrier and cap-maker. In his real estate operations his son, Henry, was always associated, and is credited with having been the guiding spirit in those that were most successful. The deceased is survived by a widow and three sons.

Municipal Improvements—The Parks.

Of late years little has been done in the way of laying out new parks. It was only under extreme pressure and by the force of all the influence possessed by the gentlemen composing the Tenement House Commission, that some openings have been made in the compact masses of tenements on the East and West Sides. This is characteristic of New York. Improvements, unless directly beneficial, are admitted reluctantly, and carried out slowly. Father Knickerbocker is a very respectable old gentleman, but the commercial instincts, which have been the cause of his success, cling to him too much in the days of his prosperity. The improvements he likes best are those with coupons attached and which may be cut at certain dates. Although there are others with equal pecuniary value, the value is not upon the surface and Father Knickerbocker has been so successful that he has not needed to look below the surface and this perhaps explains why he does not.

In the matter of parks, New York's policy has been to make large additions at long intervals, and sleep in the intervening periods. The passage of the Central Park Act in 1853 was followed by such a time of repose, and every one knows what hard work it was to work up a public opinion in favor of acquiring park lands in Westchester County, to anticipate the needs of the city that is growing up to-day. The agitation took shape under vigorous efforts of able far-sighted men in the formation of the New York Park Association on Nov. 26, 1881, but the Association had to labor industriously until 1883 before a commission was appointed. When the Commission had reported and the Legislature had converted their report into law, there were two more years of fight with the municipal authorities until the Court of Appeals, in 1886, cut the ground from under the opponents of one of the most salutary movements conceivable and 3,848.39 acres of beautiful land were saved from destruction and reserved as the recreation grounds of what is destined to be one of the greatest cities of the earth. Those who would like to read the history of this movement, can do so in the bright little book written by John Mullaly, Secretary of the New York Park Association, and an indefatigable worker in the cause, entitled "The New Parks beyond the Harlem." There they will find how the park system of New York was brought up to the standard, if not to the requirements of modern civilized cities, and when they have read this, with the graphic description of the tracts saved to nature, they will admit that the prize was worth all the cost of time, thought and money, expended in its attainment. The later history of the city has shown, too, that park improvements are no idle ornament, but have their practical side also, repaying their cost many times over in increase of taxable value of the city they adorn.

Since the substantial acquisition of land in Westchester County, the city has confined its efforts to what are called small parks, made up of triangles, squares and parcels of one or more blocks, which have been laid out and made spots pleasant to the eye in the otherwise uninteresting street vistas. In the upper West Side some of the hillsides which presented more than the usual obstacles of such land, to the laying out of building sites, have been taken for parks, for which they are eminently fitted and permit the most picturesque treatment possible. Notable among these are the High Bridge Park extensions along the Speedway, Colonial Park, between Edgecombe Road and Bradhurst Avenue. The movement to reform our tenement-house system directly influences the creation of small parks, especially downtown, where breathing and recreation grounds are so obviously necessary. The Small Parks Act gave the city power to expend $1,000,000 a year in purchasing sites, and under this several parks were laid out, but the act did not work satisfactorily. The limit of allowable expenditure was too low. The Mulberry Bend Park was acquired under this act, but as the damages exceeded the legal limit of expenditure, it was necessary to get special powers from the Legislature in order to pay them and get possession of the land, so that the Park Department could do the laying out. Last year the Tenement-House Commission obtained the passage of an act authorizing the city to expend $3,000,000 in laying out three small parks for the benefit of dwellers in the tenements. Under this act the Houston street, Division street and West Side (27th and 28th streets), parks have been decided upon. In selecting sites, besides picking out desirable locations, the principle has been followed of breaking up some of the worst and most crowded tenements. It is believed that making this one of the objects in all future plans for small parks, will result beneficially to the moral welfare of the city.

Owing to adverse financial conditions, and to the growing budget of the city, the authorities have for two years or more made no unavoidable enlargements of the park system, in fact in this matter they have been, so to say, driven at the point of the act of the Legislature. Notwithstanding this reluctance, we have seen Corlear's Hook and Mulberry Bend Parks opened to the enjoyment of the people this year. Work is going on at St. John's Park, and the three new sites previously referred to decided upon. Proceedings for acquiring title to the latter are in course of preparation. Similar proceedings are now being carried on for acquiring title to East River, between 111th and 114th streets; extension of Riverside Park, 72d to 129th street; extension of Highbridge Park, 155th to 170th street, and from Washington Bridge to Dyckman street, Fort Washington Park, Colonial Park, and, presumably, St. Nicholas' Park, though the memoranda of the Park Department, from which we take these facts, does not mention the latter. The parks acquired and unimproved are small pieces of land at Manhattan avenue and 114th street, 7th avenue and 117th street, St. Nicholas avenue and 137th street, St. Nicholas avenue and 150th street, and at Macomb's Dam Bridge. The maps given herewith show the boundaries of the parks recently opened, or about to be opened. St. John's, Mulberry Bend and Corlear's Hook and of the parks authorized by the Legislature or laid out by the Board of Street Opening and Improvement, undergoing condemnation; Houston street, Division street, West 27th and 28th streets, East River, 111th to 114th street, St. Nicholas, Colonial, Fort Washington and Highbridge extensions. Those in the upper part of the city were shown in a map published in our issue of June 23, 1894, but by comparing that map with the corresponding one now given, it will be found that the lay-outs of St. Nicholas Park and the Highbridge Park extension have been changed since that date. The city endeavored to secure from the Legislature of 1895 power to the Board of Street Opening and Improvement to reduce the area of the parks laid out by the Legislature in 1894, but was only successful in getting a strip 200 feet wide east of Convent avenue, from 138th street to 141st street, cut from St. Nicholas Park, and the Speedway Park, or Highbridge Park extension limited to the slope between the Croton Aqueduct and the Speedway, returning to private use the upland northerly thereof. Below will be found a list of the city parks with their locations and extent in acres where surveys determining their size have been made and from which the actual boundaries of most if not all can be obtained:

Misdirection in Old Deed.

The Supreme Court-Appellate Division has reversed the order of dismissal of complaint in the case of Heller v. Cohen. It will be remembered that suit was brought to enforce performance of a contract for the purchase of No. 245 Grand street. Title was rejected on the grounds (1) that in a deed in the chain executed in 1810, the description erroneously mentions the northwest corner of Chrystie and Grand streets, as the point of beginning, instead of the southwest corner; (2) a discrepancy of eleven and one-half inches between the description in the deeds and the surveys. The Appellate Division opinion of reversal, written by Justice Barrett, stated that the defect of description was cured by the context of the deed itself, by correct descriptions in other deeds and in a devise, by adverse possession, by estoppel and by a referee's deed of the premises in partition; also that the discrepancy in the distance, due to the fact that the De Lancy map made the distance from the Bowery to Chrystie street two feet less than the real distance, was cured both by adverse possession and the fact that no adjoining owner ever had a legal claim to the eleven-inch strip.

Do you want to know all about real estate—deeds, mortgages, liens—your liabilities as a buyer or seller, told in plain language, so that anyone may understand it? If you do, send for the new book, "Guide to Buyers and Sellers of Real Estate," published by "Record and Guide," 14 and 16 Vesey street. This volume contains also the new Real Estate Law that went into effect October 1st, minutely indexed. A New Rapid Transit Plan.

Mr. Wm. B. Parsons, Chief Engineer, has presented to the Rapid Transit Commission a plan for building a rapid transit railroad in compliance with the resolution of the Commission passed last August, that the total cost shall not exceed $30,000,000, and to proceed along what is known as the Elm street route. This is from the Post-office, under City Hall Park; Elm street and 4th avenue to or near the Grand Central Depot, there dividing into an east and west side route. The west side route to proceed under 42d street to Broadway and Boulevard to a point above 125th street. The east side route to proceed under Park avenue and over private property to the Harlem River and across and beyond the Harlem River to as great a distance as the proposed limit of cost would allow. The details of construction and the large amount of valuable information given in the report cannot all be examined and treated in these columns this week owing to the report having only reached us yesterday. One feature that may be noted is the suggestion for supplying rapid transit facilities to the section north of 110th street, between 8th and 3d avenues, now devoid of them. This is that if instead of carrying the new route through and along 4th avenue, or to the eastward of it, it should be carried to the westward, it would be removed from existing railroads and serve to create its own traffic. For this two alternatives are presented: One by laying out an elevated railroad along some cross street, as for example 110th street to Lenox avenue and thence along and over Lenox avenue to the Harlem River. The other to branch off at or near 110th street, pass through the rear of the lots abutting say on 110th street to a point to the east of Lenox avenue, but sufficiently far to the west of Mount Morris Park to avoid the valuable residential property abutting on that square; thence turning to the right with an easy curve and running straight to the Harlem River parallel to Lenox avenue. This line prolonged across the Harlem River would reach the Annexed District at about 150th street.

Regarding the 23d and 24th Wards, the report takes these as comprising two distinct sections, divided by the lines and tracks of the New York Central and Harlem railroads. The easterly of these two sections, it is proposed, should be left to existing lines, and to extensions and developments of the Manhattan Elevated R. R. Co.'s lines. The westerly section would be served by an extension of the proposed Lenox avenue line, either by an elevated railroad along Girard avenue to its intersection with Jerome avenue and then as far northward along Jerome avenue as may be thought desirable, or by acquiring private property and building a railroad elevated, depressed or on an embankment enclosed between retaining walls as the topography of the land indicates.

The property to be taken to carry out this plan will consist of: 25 feet on 110th street, from 4th to Lenox avenue; 40 to 50 feet north of 110th street, on Lenox avenue to the River and north of the River a 50-foot right of way; at 9th street and Astor place, where the line will pass under the corner of a block in order to diminish excessive curvature; and on Park avenue, between 97th and 99th streets, where a strip would have to be acquired in order to make a new roadway. For land damages, $3,000,000 is allowed in the estimates.

The point above 125th street, suggested by Mr. Parsons as the terminus of the west side line, is the neighborhood of 135th street.

Change of Grade Damages in the 23d and 24th Wards.

One of a batch of opinions handed down last week by the Supreme Court-Appellate Division, sustained the findings of Daniel Lord, James M. Varnum and George Stephens, Commissioners appointed under Chapter 537 of the Laws of 1893, to ascertain the amount of damages to lands and buildings suffered by the change of grades of streets and avenues in depressing railroad tracks in the 23d and 24th Wards. The act in question imposes on the city claims to a very large amount. The Comptroller took exception to payment of claims sustained by the Commission, and on certiorari sought to review the proceedings of the Commission, contending that Chapter 567 of the Laws of 1894—one of the enabling acts under which the Commission proceeded—specified Chapter 329, of the Laws of 1892, as one of the laws authorizing the change of grade. That chapter relates exclusively to the Health Board. Chapter 339, of the Laws of 1892, does, however, refer to change of grade. The Court held that evidently a clerical error had been made, by which 329 was written for 339, and that that should not frustrate the legislative intent to give relief to property-owners.

Needed New Paving.

Recently the Property-Owners' Union of the city of New York petitioned the Board of Aldermen to pass resolutions for paving the east side of Park avenue, from 97th to 102d street, and 98th street, from Lexington to Park avenue; to flag sidewalk, full width, each side of 5th avenue, from 90th to 110th street, where not already done; sidewalk, full width, Madison avenue, from 95th to 106th street, where not already done; sidewalk, full width, around the blocks occupied by elevated railroad company bounded by 98th street, 99th street, 3d to Park avenue, including sidewalks, on Lexington avenue, from 98th to 99th street; also sidewalks on block occupied by cable depot, 99th to 100th street, Lexington to Park avenue. The petition was referred to General Collis, Commissioner of Public Works, whose reply was read at a recent meeting of the Board of Aldermen. In it he said: "I have reported favorably to the Mayor resolutions for paving the east side of Park avenue, from 97th to 102d street, and there is no reason for not paving 98th street, except that a resolution and ordinance for the improvement have not yet been passed by the Board of Aldermen and approved by the Mayor. This Department has certified to the Board of Aldermen the necessity of flagging sidewalks as follows: East side of 5th avenue, from 90th to 97th street; east side of 5th avenue, from 95th to 101st street; Madison avenue, from 95th to 101st street. Until these ordinances are passed by the Board of Aldermen and approved by the Mayor, this Department cannot improve the sidewalks. As to the sidewalks on 97th and 98th streets, between 3d and Lexington avenues, the Consulting Engineer reported on Sept. 14, that they were in good condition."

Referring to a resolution for paving 27th street, from 7th to 13th avenue, with asphalt, the Commissioner reported this as a very desirable improvement, but said the Department had no money to make it with this year.

Work of the Department of Buildings.

Superintendent Constable's report for the September quarter contains the comparative summary given below of the work of the Department of Buildings in the first nine months of this and last year. The most important figures relate to the filings and the work begun and finished. It will be seen that the number of buildings and alterations for which permits were asked was very much larger this year than last, and the work commenced was greater, as was also the number of buildings and alterations completed. These figures would have been more valuable if accompanied by others showing the estimated money value of the work inaugurated and completed:

	1895.	1896.	Increase in favor of 1896.

Building in Brooklyn.

Commissioner Wesley C. Bush makes the following statement of the number of new buildings and alterations, for which permits were issued during the month ending Oct. 31, 1896, and the estimated cost of the same:

Brick buildings	111
Frame buildings	120
		231
Alterations		244
Total number of permits issued		475
Estimated cost of brick buildings	$649,660
Estimated cost of frame buildings	198,660
		$848,320
Estimated cost of alterations		121,670
Total estimated cost		$969,990
Total estimated cost for October, 1895		2,107,197
Excess in favor of 1895		$1,137,207

Personal.

Richard B. McCotter was elected an annual member of the Real Estate Exchange at the regular monthly meeting on Wednesday of the Board of Directors.

Dissolution of Partnership.

The firm of Connell & Sutphin has dissolved partnership by mutual consent. The business will be continued by Mr. William Murray Connell, at the present quarters, No. 121 West 42d street. Mr. Connell would be pleased to quote prices to architects and builders on mantels, tiles, open fireplaces, grates, gas logs, andirons, etc.

Questions and Answers.

COMPENSATION.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Kindly answer this question in your next issue. I am the owner of a double flat on Bedford avenue. A few weeks ago one of my stores was vacated and I placed a "To Let" sign on same with my address thereon and also one with "Inquire next door"—to my other tenant. Nothing was said regarding commission, as he is a tailor and not a real estate agent. During my absence from the city for a few weeks, I received from him a letter to the effect that he had accepted a deposit on same. He was never authorized to rent it, but merely to show to prospective tenants as an accommodation to me. Now he sends me a bill for a year's commission. Is he entitled to it, or can he compel me to pay it?

Answer.—If he agreed to render the service for nothing he is not entitled to any compensation, otherwise he is, and he has rendered you a bill for what such service is reasonably worth, if you accepted the tenant whose deposit he took.—Law Editor.

COMMISSION.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

A tells B if he brings him a purchaser for a certain piece of property he would pay B a certain sum of money. B gets a purchaser who makes A, through B, a bona fide offer. A agrees to consider the offer. Immediately after A sells to a party whom B believes to be connected with his client, for a lesser sum than B offered. Is B entitled to a commission?

Answer.—His belief will not be accepted as proof should he sue to recover his commission. He will have to prove that the purchaser was procured through his agency.—Law Editor.

JOINT TENANCY.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

(1) In conveying property to a man and wife so that in the event of the death of either the survivor will own the whole absolutely, what wording is necessary? (2) Is not the wording, "To John Doe and Jane Doe, his wife," sufficient? An early answer in the "Record and Guide" will oblige.

Answer.—(1) The Real Property Law, Chapter 547, Laws of 1896, Sec. 56, reads as follows: "Every estate granted or devised to two or more persons in their own right shall be a tenancy in common, unless expressly declared to be in joint tenancy." Add the words, "in joint tenancy," or "as joint tenants," after the names of the grantees. (2) No.

CONTRACT—PERMIT.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Kindly answer the following question in the order it may come: A enters into a contract with B on May 1st last to erect building and in front of which the area should be covered with vault lights. A is to furnish all necessary permits. For many years and up to a certain day in July, 1896, the city charged a fee of 75 cents per square foot for this permit. Upon this certain day the city authorities notified the building community that from that day on the rate would be $2 per square foot, or $1.25 more. The authorities will only deal with owners, and so notified B. B made application and got his permit, paying $2 per square foot. Now can A collect the $1.25 from B? The contract did not stipulate the rate per foot for vault permit. But it is a, or, at least, it was a, common understood matter that 75 cents per square foot was city rate, and A entered into contract with B on this basis. This new rate was sprung on the building community without previous notice or any warning whatever, which, I suppose, you are well aware of.

Answer.—We do not understand what you mean by asking if A can collect the $1.25 from B. B has already paid it, and A has no right to collect it again from B. It is right that A should pay the extra $1.25. His contract was to obtain all necessary permits; it is not to be presumed that the contract was made on the basis of 75 cents per foot for the vault permit if nothing was said about it. Furthermore, A might have obtained the permit before July 1st.—Law Editor.

PAYMENT ON NOTE.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

A borrows from B $1,000, and gives B his note for it. At the termination of the note, A is unable to pay the note in full, but agrees to pay him $510 and the balance as soon as able. A being hard pushed again shortly afterward renews the original note for $1,000 and receives from B $490. How much does A owe on the note allowing $20.00 for discounting.

Answer.—According to your statement, A owes $1,000, the amount of the first note, no part of which has been paid, $490 which B advanced on the second note, and $20 allowed for discount, in all $1,510. If A paid the $510 he "agreed" to pay, he owes $1,000.—Law Editor.

TRESPASS.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

As a subscriber for many years to your valuable paper, I should esteem it a favor if you would kindly inform me what my rights are in reference to the running of wires over my property. I own the house that I live in and unbeknown to me, during the last 12 months, linemen have, without my permission, fastened some twenty odd different wires on my brick chimneys, which are not only ungainly to look at, but are damaging and are likely to still further damage the brickwork. Will you kindly inform me what rights I have in the premises; if my rights entitle me to cut these wires down where fastened to my property, or what steps I must take to have them removed.

Answer.—You have a right to remove any of the wires which are obnoxious to you; only be careful that in doing so you do not injure any one passing by, and leave no loose ends. Make a clean job of it.—Law Editor.

When you agree to sell land what do impliedly agree to give? See "Guide to Buyers and Sellers of Real Estate." A plain book for everyone. Published by "Record and Guide, 14 and 16 Vesey street. Paper cover, 75 cents; extra postage, 7 cents; cloth cover, $1.00; extra postage 9 cents.

Rock Plaster Wins.

EXHAUSTIVE tests of all plastering materials including United States Machine Made Mortar result in the adoption of Rock Plaster for plastering the Bowling Green Building Nos. 5 to 11 Broadway.

After a careful test of the various plastering materials on the market, ROCK PLASTER was selected as being superior to all for use in plastering the Bowling Green Building, Nos. 5 to 11 Broadway. In face of these facts the United States Mortar Supply Company has circulated reports to the contrary, which reports reflect upon the quality of ROCK PLASTER. This matter was brought to our attention by several architects, and we wrote to the mason contractor of the Bowling Green Building, Mr. W. S. Harrison, the following letter and his answer is appended.

New York, September 21, 1896.

Mr. W. S. Harrison,
Mason Contractor,
Bowling Green Building,
5 to 11 Broadway, New York.

Dear Sir: We have been informed that Mr. Kenly, of the United States Mortar Supply Company, has submitted reports to certain architects in this city, stating that ROCK PLASTER is being used to plaster only three floors in the Bowling Green Building; that in the recent tests of materials made under your direction in this building ROCK PLASTER was not satisfactory; that the keys were easily broken off; that the Browning did not adhere to the Scratch coat.

This information being brought to the attention of the architects above referred to, has led them to be fearful of using ROCK PLASTER in some work where ROCK PLASTER had been specified. We would like to have your opinion on this subject, together with your ideas as to Machine Mortar, as tested by you, that we may lay it before the architects for their information. Yours truly,

Rock Plaster Company of New York and New Jersey,
Per D. L. Haigh.

New York, Sept. 21, 1896.

Rock Plaster Company of N. Y. and N. J.,
44 Broadway, New York City.

Gentlemen: I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of even date. I have seen a copy of the paper that Mr. Kenly, of the Machine Mortar Company, is circulating in regard to the tests of ROCK PLASTER and Machine Mortar, that were made on the Bowling Green Building, and I am amazed at his statements. I say that I am amazed, because Mr. Kenly must know that the statements that he makes are without foundation in fact.

Before deciding on the plaster that was to be used in our building, we had samples of the various materials in this market applied under my own direction, and it was decided to use ROCK PLASTER.

The Machine Mortar applied at this time was not gauged, but was put on as received, and it was without sufficient strength and could not be used for our purpose as applied to the Roebling system of fire-proofing. Later on, Mr. Kenly requested that another test be made of Machine Mortar, stating he could save us thousands of dollars, and give us a material that was superior to ROCK PLASTER, by gauging Machine Mortar with Portland cement.

I had a thorough test made of Machine Mortar gauged with Portland Cement in various proportions, and at the same time a comparative test made of ROCK PLASTER, such as we were then using on the building.

The test resulted in showing me that ROCK PLASTER would save me at least from 7 cents to 8 cents per yard over the Machine Mortar, even giving the Machine Mortar every benefit of the test.

I may state that the hardness of the surface of the Machine Mortar, gauged with cement was very pleasing. On examining, however, the keys, I found that the material is very brittle and would not answer for our purpose.

We, naturally, decided to complete the building with ROCK PLASTER, as before intended, and have at the present time plastered about seven or eight floors, and are pushing the work as rapidly as possible.

I attest to the fair mindedness and courtesy exhibited by the Rock Plaster Company during these tests, and to express my unqualified condemnation of the methods employed by Mr. Kenly, which, during the tests, were in accordance with his actions which have brought forth this letter.

Yours truly, W. S. Harrison.

We learned from many sources that the United States Mortar Supply Company were not satisfied with the tests made by Mr. W. S. Harrison, in the Bowling Green Building, and in order to give them another opportunity to test their material in comparison with ROCK PLASTER, and to ascertain which material is better adapted for plastering purposes, the following correspondence, which explains itself, ensued.

New York, Sept. 30, 1896.

United States Mortar Supply Company,
289 Fourth Avenue, New York City.

Gentlemen:—When the contractors of the Bowling Green Building were deciding what material they desired to use in their work, they had applied samples of the various plastering materials on the market, among which were samples of ROCK WALL PLASTER, as manufactured by this Company, and Machine-Made Mortar, as manufactured by your company.

The Machine-Made Mortar was without sufficient strength to be used for this work, and the ROCK PLASTER was selected. Your Mr. Kenly was dissatisfied with the result of the first test and asked that a second test might be made in order to enable him to further strengthen the Machine Mortar by gauging it with Portland Cement. Although the contract had been given us, we deferred to the wishes of the contractors and a further test was made in the presence of representatives of your Company and representatives of this Company. The result of this test was that ROCK PLASTER was selected as being superior in quality to Machine Mortar and as showing a saving of from 7c. to 8c. per yard over the cost of Machine Mortar. In consequence, the contract was awarded to us and at the present time the plastering work has been very nearly completed with ROCK PLASTER.

It would seem, however, from statements sent out by your General Manager that this test was not thoroughly satisfactory to your Company and that unknown to us, he has had three gentlemen visit this work and has shown them only such portions of it as would commend Machine Mortar gauged with cement, and condemn the ROCK WALL PLASTER.

While we have taken pains to have these gentlemen visit the building in order to demonstrate to them the true facts in the case, and while we believe that the materials as they stand in the Bowling Green Building will demonstrate the superiority of ROCK PLASTER to them or to any other unbiased person, yet the report has been widely circulated among those interested in building in the city, and in order to arrive at a definite decision as to which of the two materials is best adapted for plastering work in all particulars, we beg herewith to offer to have tested the merits of ROCK PLASTER and Machine Mortar respectively, and to suggest as proper experts to decide the question, the same gentlemen that you have selected to inspect the work on the Bowling Green Building, namely, Professor Burr, of Columbia College; Mr. Robinson, of Robinson & Wallace, and Mr. Ditmars, of Schickel & Ditmars, who are to have exclusive control of all tests; results of the various tests to be published over their signatures.

These gentlemen to be solicited to undertake the work and to be properly compensated for the same. In the event of the gentlemen named above not being willing to undertake the work, we would be very glad to come to a mutual understanding with you regarding others that would fill their places.

We would suggest that a list of tests be decided upon by these gentlemen, your representatives having the privilege of making such suggestions as to tests, as desired, the same privilege being accorded to representatives of this Company. Further, to make the matter of value to the architectural profession, we would suggest soliciting from the prominent architects of New York, expressions as to what points of plastering they would most like to have tested, and to have these expressions submitted to the three gentlemen named above for their use and consideration. We would further suggest that the material that has the least points decided in its favor, stand the entire expense of the tests, including the compensation of the gentlemen above named, and such other expenses as may be incurred during the test; that each Company deposit with a mutually agreed upon bank $1,000 each for this purpose, and that the expense be limited to $1,000.

We would suggest that as lime is an important constituent of the Machine-Made Mortar and of ROCK PLASTER, that the books of the two Companies be placed at the disposal of the experts to ascertain the quality of lime that has been used in the two materials during the past three years.

Our sole desire in this matter is to ascertain fairly the relative merits of the two materials and in a fair, honest and open manner. We trust that this proposition will meet with your favor and that the representatives of the two companies may meet at once to make final arrangements for carrying out the above suggestion. Yours truly,

Rock Plaster Company, of New York and New Jersey,
(Signed.) per D. L. Haigh.

New York, Oct. 13, 1896.

Rock Plaster Company of New York and New Jersey,
44 Broadway, New York City.

Gentlemen: In reply to your letter of September 30th last, as you make a number of statements therein, we will answer seriatim.

You state on page 1: "When the contractors of the Bowling Green Building, Nos. 5-11 Broadway, New York City, were deciding what material they desired to use in their work, they had applied a sample of Machine-Made Mortar as manufactured by our Company."

We beg to say that we have no personal knowledge of any such sample. Our Order Book shows that we supplied our material on the order of Messrs. George Stone Sons, Plasterers, which was used in this building, and is referred to in the reports of Messrs. William H. Burr, and A. J. Robinson. Our Order Book also shows that we supplied material to this building on the order of Goss & Edsall, material dealers; but do not know for what specific purpose.

You also state on page 1: "That the Machine-Made Mortar was without sufficient strength to be used for this work."

In reply, we beg to state we supplied the same material which was used on the Roebling wire partitions and ceilings (the same as used at the Bowling Green Building), in an important building; built by and owned by Mr. D. H. King, Jr., a prominent and well-known builder of this city. The plastering done with our material in this building gave entire satisfaction to Mr. King, whose favorable judgment of a plastering material should strongly influence those connected with the building interests of this city.

You state on page 1: "Our Mr. Kenly was dissatisfied with the result of the first test."

Our Mr. Kenly had no personal knowledge of such first test and never saw the material after it was used. In regard to using Portland Cement with our material, we beg to state, that the use of Portland Cement was suggested by us to prevent the active corrosion of the wire caused by your plaster, which was considered a very serious objection to your material.

You say on page 1: "Although the contract had been given us."

We consider this is either meant as a misleading statement to convey the impression that the contract for the entire building had been given you, or in the light of information in our possession a falsehood. Our Mr. Kenly was informed that you had been given the contract for two floors, and we are in possession of a number of letters which contradict the implied statement made by you, that the contract for the entire building had been awarded to your Company.

You say on page 1: "Although the contract had been given us, we deferred to the wishes of the contractors and a further test was made."

This courteous act on your part was entirely different from the action of your company at the time we were supplying the plastering material for the College of Physicians and Surgeons. After our material had been used for plastering a part of this building your company used every influence in your power to have the use of our material discontinued with the result that Machine-Made Mortar was used for plastering three floors and Rock Plaster for two floors. Your material being used for the fourth and fifth floors upon the representation that it would crack less than ours, which claim has not been substantiated by the results.

You further state on page 1: "The result of this test was that Rock Plaster was selected as being superior in quality to Machine-Made Mortar."

We are at a loss to know who considered the Rock Plaster superior, as we are in possession of a letter stating that Mr. Smith, of the Standard Structural Company, expressed himself as much pleased with the results of the test made by our Company. On the 15th day of August, Mr. W. S. Harrison, the General Superintendent of this Building, did not express himself as considering your material superior to the Machine-Made Mortar. The Roebling Fireproof Construction Company, after examining our mortar and yours, at the Bowling Green Building, on their wire partitions, selected and used our material for plastering their ceilings and partitions for the official fire and water test made on the 3d of September last, and furthermore, regardless of the efforts of your Company to the contrary, the Roebling Fireproof Construction Company, again gave us the order for plastering their ceilings and partitions on which the second fire and water test is to be made. It is evident from this that they did not consider your material superior. In addition, Mr. Isaac E. Ditmars, Architect; Mr. William H. Burr, Consulting Engineer, and Mr. A. J. Robinson, Builder, in their reports did not consider your material superior.

You further state on page 1: "That the result of the test was that Rock Plaster showed a saving of 7 to 8 cents per yard over the cost of the Machine Mortar." We assume that you mean per square yard.

In reply, we beg to state that the figures made by our Mr. Kenly show that your material appeared to be four and one-tenth cents per square yard cheaper than the Machine Mortar, which was easily accounted for by the partiality of the foreman plasterer who had charge of the test, taking over 18 hours to put on our material and a little over 11 hours to apply the Rock Plaster, which is contrary to the results obtained by three of the best plasterers in this city in their practice. They state that our material can be put on the wall in the same time, or, slightly less time, than your material. The results of the test do show that under a fair trial the Machine-Made Mortar would be nearly 6 cents per square yard cheaper, although the Machine Mortar was gauged with Portland Cement.

You further state on page 2: "That our general manager has had three gentlemen visit this work and has shown them only such portions of it as would commend Machine-Made Mortar, gauged with cement, and condemn the Rock Wall Plaster."

We beg to say in reply, that this is an absolute falsehood, as both Mr. William H. Burr and Mr. A. J. Robinson in their reports speak of the plain ungauged Machine-Made Mortar on the partition of Mr. C. K. Bill's office. Mr. Burr also mentions in his report the Machine-Made Mortar gauged with plaster of paris. Your statement admits that these three gentlemen were shown some portions of the work that would condemn the Rock Plaster, thus condemning your material in your own letter, by admitting that some portions of plastering of your material were seen by these gentlemen that would cause them to condemn it, or by your own statement you admit that some portions of your plastering were not good.* Whilst we infer you mean some other portions were good. You thus admit your plaster was not uniformly good and is not a uniformly reliable plastering material. Some portions being good and some other portions that were examined by these three gentlemen being so poor as to cause them to condemn it. All these gentlemen say in their reports that they made a careful examination, and Mr. William H. Burr says he made a careful and extended examination on the entire second and third floors, and that he examined the Rock Plaster in numerous places, and the opinion he expressed states that this appeared to be the general characteristic of the many partitions he examined. These reports clearly establish the fact that your plaster was examined in numerous places and on many partitions on the entire second and third floors with the result that your plaster was condemned and that the reports were based upon the true facts in the case.

You further state on page 2: "While we have taken pains to have these gentlemen visit the building in order to demonstrate to them the true facts in the case."

As these gentlemen had already visited this work and made their report; and, as they expressly stated after a careful and extended examination on the entire 2nd and 3rd floors you accuse these gentlemen, Mr. Isaac E. Ditmars, Mr. William H. Burr, and Mr. A. J. Robinson, of making false reports, which were not based on the true facts in the case. This is a serious charge to make against the reputation of these three distinguished gentlemen, and we will send copies of your accusations to them.

You say on page 4: "We would suggest that as lime is an important constituent of the Machine Made Mortar and of Rock Plaster, that the books of the two companies be placed at the disposal of the experts to ascertain the quality of lime that has been used in the two materials during the past three years."

In reply, we beg to say that we consider the best comparison as to the quality of the lime employed by each company has been amply demonstrated by the results shown in actual practice on the wall. Mr. William H. Burr, in his report says: "The sample of plain ungauged Machine Made Mortar on the terra cotta par-

* It may be stated, in answer to the above, that the system of fireproofing in the Bowling Green Building presented a new problem to us, and when the plastering was applied to the first two floors, the Browning coat was applied immediately following the Scratch coat and before the Scratch coat had become set. As there is no suction in wire lath, the material was found to dry too slowly for it to attain its maximum hardness. In all subsequent work, the first coat was allowed to become dry before applying the second coat, although several floors in addition to the two floors mentioned in Mr. Kenly's letter were plastered in the manner just stated. At the time of the visit of these gentlemen to the building he carefully avoided showing them this work, which we frankly acknowledge is superior to work done by putting on the Browning coat on wet Scratch coat.

It will be noticed that the letter of Mr. W. S. Harrison refutes many of the statements made in the letter of the United States Mortar Supply Company. We have not thought it necessary to take up the various assertions made in the letter of the United States Mortar Supply Company and show their inaccuracy, as we deem their refusal to accept our offer to have the materials tested by competent experts as tantamount to an admission that their material would not bear out their statements.

tition on the 1st floor forming the partition of the office of C. K. Bill, General Manager of the building, appeared to be superior to the Rock Wall Plaster I examined on the second and third floors." And Mr. A. J. Robinson in his report says: "Your plain ungauged brown mortar, which was used for plastering the south partition on the 1st floor adjoining Mr. C. K. Bill's private office, I found to be better that the Rock Wall Plaster used on the fire-proof partitions."

In explanation we beg to say that this plain ungaged Machine Mortar was supplied to the Bowling Green Building on the order of George Stone Sons, plasterers, and was taken from one of our barges in the usual manner that we supply the trade commercially. We consider the best way to judge of the quality of lime is by the results shown under practical use, and not by a laboratory test, or by examining books.

You say on page 2: "We beg herewith to offer to have tested the merits of Rock Plaster and Machine Mortar, respectively."

In reply we beg to say we think you are rather dilatory in making this proposition, as we consider a comparative test of the Rock Plaster and Machine Made Mortar has already been made in the Bowling Green Building, and in a most practical manner; and moreover, will be more satisfactory to all persons connected with, or, interested in building. You supplied your material for two entire floors of the Bowling Green Building, namely: the 2nd and 3rd, both of which cover an unusually large area. We assumed that the material used in this building represented the kind of material you furnish under contract, as your best commercial material. Your material was put on this building under the most favorable conditions. The whole work being done by day's work and under the supervision of Mr. W. S. Harrison, the General Superintendent of the building, representing, as we understand, the owners of the property, and the plasterers were under the immediate charge of a foreman plasterer, who was selected because he was a "Rock Plaster" man, and had had large experience in working with your material and understood how to use it. The material the U. S. Mortar Supply Co. supplied to this building was furnished from the stock on one of our barges and was the material we supply commercially. Our material was gauged with Portland cement and tempered and put on the wire partitions under the supervision of the aforesaid W. S. Harrison, and under the immediate charge of the same foreman plasterer and the men who handled our material were the same as those employed to apply the Rock Plaster. As both materials were used in the same building, at the same time of the year, and both put on under the supervision of the same man, Mr. W. S. Harrison, and all work on both materials being done by the same foreman plasterer, plasterers and laborers employed by Mr. Harrison, and each material representing the product of your company and our company as sold commercially, we connot see why the results obtained under these conditions do not fairly represent the merits of the two materials; unless you claim that the material you furnished for this building was not of the same quality as that which you propose to furnish for a specially arranged test. We do not see how you expect to obtain better results from your material under the series of special tests that you suggest, than was found by the three gentlemen who visited and examined the plastering done with your material in the Bowling Green Building.

Now we come to the reports of the three gentlemen who visited and examined the work done with your material and ours.

We selected Mr. Isaac E. Ditmars, of the firm of Schickel & Ditmars, to represent the architectural profession. Mr. William H. Burr, who is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, a member of the Institute of Engineers of Great Britain, and formerly Engineer of Construction and General Manager of the Phoenix Bridge Company, to represent the profession of Civil Engineering, and Mr. A. J. Robinson, of the well-known firm of Robinson & Wallace, to represent the experienced building contractor. The character and ability of these gentlemen is so well known that your Company could not question their report; and it was for this very reason that they were selected. These three gentlemen visited the Bowling Green Building, and in their reports they say they made a careful examination of your plaster and ours, and because these reports were against you and condemned your material; you make a statement accusing these three gentlemen of making reports misrepresenting your material and which are not truthful. Your letter accuses these three gentlemen of being either incompetent to make a correct, honest, and truthful report; or that they showed gross partiality and favoritism to our company in examining only such portions of the work as they were instructed and directed to do by our Mr. Kenly which would condemn Rock Plaster.

On page 4 you state: "Our sole desire in this matter is to ascertain fairly the relative merits of the two materials and in a fair, honest and open manner."

We understand from this that you claim the reports of Messrs. Ditmars, Burr and Robinson are dishonest, and that you hope to show better results from your plaster in a specially arranged test, than was shown by the material you supply to a building commercially and used in the ordinary way by the average plasterer. For the above reasons we decline your proposition.

Yours truly,
The United States Mortar Supply Company,
Per W. W. Kenly.

New York, October 15, 1896.

United States Mortar Supply Company,
289 Fourth Avenue, New York City.

Gentlemen: We beg to acknowledge receipt of your favor of October 13th, in answer to ours of September 30th last. We could readily show the inaccuracy of the majority of the satements therein made, but we are not seeking a war of words. This would accomplish nothing of value to those engaged in building in the city, as they are not interested in disputes between two companies. The architects, builders and engineers in this city are interested, however, in ascertaining which is best of the plastering materials offered for sale in this market to-day.

In our letter of the 30th ult., we suggested to you the propriety of having tested the material manufactured by our respective companies by three gentlemen, Messrs. Burr, Ditmars and Robinson, whom we both acknowledge to be leaders in their several professions. We selected these three gentlemen, as we thought they would be thoroughly satisfactory to you in every particular, and we would not have selected them had we not had every confidence that they were in every manner fitted to make the test. These gentlemen have established their reputation by hard work, and are sensible enough to know that we would not have selected them to make the test, if we had in any manner doubted either their ability or integrity.

What we desire is, is to have made a comparative test of ROCK PLASTER and Machine Mortar, in the best possible manner and by competent men, to ascertain which material is best adapted for plastering purposes in all particulars.

We make no specifications as to what tests are to be made, or how they are to be made, nor in fact, do we put any restrictions upon it whatever, as we desire to leave the matter entirely in the hands of the experts.

The only camparative tests that have been made, up to the present time, were those made by Mr. W. S. Harrison, in the Bowling Green Building, and ROCK PLASTER was selected to plaster this building throughout.

You have gone to considerable trouble to explain in your letter the superiority of Machine Mortar over ROCK PLASTER, and if your statements can be substantiated, we are at a loss to understand why you should refuse to have your material tested in comparison with ROCK PLASTER, by gentlemen, whom you acknowledge, to be best capable of any in the city to perform the test.

We think you must see that your position is not tenable. It is necessary to state, in justice to this Company, that we have never sought to bring prominently before those interested in building in the city, the facts in relation to Machine Mortar that we are none the less acquainted with, for our silence. Your General Manager, however, having assailed the quality of ROCK PLASTER has forced us, in justice to ourselves, to demand that your Company either establish their claims or refute the statements already made.

We are determined, therefore, that the architects, builders and others interested in building in this city, shall know the facts as to whether ROCK PLASTER or Machine Mortar is best adapted for plastering purposes.

We trust that you will reconsider your refusal to our proposition to have a comparative test made of ROCK WALL PLASTER and Machine Mortar, and that you will send us a favorable reply to our proposition, made to you in our letter of the 30th ult., at an early date. Yours truly,

Rock Plaster Company of New York and New Jersey.

Gentlemen: On Friday, October 16th (ten days ago), we wrote you, in answer to your letter of the 13th, asking you if you would not reconsider your refusal to have Machine Mortar tested in comparison with ROCK WALL PLASTER, by three eminent experts, Professor W. H. Burr, of Columbia College; Mr. I. E. Ditmars, of Messrs. Schickel & Ditmars; and Mr. A. J. Robinson, of Messrs. Robinson & Wallace.

We have no reply in answer to this letter, and we beg to ask if you will not let us hear from you regarding it before Saturday of this week. In case we do not hear from you at that time, we shall take it that you adhere to your original refusal to have Machine Mortar tested in comparison with ROCK PLASTER, and shall feel at liberty to take such means as we see fit to have the materials properly tested by experts in this city, and the results published. We shall also feel at liberty to have published the correspondence that has taken place between us.

The Real Estate Market

The brokers seemingly were able to accomplish little this week having been temporarily relegated to the rear with their propositions tempting and otherwise, until intending sellers and investors are able to fully realize the importance to real estate interests of Tuesday's great sound money victory. There have really been but two working days—Thursday and Friday, and to that fact must be ascribed our inability to report transactions that will involve an aggregate consideration amounting to more than $700,000. There are better times ahead, however, and the coming week should present convincing evidence of improvement.

The following are the comparative tables for the New York Conveyances, Mortgages and Projected Buildings for the corresponding weeks of 1895 and 1896.

The efforts of the auctioneers this week were restricted to the legal sales announced for Thursday and yesterday. Their offerings comprised eight parcels of small average value. A sale of the Tabernacle Baptist Church property, Nos. 162 to 166 2d avenue, was adjourned without date on Wednesday and will be readvertised.

The property, Nos. 535 to 547 West 45th street, announced at foreclosure sale was withdrawn on the following day. The postponements to dates beyond next week were a sale of No. 3097 3d avenue, corner of 158th street, to the 19th inst., and one of No. 483 Manhattan avenue, to the 24th inst.

President Douglas Robinson has designated Geo. R. Read, John R. Downey and Frank R. Houghton, a nominating committee to select the candidates for directors, to be voted for at the coming annual election of the Real Estate Exchange.

D. Phoenix Ingraham will conduct the sale by auction, in partition, of 199 Fort Washington Heights lots, located between 169th and 172d streets, and on Kingsbridge road, Fort Washington avenue, Haven avenue and Boulevard Lafayette. This property will be offered at the Real Estate Salesroom, No. 111 Broadway, on Thursday week, the 19th inst. It is part of the estate of the late Susan B. Ward, and has been held by the Ward family for very many years. Its sale in lots will be an interesting occasion as marking the passing of the old and the coming of the new conditions in a beautiful and salubrious section of the city now being rapidly improved under a demand for residence sites, and the development of travelling communications with other sections. With the change in the business outlook there should be good inquiry for suitable scenes for building operations, and this will secure a large attendance at the sale. The advertisement in our business pages contains further particulars, and maps, etc., can be obtained of the auctioneer at Room B, No. 111 Broadway.

Attention is called to the announcement on another page of the coming auction sale of the John H. Tredwell farm and buildings, near Sand's Point, Queens County, L. I., on the 19th inst., in front of the Jamaica Townhall.

Will Sell or Trade.

Gossip of the Week.

SOUTH OF 59TH STREET.

M. E. Hewitt & Co. have sold for Mrs. Ella S. Conkling the two four-story brick dwellings with plot, 34.3x100.4, Nos. 155 and 157 West 45th street, to A. Chesebro.

Henry H. Rice has sold his four-story stone front residence, 17x65x100.5, No. 79 West 50th street, to Dr. H. L. Constable for $31,000. Brokers, Green & Taylor.

In the trade referred to last week, involving a transfer of the Pierrepont Building, No. 103 5th avenue, by Josiah S. Lindsay to Martin & Bro., the latter agree to give as payment the four-story dwelling with lot, 20x92, No. 45 West 20th street; the four-story dwelling, lot 20.2x98.9, No. 150 East 35th street and the five-story brick flat 25x86x100.5, No. 41 West 64th street.

Herman H. F. Vocke is the buyer at $48,000, from the estate of the late Frank Roosevelt, of No. 33 Worth street, the sale of which was mentioned last Saturday.

NORTH OF 59TH STREET.

Max Goldstein has sold for Henry Gieschen to a building firm, Nos. 1731 to 1737 Park avenue, a plot 75.6x90, with frame buildings, on the southeast corner of Park avenue and 121st street. The price quoted is $40,000, and the transaction probably a trade.

John B. Simpson and the heirs of the late Adolf Kerbs have agreed to a trade, by the terms of which the former will sell the plot 100.11x150, on which are small frame buildings at the northwest corner of Mount Morris Park, West and 122d street, and take in trade No. 988 5th avenue, one door south of 80th street, a four-story brick residence, 25.6x100, covering the entire lot. Mr. Simpson, who purchased the plot referred to in April, 1892, for $125,000, intends to occupy the 5th avenue house when possession is obtained.

Slawson & Hobbs have sold for Mrs. Sarah Taylor, at about $40,000, the four-story brick dwelling, with lot 21x102.2, No. 136 West 75th street.

A. E. Thomson has sold for J. Reshower, the three-story brick dwelling, 18x60x85, No. 82 Edgecombe avenue. The same broker informs us that the house sold by him last week should have been described as No. 262 West 132d street, not No. 256, as he had erroneously reported it.

Littery & Stearns have sold for James Walsh, the five-story brick tenement with stores, lot 25.6x100, No. 2096 8th avenue, between 113th and 114th streets, to Frances Simmons, for about $36,000.

David Stewart has sold for Edward E. Ashley, the three-story dwelling, 15x50x99.11, No. 538 West 150th street.

Frederick Zittel has sold for Clarence True, the new four and five-story American basement brick dwelling, 60x30, on the southeast corner of Riverside Drive and 77th street. It will be completed and ready for the occupancy of the purchaser before Jan. 1.

J. P. Morgan, the banker, has sold for $50,000, the four-story stone front dwelling, with lot 20x102.2, No. 3 East 72d street. It cost the seller $54,000 at a foreclosure sale about two years ago.

Stabler & Smith have sold for Builder Paul B. Pugh, one of his new row of three-story dwellings, on the south side of 145th street, beginning 30 feet east of Amsterdam avenue.

Francis J. Schnugg has sold the five-story brick tenement, with lot 25x70, No. 1247 Park avenue, to M. Arnemann, for $22,000.

NORTH SIDE.

John R. Ross has sold for Mrs. Nellie Cooper the lot 25x140, with dwelling on the east side of Creston avenue, 511 feet north of Wellesley street, to Emma Duchardt, for $4,500.

H. C. Mapes & Co. have sold for Francis J. Schnugg, four lots on Main street, Westchester, and two connecting with them and fronting on West Farms road, to Francis Murphy, for $7,000.

LEASES.

Douglas Robinson & Co. have leased for Mrs. Drayton, the residence, No. 374 5th avenue, to the Engineers' Club, for 10 years and 4 months, from Jan. 1. The building will necessarily be extensively altered before the club takes possession.

Landlord and Tenant.

The following are abstracts of a number of recent decisions of the Supreme Court-Appellate Division bearing on the relations of landlord and tenant:

Untenantable Condition.—Offensive odors arising from holes and imperfections in the plumbing pipes of an apartment justify a tenant in vacating. The tenant's right to remove is not lost if, after he gives notice of his intention to vacate as soon as he can make proper arrangements but before he moves, the long-delayed repairs are in progress and even substantially completed.—Lathers vs. Coates. Opinion by Daly, P. J.

A tenant whose lease calls for steam heat in his apartment is not bound, for a protracted period, to resort to the use of lamps and gas logs as aids to inadequate steam-heating apparatus. The landlord is entitled, however, to a reasonable time to remedy defects. But a strike does not, it seems, excuse his delay in performing such work. A tenant whose rent is payable periodically in advance, and who moves out before the expiration of the period because of the untenantable condition of the premises, can, in an action for rent, counterclaim for the value of the premises for the unexpired portion of the period.—O'Gorman vs. Harby. Opinion by Daly, P. J.

Power of District Court to Direct Verdict.—The defendant claimed to be a monthly tenant. It appeared that he had occupied the premises from June, 1890, to November 1, 1895; that once during the term of occupancy he had paid one year's rent in advance, and on another occasion six months' rent in advance. Held that these payments established a yearly tenancy. A District Court Justice may direct a verdict in the same cases a Justice of the Supreme Court may direct one.—Douglass vs. Seiford. Opinion by McAdam, J.

Conventional Relation of Landlord and Tenant.—The jurisdiction of District Courts is not lost where a question of title to real property arises in summary proceedings. The statutory provisions depriving them of jurisdiction over such questions relate exclusively to actions, not to special proceedings.

Where the guardian of an infant remainderman has permitted the lessee, under a lease from the life tenant, to remain in possession and the lessee has paid rent to the guardian, and after majority the infant affirms the agreement by demanding rent, the conventional relation of landlord and tenant is established, and summary proceedings may be maintained.—Dorschel vs. Burkly. Opinion by Daly, P. J.

Concerning Real Estate Agents and Brokers.

Mr. Fred D. Kalley continues the brokerage business of J. N. Kalley & Son under the same firm name, with offices as heretofore, at No. 150 Broadway, New York, and No. 189 Montague street, Brooklyn. Mr. Kalley's specialty will be the sale of downtown business property and the exchange of high-class Brooklyn realty for New York business property, for which he has special facilities.

Strong & Ireland, real estate brokers, auctioneers and appraisers of No. 60 Liberty street, have opened a branch office at No. 511 Columbus avenue, near 85th street, for the convenience of their numerous clients.

Trade Notes.

BROOKLYN VAULT LIGHT CO.

The above-named company succeeded to the business formerly carried on by the Towle Vault Light Co. They manufacture vault lights, skylights and patent light work, and have executed numerous contracts for important work, embracing among others eighteen public schools, Alexander Moore & Son's new apartment houses on Central Park West and 68th street, A. H. Poillon's at 61st street and Central Park West, Charles Lowen's at Boulevard and 69th street, and the Monte Cristo on upper 7th avenue. Mr. Henry Held is proprietor, and James J. Henry manager of the company, with office and shop at No. 481 Driggs avenue, Brooklyn, containing excellent facilities for reliable and prompt work. Estimates will be gladly furnished and repair work promptly attended to. Telephone 1240 Williamsburgh.

The stories in some of the newspapers concerning the building accident at Charlottesville, Va., say that the roof of the structure collapsed. This statement proves to be quite inaccurate, as that part of the work is in excellent condition, and the accident is said to have resulted from some defect in the concrete construction. The roofwork was done by R. Guastavino, but the concrete construction, quite another matter, was in the hands of other parties.

TIFFANY ENAMELED BRICK.

Mr. James L. Rankine is now the sole Eastern agent for the Tiffany Enameled Brick Co. His new office is in the Presbyterian Building, No. 156 5th avenue. Mr. Rankine has already secured large orders for the Tiffany brick, which will be used in the new Sherry Hotel, 5th avenue and 44th street.

A Large Plant.

The Atlas Cement Company, whose New York office is in the Central Building, Liberty street, are about to make an addition to their present factory at Northampton, Pa., to cost $500,000. The present plant cost $700,000. The enlarged plant will give the company an annual output of 1,200,000 barrels.

Bone Alley to Go.

"Bone alley" alias "Nigger alley," alias "Murderers' row," the disreputable rear-tenement entry in the block bounded by Thompson, Sullivan, Broome and Grand streets, was a subject of discussion at the meeting of the Board of Street Opening and Improvement yesterday on a proposition that it should be obliterated by opening Watt street through to Thompson street. The opinion was unanimous that the alley ought to go and General Collis, Colonel Cruger and Mr. Jeroloman were appointed a committee to report upon the best way of disposing of it.

The Board also received a petition to widen Ann street, by taking the private property for 25 or 30 feet on the north side, but this petition was simply ordered filed.

Do you want to know all about real estate—deeds, mortgages, liens—your liabilities as a buyer or seller, told in plain language, so that anyone may understand it? If you do, send for the new book, "Guide to Buyers and Sellers of Real Estate," published by "Record and Guide," 14 and 16 Vesey street. This volume contains also the new Real Estate Law that went into effect October 1st, minutely indexed. Price, in paper cover, 75 cents; postage extra, 7 cents; in cloth, $1.00; postage extra, 9 cents.

CONVEYANCES.

Wherever the letters Q. C., C. a. G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee, they mean as follows:
1st—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i e., a deed wherein all the right, title and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants or warranty.
2d—C. a. G. means a deed containing Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed can be impeached, charged or encumbered.
3d—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein, although the seller makes no express covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it.
The street and avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the Insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the Deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to there having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given and the amount. The general dates used as headings are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date. Whenever the rate is not given, read as 6 per cent.

Mortgages against 23d and 24th Ward properties will be found all together at the foot of this list.

JUDGMENTS.

In these lists of judgments the names alphabetically arranged, and which are first on each line, are those of the judgment debtor. The letter (D) means judgment for deficiency. (*) means not summoned. (†) signifies that the first name is fictitious, real name being unknown. Judgments entered during the week, and satisfied before day of publication, do not appear in this column, but in list of Satisfied Judgments.

Editor Record and Guide:

The lien filed by Quincy & Crawford against my property on North Moore street is absolutely without justification. They have not completed their work and are not entitled to the payment. I will to-day discharge the lien by payment into the County Clerk's office. I trust you will give this publicity in your columns as this is the first time I have ever had a lien filed against me.

Yours truly, G. W. Levy.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as headings are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Wherever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for further particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date. Whenever the rate is not given, read as 6 per cent.

JUDGMENTS.

In these lists of judgments the names alphabetically arranged, and which are first on each line, are those of the judgment debtor. The letter (D) means judgment for deficiency. (*) means not summoned. (†) signifies that the first name is fictitious, real name being unknown. Judgments entered during the week, and satisfied before publication do not appear in this column, but in a list of Satisfied Judgments.

DYCKERHOFF

PORTLAND CEMENT

Is superior to any other Portland Cement made. It is very finely ground, always uniform and reliable, and of such extraordinary strength that it will permit the addition of 25 per cent more sand, etc., than any other well-known Portland Cement, and produce the most durable work. It is unalterable in volume and not liable to crack. The foundations of many of the most important buildings recently erected in this city were constructed of the Dyckerhoff Portland Cement, such as the Statue of Liberty, Brooklyn Soldiers' and Sailors' Memorial Arch, Washington Memorial Arch, Grant Monument, Riverside Park, Equitable Life Insurance, New York Life, New York Times, World, Puck, Judge, Metropolitan Telephone, Metropolitan Opera House, U. S. Army, U. S. Trust Co., Union Trust Co., Farmers' Loan and Trust Co., Postal Telegraph Co., Corn Exchange Bank, University Building, Syndicate Building, Lion Brewery, Delmonico's, Hoffman House, Hotels Imperial, Savoy, Waldorf, New Netherlands, Siegel, Cooper & Co.'s Stores.

Pamphlet with directions, tests and testimonials sent free.

BUILDING MATERIAL MARKET.

NEW YORK.

BRICKS.—The past week has been without the slightest change of importance in the market for Hudson River brick. The amount of business transacted has been very moderate, as the trade has not as yet adjusted itself to the successful termination of the political situation. It is expected, however, that with the opening of next week an improved demand will be experienced, in fact a slight quickening of trade was perceptible during the closing days of the week. Receipts have continued moderately large and receivers have had to carry over about 30 barges daily, but there has been no attempt to force business as the belief has been general, now that the political question is settled, that business will improve and better prices will be realized. For the common grades, $4.25@4.50 have been the trading prices, and the better grades have sold at $4.62½@4.75; specials have been unchanged at $5. The supply of pale brick has been fairly large and as the demand has fallen off considerably latterly there has been an easier tone with $1.50@1.75, the principal trading prices, although for the best grades up to $2 has been paid. Offerings of Jersey brick have been small as the shipments to this market have been small; prices have been unchanged at $3.75@4.00.

CEMENT.—No new developments of an especially interesting nature have been apparent in the general situation of the market. There has been a moderate amount of activity to the demand, sufficient to absorb offerings, and prices have held steady at 75@80c. for Rosendale. The demand for Portland cement was fairly brisk and some of the domestic manufacturers stated that they were sold ahead of their production; prices have been unchanged and firm.

LATH.—A slightly better tone has dominated the market during the past week. Arrivals have been somewhat larger, a few full cargoes having been received. The business transacted has been principally at $1.50, but some sellers have succeeded in getting buyers up to $1.60, and moderate sales have been made at this figure. The close was steady, and $1.50@1.60 was quoted as the market.

LIME.—The changes in the market for lime have been few and unimportant. There has been moderately large arrivals, but demand has continued good and all the offerings have found buyers at full quoted prices, common Eastern selling at 70c., and finishing do., at 80c. A cargo of St. John lime was reported received at the close of last week, and it has been placed at unchanged prices, having brought 60c. Only a very limited amount of common State lime has been shipped to market and the limited receipts have been placed at 65c. A fair business has been transacted in Jointa at $1.00.

LUMBER.—As yet it is somewhat early to obtain a definite idea of the effect of the result of the election, and the consequent restoration of confidence upon the lumber market. That it has given sellers confidence in the future prospects of trade is quite apparent; but what the immediate influence upon business is to be has been a matter of some speculation. Many merchants contend that it is too late in the season for a general revival of building, and that they anticipate no general call for supplies before the opening of the spring trade; however, it is expected that for alterations, repairing, etc., there will be considerable lumber wanted, and as yards generally hold only very limited stocks a moderate amount of activity to business is anticipated during the winter, and the predictions of a boom with the opening of the spring trade is quite general. At the close, reports received from some merchants indicate a slight quickening of the demand, but whether it is merely the execution of orders accumulated over election, or an actual revival of business, the next week or ten days will tell. An advance of 50c. per thousand in freight rates is reported to go into effect on Nov. 9, Monday.

The market for Eastern spruce has shown considerable tone. Demand for special cargoes has increased to a limited extent and with mills indifferent sellers, there has been a slight hardening of values, and an advance of about 50c. has been established in quoted rates. The offerings of random cargoes have been limited owing to the small shipments to this market as the continued export demand absorbs the greater portion of the output and prices have ruled strong. Only a small jobbing business has been transacted in West Virginia spruce; sales having been limited to a few carload lots. State spruce has been quiet but steadily held.

For white pine there has been a fairly steady market. No extensive trades have been made but there has been some improvement to the demand; largely, however, the result it appears of the execution of orders held back until after the election rather than a fresh demand. Yellow and North Carolina pine has shown no radical changes. Business has continued slow, but sellers have shown considerable encouragement over the result of the election and were disposed to hold their supplies in anticipation of a better market in the spring.

The market for hemlock has been quiet, but there has been no pressure of supplies on the market and prices have been held steady. The cut for the coming season it is expected to be very moderate as the number of logs peeled will be only sufficient to fill the contracts with the Leather Trust. The market for cypress has been quiet, but as the future prospects for the market are considered favorable there has been no attempt to force business and prices have ruled steady.

The market for hardwoods has been without changes. There has been no revival of business activity as yet; still the trade has not as yet adjusted itself to the changed conditions of affairs. It is believed, however, that with the restoration of confidence and the improved monetary situation business will shortly improve and that there will be a gradual hardening of values all along the line.

The "Northwestern Lumberman" has the following:

"Logging Preparations.—The determination of pine owners not to put in logs, or at least to limit the input, like the well-laid plans of other men and mice, often gang aglee. The operators in the Chequamegon bay district, owing to the dull lumber market during this year, resolved to restrict their log and lumber cut for the following year. But the fire fiend got to work with his torch, set the forests ablaze, so that within recent weeks millions of pine has been scorched. All pine lumbermen know what that means. The timber must be cut and put in the water to save it from the worms. A fortnight ago fires swept through standing pine to the amount of 40,000,000 feet near Moquah, owned by the Keystone Lumber Company, of Ashland. This pine must be cut, and Sol. Wilkinson has the contract to do it, and is already locating camps. Wesley Belknap has two camps near Pratt, and is putting in a third on White River. There were over a dozen camps to be located last week on sections where pine has been burned, and where it was not intended to cut the pine for several years, especially not the coming winter, on account of the dull lumber market. It is even said at Ashland that if McKinley shall be elected there will be more logging in the Ashland district this season than last year. Since there is not much doubt about the result of election, it seems nearly certain that there will be the customary lively times in the woods back of Chequamegon Bay during the winter. Though this may not be according to the program laid out earlier in the season, it will be a boon to the laboring men in that district, who at one time were threatened with no work and starvation. A report from Ashland, dated October 12, stated that logging camps were already starting up, and hundreds of men were going into the woods. The Shores Lumber Company will put in four camps on the Northern Pacific, and will log 14 forties, intending to take out 4,000,000 feet. John Hyland will cut 1,000,000 feet on the upper Brule. For the first time rafts will be run down the Brule through the choice fishing grounds between the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic and the Northern Pacific railways. The fishermen and the club-house men are said to be up in arms against this intrusion, but it will do no good, for the logs must come down in the spring. Sharpless Brothers will log 1,000,000 feet on the Outer Island. McArthur Brothers will have two camps on the Ramsay. E. H. McGlynn will put in 1,000,000 feet on the Northern Pacific, and Cameron Brothers 5,000,000 feet at Wakefield. Other loggers will establish camps after McKinley shall be elected.

"There is a good deal of speculation among lumber manufacturers and dealers about what effect the election of McKinley and the consequent indorsement of the sound money policy will have on the lumber trade. As a rule the majority are conservative in their forecasts. It is generally assumed that it will be too late in the season to expect a great swell in the demand for lumber, or a pronounced enhancement of values this year. It is argued that the building season is practically over, and not much new work in that line can be looked for until February of next year. On the lakes the season of navigation will be closed soon after election, and winter will be at hand. It is expected that about all operators in a wholesale way can do during the remainder of the season is to pull up and gather in the delayed portions of their business and get ready for winter. Little branching out for future business will be undertaken this year, it is assumed.

"It is claimed that wholesale dealers will have to realize for several months on the stocks on hand before they can accumulate funds with which to buy more lumber. Besides a part of the expected rise in prices has already been discounted by the mill operators, who have marked up the figures on their lumber in anticipation of a rise, so that if contracts for stock at these advanced prices should be made it would involve some risk, for the doubting spirit still weighs down the dealers like an indurated habit. It is further said that, though money may be easier after election than it is now, and general improvement in other lines may follow the restoration of confidence, the lumber trade, as is its wont, will lag behind other lines, and will not begin to feel the energy of rising prosperity before next spring. Improvement is expected to be only gradual, and hence it will be necessary to pursue a careful, conservative course after election as well as before that event, awaiting developments to open the way for venturesome operations.

"It is probably well enough to take this cautious view of the situation. Yet there is something to say on the side of a partial restoration of activity in the lumber market before January 1. In the first place the return of confidence will render dealers and consumers of lumber eager to place contracts for stock before there shall be a sharp advance of prices. It is evident that prices have touched rock bottom. The most doubting Thomas of them all cannot now have the hardihood to look for lower prices than have prevailed for a month. There is evident a hardening tendency. In respect to Northern pine there has been an advance in prices of Western piece stuff, 12-inch boards, and some other forms of product. In the hardwood line red oak, quarter-sawed stock, dimension oak and ash, have hardened in price to a degree. Even yellow pine operators are refusing to give all the advantage to the buyer as was common earlier in the season. Manufacturers everywhere are looking for higher prices, and propose to get them. After election this determination will become more pronounced. There then will be prices for lumber or no sale. With a firm bottom thus fixed in the market, and a good demand in prospect, the next thing will be an advance. Dealers will realize this, and will begin to look around for lumber. The mill operators will also be inclined to meet good customers part way, and will be willing to sell part of their holdings at prices not much advanced on present figures. Some will want to do this because they need the money, or the paper which they can convert into money, especially those who want funds with which to put in logs. Dealers will have confidence enough in the future to contract for the purchase of lumber to be carried over the winter, and advance something on it, so as to secure the stuff and make a profit on the rise of prices. This will help the mill operator and be a safe transaction for the purchasing dealer. It is likely that after election there will be a considerable number of transactions of this kind. If so it will greatly strengthen the market, and give it a much improved aspect."

METALS.—The success of the sound-money party in the political strife just closed has had a generally appreciable influence and has resulted in a general quickening of the demand from the consumer. Ingot copper has had a fair call and with deliveries to both the home trade and for export fairly large prices have advanced and at this writing 10⅞@11c. was quoted for Lake Superior, with other descriptions at 10½@10¾c. Straits tin has been in fairly good demand for consumption, and as foreign advices have reported active dealings at slightly better prices, local values have improved, and at this writing 13.15c. was quoted for contract lots and 13.20@13.25c. for five-ton lots f. o. b. Pig lead has been in moderate request and prices have been well held at 2.85@2.90c. for domestic. Spelter has received increased attention and values have ruled firm with 3.75@3.85c. quoted for domestic. A decided improvement in tone has been noticeable in the market for tin plates. The amount of business transacted, however, has been only moderate, as buyers have not as yet taken hold freely; prices have improved slightly. The result of the election has not stimulated as yet an increased demand for pig iron. A moderate amount of business has been transacted at steady prices.

NAILS.—The market for cut and wire nails has shown very little change. An interesting development latterly has been a report that the Attorney-General of Illinois is shortly to inaugurate legal proceedings for the enforcement of the Anti-Trust law which, if it be true, will probably have considerable influence in determining the attitude of the trade toward the Association. As regards business nothing of importance has been transacted; trade in fact has been slow as the general belief that lower prices and a revision of the nail card will be made within a month or two has a tendency to confine business almost exclusively to the hand-to-mouth orders. It has also been rumored that new plants with a large capacity are in process of establishment and this has had some influence upon the trade. We quote at $2.30@2.40 per keg for car lots at mill, $2.52 per keg for small parcels from dock, and $2.57 from store. Wire, $2.70 for car lots from dock, and $2.80 from store.

PAINTS, OILS, ETC.—The market for paints has shown a good healthy tone. The amount of business transacted has been only moderate, as the trade has not as yet adjusted itself to the victory of the sound money party, but with the opening of next week a general revival of business activity is anticipated. White lead, both dry and in oil, has received a moderate amount of attention. The deliveries have been fair, and during the latter part of the week some new orders were placed. Litharge has had a moderate call from manufacturers and at the close business was beginning to show signs of activity. Orange mineral has received some attention, and business transacted has been at full values. Zincs have had only a very moderate call, though at the close they were receiving increased attention and prices were steady. The Association figures on lead last announced are as follows, subject to change without notice: Pure white lead, dry or in oil, red lead and litharge in kegs, in lots of 500 lbs. and over, 5¼c.; red lead and litharge in barrels and half barrels, ¼c. per lb. less than the price in kegs; white lead (cases), 1c. per lb. over price in kegs; white lead in 25-lb. tin pails (packed in 100-lb. or 200-lb. cases), 1½c. per lb. over price in kegs; white lead, assorted in 1-lb., 2-lb., 3-lb., and 5-lb. cans (packed in 100 or 200-lb. cases), 1½c. per lb. over price in kegs. Terms: On lots of 500 lbs. and over, 60 days, or 2 per cent. discount for cash, if paid within 15 days from date of invoice f. o. b. at New York. Special prices for dry white lead in barrels. Quantities: To make either of above assorted quantities and assortments of packages either or all of the articles may be counted. The above prices and terms supersede all previous prices and terms offered by this company. The market for linseed oil has shown considerable tone. The call for deliveries have been fairly large, but only a very limited amount of new business has been transacted, as the trade has shown a disposition to hold back for a few days and await developments. The offerings of oil have been decidedly limited. Crushers, in fact, have been reluctant to make new contracts at price values, as they anticipate a range of values later in the season. At this writing the market was firm, with American city crushed at 35c. for 5-barrel lots or over, and 36c. for less than 5-barrel lots; do. boiled was at 37@38c.; Calcutta was 50c. Western crushed oil has been very sparingly offered and some sellers have held for 34c., but there has been no difficulty in obtaining supplies at 33c. A further reduction of ½c. per gallon was made in the prices of spirits turpentine at the close of last week. No further changes have occurred and since the election the market has shown an improved tone, although demand has not as yet shown a material improvement. Advices from the South, however, have been stronger and holders have been indifferent sellers. At this writing the market was quoted fairly firm at 28c. for regulars and 28½c. for machine. We quote at 28c.@29½c. per gallon, according to time and place of delivery, quantity, style of package, etc.

TAR AND PITCH.—No changes of an important nature have occurred in the market for tar. The amount of business transacted has been limited, but offerings have been small, owing to light supplies and the improved feeling in business circles and prices have held steady. Pitch has had only a limited call, but prices have been unchanged and firm. We quote tar at $1.65@1.70 in pine or Wilmington barrels, $2.50 in pork barrels and $3.50 in oil barrels. Pitch, $1.85@1.90.

VOL. LVIII. NOVEMBER 14, 1896. No. 1,496

TWO influences are struggling for mastery in the stock market, one that believes present quotations do not represent values, despite the advance before and since the Election; another that is convinced that a substantial reaction is due because of the advance. The latter is composed of professional operators, and as there never was a boom in prices, large or small, that was not fought in its early stage by the professional element, the preponderance of opinion favors the ultimate triumph of the bull forces. The efforts that have been made to break quotations have been quite determined ones, and have been assisted by the talk in the jingo press of a war with Spain, according to which talk the Ambassador of Great Britain at the Court of Spain has been betraying the confidence of the government to which he is accredited, and Spain, "in order to preserve her honor," is striving her utmost to get licked by the United States, two absurdities that ought to discredit the whole story. In addition to this an unfounded report of the death of the head of the Vanderbilt family was circulated and other contraband influences brought to assist the party that is short and wants a chance to cover. However, all this work is making it easier for people who believe in a prosperous near future to purchase securities. That the public is coming into the market is unquestionable. The commission brokers are receiving more orders each day, and their buying is what prevents the professional element from having things its own way. The remarkably heavy buying in bonds is also another good feature, and one that helps to sustain stocks. Outside of the stock market the situation is in every way satisfactory. We have to remember that both the winter and Congress are near at hand, and they are always calculated to restrict operations, particularly the last mentioned, but there is enough being done in the way of reviving both trade and manufactures to carry the business of the country along for the present and make an excellent basis for a very large measure of activity in the spring.

LORD SALISBURY'S speech will serve a good purpose if it will enlighten the world somewhat upon the nature of diplomacy and of the terms on which diplomats stand toward each other. Out of the darkness of the profoundest ignorance the great reflector of public opinion, the press, always presents the world in an actively belligerent state, and has divided up the different countries of Europe particularly into two hostile camps, each having mutual interests to protect. As a matter of fact, each goes its own way about its own business, much as a number of merchants engaged in the same trade go about theirs. Treaties of offensive and defensive alliances are somewhat out of date. Prince Bismarck's little confession of Germany's alliance with Russia, while it was also a party to the Triple alliance, shows how much reliance may be placed in such undertakings in an emergency. Despite all the sophistries with which it is sought to excuse this double dealing, any man of sense knows that is only in the most highly improbable circumstances that the conditions of one treaty would be observed without disregard of the other. It is too much probably to ask that this treaty making habit shall be discarded with the other bad habits of ancient times, and the world must be content that they are now of milder form than formerly, and that their breakage involves a lesser amount of perjury than was once the case. There never was and never will be a treaty of alliance reliable in the very contingency it provided for, and it is rather hard upon diplomats and ministers that they should still be compelled to go on lying in this form simply because of an idle custom. Besides this, Lord Salisbury's references to the Venezuela question and to the Eastern question were reassuring. On the latter, which is by far the most important of the two so far as European trade is concerned, his assurances do not go farther than to intimate that there is no danger of an infraction of the peace. The position of his government is just what it was a year ago, that foreign intervention in Turkey is necessary to secure the safety of the Armenians, but they will not take the responsibility of Great Britain's intervening alone, to eventually find itself responsible for the future proper government of the country with all Europe jealous and in opposition. An Egyptian problem on such an immense scale would be too much for even John Bull. Lord Salisbury's speech will not gratify people who believe in crusades and the high and mighty moral view, but its influence on trade, which takes things passionlessly and contracts under crusades as well as under other things which it finds adverse to it, cannot fail to be good. Further encouragement comes from the change brought about in the United States, the practical results of the sound money victory becoming now apparent, and from the heavy liquidation that has been forced by declining markets in Europe.

LAND transfer reform in Illinois has met a set-back, the Supreme Court of the State having declared the act empowering the counties to adopt the Torren's system of registration and certification unconstitutional. It will be remembered that this act was passed in the spring of last year, and adopted for Cook County, by popular vote at the election following in October. The act provided for the establishment of a court to examine into existing titles upon the application of the owners, attorneys appointed by the court making the examination, and if they were found unimpeachable the State was to guarantee them and issue certificates accordingly. The certificates were to be open to contest for five years and after that time if not cancelled by legal process were to become incontestable. A system of registration of the certificates was provided and title passed by transfer on the books of the registrar. It will be seen that there was thus provided an easy means of passing real property from one owner to another, and the effectiveness of the act in this regard was proved by several transfers made in the City of Chicago soon after the act was approved and its machinery set in motion. The Recorder of Deeds in any county, where the act might be adopted was made Registrar of Titles, with some discretion as to acceptance of titles for registration. This the court has found was endowing the Registrar with judicial powers, and, as under the Constitution of Illinois, that official can not receive such powers, the flaw of unconstitutionality was made out and the act goes down, not because of defective principle, but because of a defect in the machinery for giving effect to the principle. Both Illinois courts and conveyancers have opposed the introduction of the Torren's system into Illinois, and under all the circumstances it will be difficult to get a new measure enacted which can be enforced, although there is a Land Transfer Reform League in Chicago pledged to secure this result. New York lawyers have shown as little favor towards this system as their brethren in Illinois, and a bill to secure its introduction here went up to Albany last spring to meet certain death. This made the Illinois experiment all the more interesting. Had it been possible to carry it to something like a definite conclusion, the process would have been watched by New York with the greatest attention, not unmixed with satisfaction at the fact that it was another community that was at the risk and cost of making it.

IF to be self-sustaining is proof of perfection of municipal government the city of Glasgow, Scotland, has reached that happy stage for a time at least. We note that the City Council of that city has announced that no taxes will be levied by them in 1897, because the revenue from the municipal franchises, water works, gas works, electric lighting works, horse cars, etc., will be sufficient to pay the estimated expenses of the city in that year. New Yorkers, think of it! This in a city having a third of the population of yours, and whose affairs are managed by business men spending their time gratuitously in its service. The works of Dr. Albert Shaw have made us acquainted with the advances made in municipal government by the canny Scots on the banks of the Clyde; of their paving, lighting, and water works, street car lines, workmen's dwellings, public baths and wash houses, all owned by the city and efficiently and honestly managed, and now we see the result for next year—no taxes. The moral of this is, let New York go and do likewise. It is, of course, useless to dwell upon what might have been. Still, it is impossible to repress entirely a thought of what this city would have been if its government had been conducted half as well and with half as much honesty as that of Glasgow has been during the past forty or fifty years. The secret of this success is not merely in the ability of the men who have been entrusted with control in Glasgow, though that is not to be questioned, but in the public spirit and watchfulness of its citizens, and in the complete separation of civic from national politics. Without these none of the splendid results that have been recorded, not only in Glasgow and other large British cities, but also in many European ones, would have been possible; with them every thing is possible. Under a public demand for efficient administration there has been developed abroad a science of city government of which we are only learning the rudiments. But what has been done elsewhere can be done here, if we can only get our people to see that good paving, clean streets, free communications and the protection of the resources that properly belong to the city are the individual concerns of each and every one of them.

What Next?

IT will be the business of history to analyze the recent silver agitation and show exactly what elements were contained in it. Of course, the rough formulæ we had during the campaign won't do as final statements. The Gold Bug, the Dishonest Farmer, the Irresponsible Politician, the Crown of Thorns and the Cross of Gold may do well enough as political language, but the historian will go deeper.

We are probably done with the silver programme, but it is folly not to recognize that widespread agitation of the kind just subsided has never been based merely upon ignorance, dishonesty and irresponsibility. Theoretically these may be efficient causes for a general disturbance, but never yet have they been proved to possess in actual practice the revolutionary power sometimes attributed to them. Whenever a large body of people have been aroused there has been a substantial complaint somewhere. From the days of the Gracchi to the Cuban Rebellion social turmoil has been the certain index of some maladjustment in the commonwealth. Nor will it ever do to judge the cause of agitation by the agitators' own statement of their case. It is never put forth judicially, and, indeed, only rarely is the real matter either recognized or expressed.

For these reasons it isn't at all probable that the recent popular demonetization of silver has disposed finally of Popocratic discontent. A new expression for it will have to be found, but we may be sure another phrase for the old fact will be forthcoming in time. The wise thing to do, now that there is peace to think, is to try to find out what it is that we have been dealing with in the last six months. The very unexpectedness and the intensity of the conflict that stirred the nation ought to be proof enough that we have been confronted with something that has been forming for some time. To regard it as chance outcome of a hasty, crazy party platform is simply fatuous. The subject is really worth national investigation. A patient inquiry, none the less effective if sympathetic, might reveal some of the problems with which the country has to deal and enable us to doctor evil before it is in an acute state. The policy of trusting to good luck and meeting difficulties when they arise is not safe, despite brilliant successes. It was, for instance, poor management that allowed the financial stability of a nation to be brought to the test of a short campaign. We have had a narrow escape and a longer-headed policy should be the result.

The sad obstacle to the better conduct of our affairs, of course, is the utter lack of seriousness on the part of the men who make the political mess that goes by the title of government, and the low tone of public life, the intensity of "politics" with us and the overpowering influence of party spirit are in great measure responsible for this.

But, the last election gave promise of some betterment. Under severe pressure a vast number of our people were brought to act rationally for once on a national issue; and a similar course may be easier henceforth. This country is developing so fast, new conditions are arising so rapidly that the partizan spirit, effective enough within narrow lines and in dealing with a few simple questions, is quite inadequate to cope with complexer difficulties demanding judgment,, conciliation and respect for the "other side."

The United States is getting to be a very large place, and the East and the West and the South cannot be properly covered with a narrow policy. The fact is despite our national unity we must come to learn something about our differences, and understand that only as these are allowed for in the play of government will unity be complete. We have been mildly reminded that the Pacific Slope does not face even the same horizon as the East, by witnessing the bitterness of Trans-Rocky feeling concerning a race question from which the East is absolutely free. The South, too, is confronted with a race problem of the very greatest magnitude which cannot be treated entirely from the outside standpoint of the North. Here is a case where differences need to be recognized. There is not the slighest indication that the North appreciates the very different face presented by the Negro problem south of Mason and Dixon's line to what it presents to the New England eye. The "Solid South" to-day is not, as is commonly imagined, merely a traditional unity maintained by old prejudices. It may be so in a small measure but its long perpetuation is mainly due to other causes. It is an association for defense, politically, of course, against the Northern sentiments about the Negro, against the Northern ignorance of Southern conditions, against the inability of the North to see what the South is looking at every day.

One cannot avoid thinking that perhaps a fuller sight might react upon the Northern idea of some of its own problems. One of these problems concerns immigration. The cry in the East against the incoming of European population is likely to grow louder rather than less loud. We may wake up some day to find that the grumbling and sputtering of years has organized itself into a movement just as the other day we were all surprised to discover that the silver talk of the last decade or more "meant business." There may be no time then to consider or to bring people to consider whether there may not be some relationship between foreign immigration and the negro problem, whether the former, in a way, is not the corrective of the latter. Stop immigration, or restrict it seriously, and what will be the proportion of blacks to whites twenty-five years hence? Will the negro question be intensified thereby or not?

To turn to the West—the railroads there have a place in affairs which they have not in the East. They play a larger part there in the general plan. To guage the Western attitude strictly by Eastern ideas is the North and the South on the Negro question over again. So, too, in dealing with questions concerning money, trusts and the like, it is necessary to recognize that this is a large country, and conditions everywhere are not similar. The differences are increasing rather than diminishing, and more than ever we need foresight and wisdom and a spirit other than the partisan in the control of our affairs.

Appraisements.

ANYONE who examines the appraisements of the four experts who have reported on the value of property to be taken for the Elm street widening, given in another column, expecting to find agreement or a theory for determining values of real property will be disappointed. Final results are not without a suggestion of consistency, but a critical examination of details will only increase the prevailing impression of the difficulties surrounding the task of determining the value of any particular parcel of realty. It is not merely that each piece of real property must stand upon its own merits and its value be determined by the circumstances peculiar to it, but that apparently any number of experts will each take a different view of those circumstances. The appraisements in question were made with the view, if possible, of lightening the interminable task of taking expert testimony upon each holding. An agreement was entered into between the city and the owners of about three-fourths of the property to be taken under which two experts were appointed by each party, and each expert was to make an independent appraisement. The four appraisements were to be taken by the Commission of Estimate and Assessment as evidence as to the value of the property so appraised, but each party has the right to cross-examine the experts and the Commission can call for additional testimony in its discretion. Eighty-six holdings are appraised under this agreement. The instances in which there is a real approachment on values are not so many that the Commission has an easy task before it. Generally, the appraisement of the land, buildings and parts to be taken are made separately, though one of the appraisers has frequently taken the value of the first to embrace that of the second, occasionally thereby reconciling his estimate of the value of the third, with other similar estimates, but not often. The rule is wide divergences under all three heads; but as the whole work is done to determine the value of the parts to be taken, the results in the latter are the most important. In nearly all cases the difference between the highest and lowest is proportionately large, though the measure of divergence is by no means maintained when one case is contrasted with another. For example, in one case we find the difference in the highest and lowest appraisement of property to be taken 23 per cent., in another 28 per cent., in a third 40 per cent., in a fourth 36 per cent. and so on. So that it will be seen there is no uniformity of results, and the outsider may still ask, with these reports before him, with wonder, what are the rules determining the value of real estate? Summed up it would appear that as regards these eighty-six holdings, the Commission has instead of two sets of appraisements, one exceedingly high and the other exceedingly low, four appraisements from which alone it would be difficult to select those made in the interest of the city and those made in the interest of the property-owners. This is probably their leading virtue, and the one that will be most likely to influence the Commission in accepting them as a basis for determining their findings. Further, it should be borne in mind that the appraisements are not made to establish rules of valuation, but to expedite the process of acquiring property for an important municipal improvement, and we see no reason why they should not do this in a very material degree.

Important Decision in favor of Real Estate Brokers.

A most important question was decided by the Appellate term of the Supreme Court yesterday, in the case of Morris Pollatschek and Jacob Pollatschek against Matilda E. Goodwan, to recover $720 for broker's commissions for the sale and exchange of certain real estate situate in Bleecker street, in which the amount of real estate involved was $225,000.

The point decided by the Appellate Term was that a broker in the exchange of property has a right to act as broker for both sides, where, as such broker, he is not required to use any discretion for either party, and without divulging his double employment.

Messrs. Hoffman & Hoffman, of 132 Nassau street, who appeared for the brokers, tried the case before the City Court and a jury, who found a verdict in favor of the brokers, the case was then appealed to the City Court General Term, and the decision was sustained, the case was then taken to the Supreme Court on appeal and that Court has just handed down a decision against sustaining the contention of Messrs. Hoffman & Hoffman for the brokers.

This is by far the most important decision rendered in years in favor of real estate brokers, and this case will be cited as a precedent on the question of double commissions, and the question of the rights of brokers to commissions has at last been fully determined.

Revision of the Municipal Ordinances.

The Aldermanic Committee on Law Department, which has in hand the work of revising and amending the ordinances of the city, for final approval by the Common Council, has made a preliminary report suggesting a number of amendments. One of these is that the penalties for violation of ordinances be limited in accordance with section 85 of the Consolidation act, which provides that the Board of Aldermen shall have power to enforce obedience to its ordinances by ordaining penalties for violation thereof "not exceeding one hundred dollars." The Committee submitted amendatory ordinances reducing penalties varying from $250 to $1,000 to this amount in thirteen specified cases and repealing regulations relating to various matters that have from time to time, since the passage of the several ondinances in question, been placed in the control of the various departments. They also recommend the passage of the following:

Sec. 2. The resolution or ordinance adopted by the Board of Aldermen Sept. 15, 1884, and approved by the Mayor Sept. 19, 1884, hereinafter set out, is hereby repealed. Said resolution, so repealed, reads as follows, to wit:

Resolved, That hereafter, before the commencement of any action for violation of any of the ordinances of the City by the Corporation Attorney, except the ordinances relating to the removal of snow and ice from the sidewalks, the said Corporation Attorney shall give notice, in writing or printed, or partly written and partly printed, at least ten days before entering complaint, to every such delinquent, to remove such cause of complaint, and if obedience is given to such notice, and the cause of complaint removed on or before the expiration of said ten days, then, and in that case, no complaint shall be made for such violation so removed or remedied; but nothing herein contained shall require more than one notice to be given to the same person or persons for violation of any one Corporation ordinance, or parts thereof. Said notice shall have printed across its face, in large and conspicuous letters, the following words: "If the violation of the Corporation ordinance in this notice referred to be discontinued within ten days no action will be commenced by the Corporation Attorney."

Redemption by Dispossesed Tenant.

The Supreme Court Appellate Term has reversed the order of the lower court dismissing the petition of the Receiver of the Casino Company to be reinstated as tenant of the Casino, and remitted the proceeding back to the Justice making the order for his further action under section 2259 of the Code. The opinion of the Appellate Term is thus summarized by "The Law Journal:"

Section 2256 of the Code, which gives a dispossessed tenant the right to redeem the demised premises upon paying or tendering to the landlord the rent in arrear and the costs and charges incurred, includes under the term "rent" only the rent proper, and not taxes and other expenditures imposed by the lease upon the tenant, and under the term "costs and charges" only the costs and charges of regaining possession.

The tender so made need not be kept good, if refused, as its effect is not to deprive the landlord of any right, but only to give the tenant a standing in court to institute redemption proceedings.

On a proceeding instituted after tender, the Justice of a District Court has the power, and it is his duty, to make a final order, which shall fully adjust all the rights and liabilities between the parties and which should be of such a character that the tenant cannot recover possession until he has fully complied with every covenant under which he has been in default.

A temporary receiver has power to maintain such proceedings and acts therein, both for the corporation and its creditors, and the corporation is not an indispensable party.

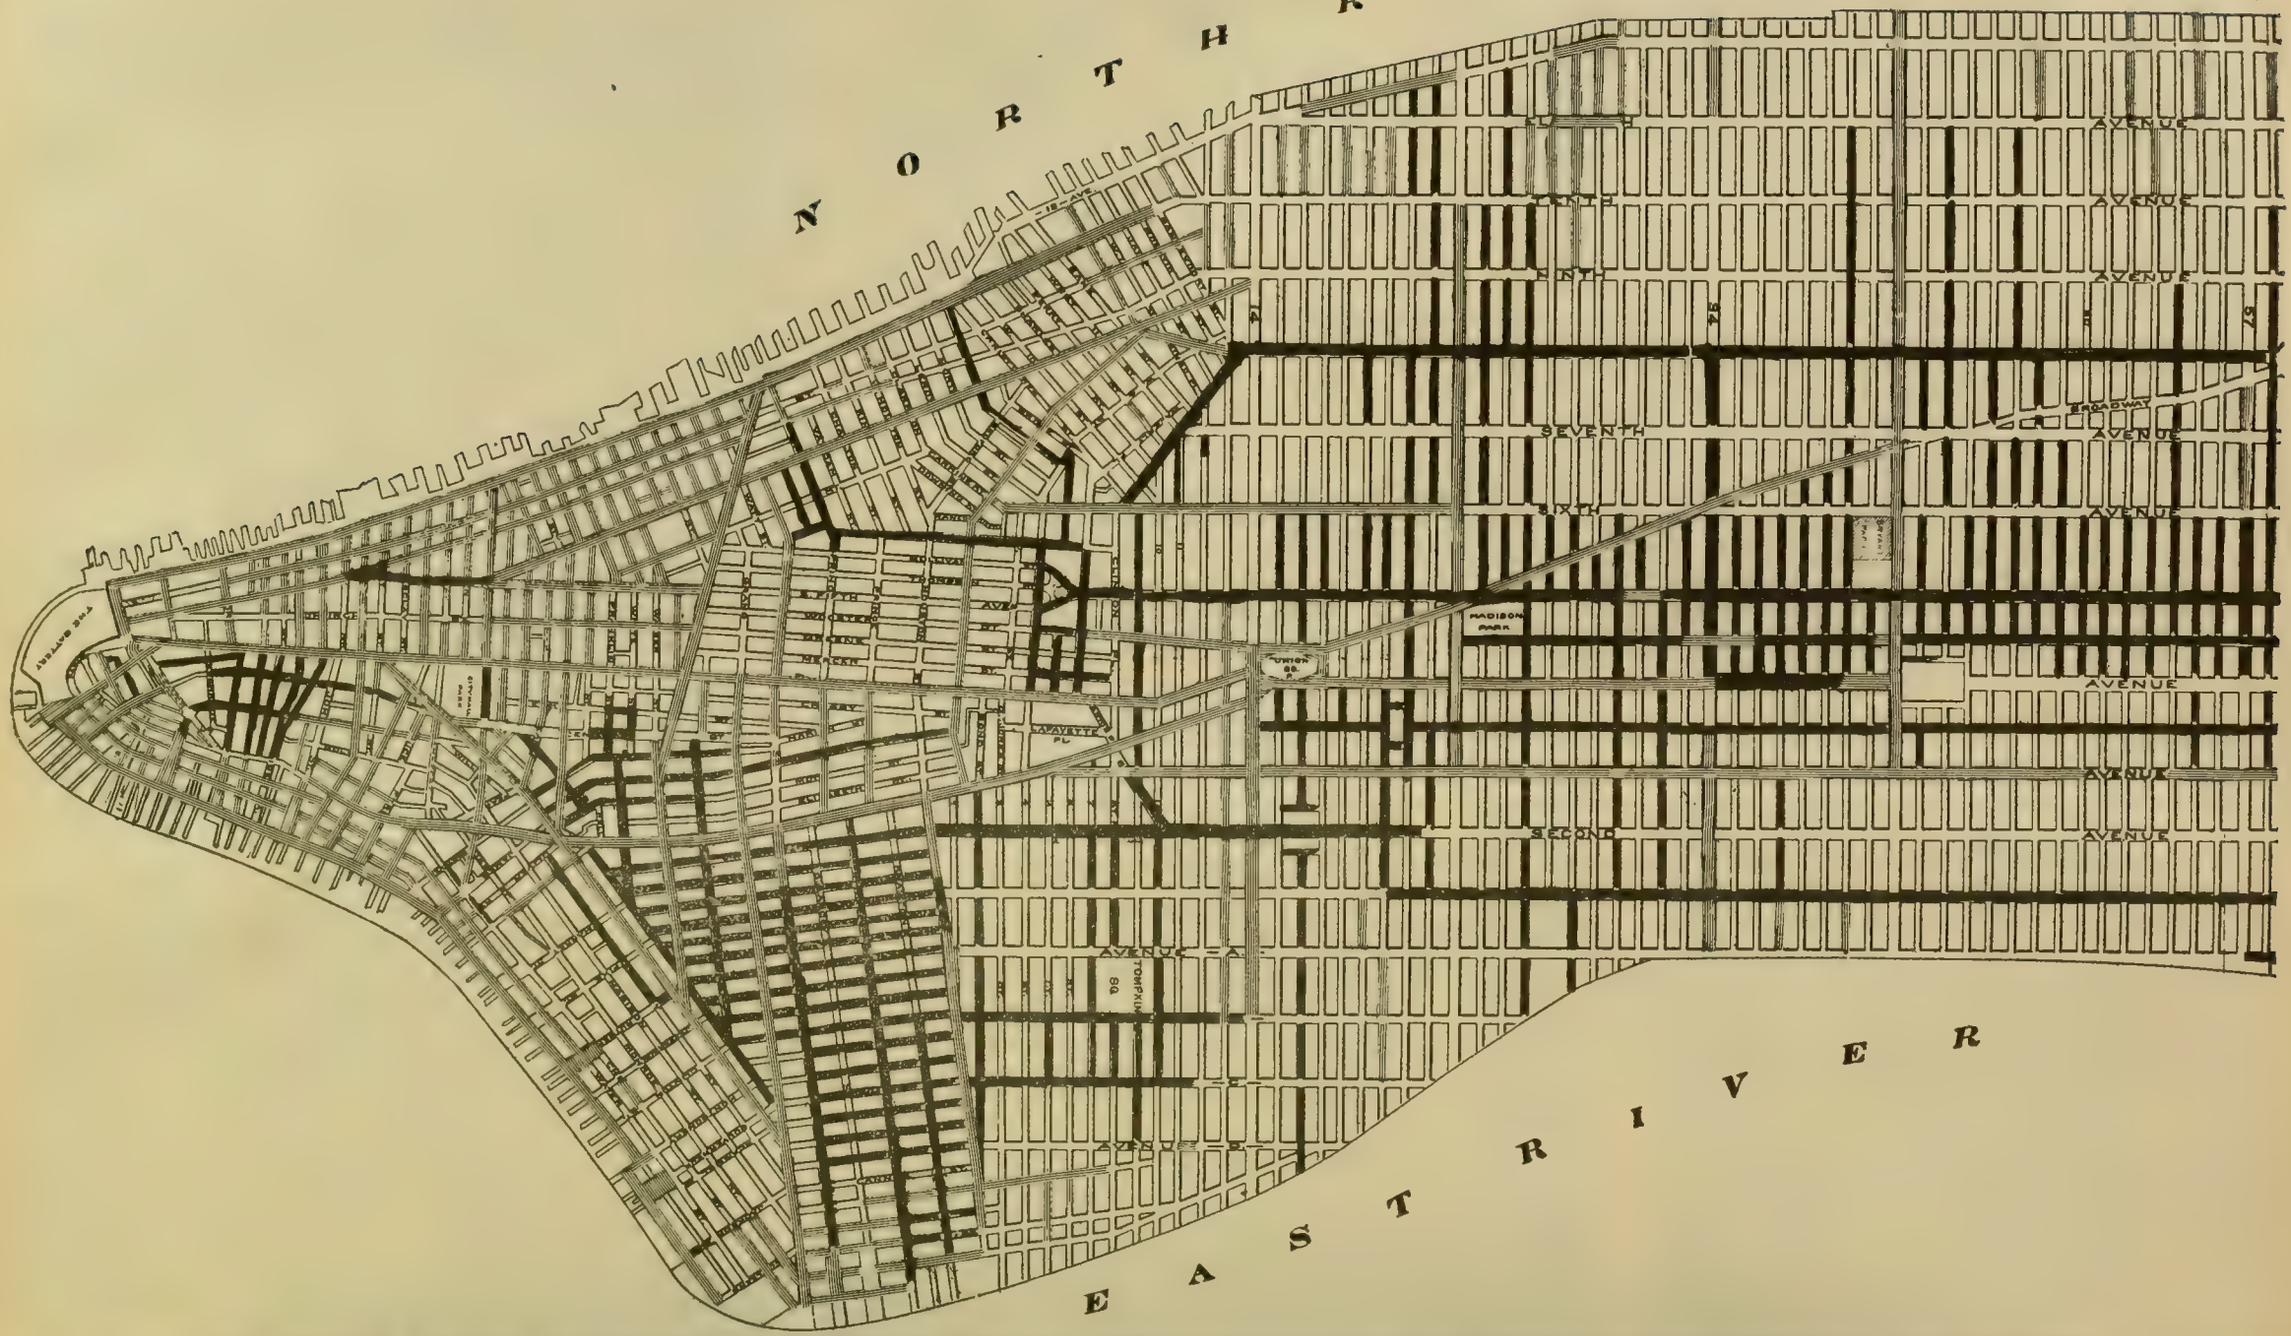
Building Trades Club.

At the quarterly meeting of the club, held on Monday evening last, Mr. Stephen M. Wright, its secretary, presented to the Club a life size portrait of Mr. William H. Sayward, in recognition of the latter's faithful, indefatigable and self-sacrificing devotion to the interest of the building industry throughout the past ten years. The portrait, massively framed, bears a metal tablet with the inscription: 'William H. Sayward, Founder of the National Association of Builders."

The Proposed East River Tunnel.

The Brooklyn Board of Aldermen has postponed indefinitely the consideration of the application for its consent to the Brooklyn end of a proposed tunnel between the City Halls of this and that city. There is some talk of the project still being carried out, but limited to the Brooklyn water front, but this is not probable.

Municipal Improvements—Street Paving.



One of the changes which are coming over the face of New York City at which its citizens may look with satisfaction, though it has not gone far enough to warrant pride, is the change that is being made underfoot—in the condition of the road and footways. There is only too much paving, both of the sidewalks and footways, that is not only bad but execrable; but there is also so much that is admirable, and, taken as an indication of what will be universal in the course of a reasonably few years, promises to make New York City one of the best paved cities in the world. With an effective street-cleaning department and a favoring climate no other city will be able to favor travel more, if so much. The evidences of redemption from the disgraceful and miserable condition that our streets presented only a few years ago are already sufficient to warrant this assertion, conditioned, however, upon the continuance of a prevailing spirit of public interest in the work.

It is now seven or eight years since the practical work of reforming the physical condition of the streets south of the Harlem River was begun. The Chamber of Commerce had made it a subject of much discussion, and of several resolutions, when, in 1889, Mayor Hewitt dispatched Mr. Stevenson Towle, an expert engineer with special experience in paving, to Europe to report on what was doing there, and obtained an act of the Legislature authorizing the city to expend $1,000,000 annually for three years in improving its pavements. A like appropriation was made in 1892, with this difference that it permitted an expenditure of $1,500,000 for two years. In 1895 another allowance of $1,000,000 a year for three years was made. These were in addition to the annual appropriations amounting to an average of about $225,000 a year. Besides, there were expenditures of about $500,000 paid out of assessments. For six years the total amount of money spent on new paving foots up about $11,350,000. As a result of experiment at home and scientific inquiry abroad in the early days of this movement, it was decided that granite laid upon concrete foundations was the most durable and suitable for paving streets in which the traffic was heavy, and asphalt for residential and light-traffic streets. Later information creates the opinion that asphalt is suitable also for streets of the heaviest traffic. The advantage on the score of cost is very much in its favor and it can be restored with much greater facility than granite, repairs or new paving being laid in less time and with less obstruction to the traffic. Owing to the greater knowledge in compounding the material and improvements in the manner of handling it, an asphalt pavement can be laid so as to require little or no repairs for even fifteen years. It is likely, therefore, that New York will be entirely laid with asphalt in due course of time, except where the grades forbid its use, owing to its slipperiness in wet or frosty weather.

Commissioner Brookfield and his successor, Gen. C. T. H. Collis, both regarded the improvement of the city's paving as a vital necessity, and it is due to their energetic labors supplemented by those of their subordinates in the Water Purveyor's Department, that there is so much improvement to be seen. One result of this work, which cannot be too highly commended, is the change that has been effected in the outward appearance of the tenement districts, simply by the use of asphalt on the roadways. Part of this bettered appearance must, of course, be credited to the Department of Street Cleaning, because, unless kept clean, asphalt looks considerably more disreputable than disordered stone. Not only is the outward appearance of the tenements improved, but the health of the inhabitants is much better since the asphalt was laid and carefully cleaned, as is shown by the bills of mortality and the reports of the Health Board relating to those sections. An idea of the paving work carried on can be obtained from the mere statement of the fact that from 1889 to the close of last year no less than 160 miles of the city's streets were paved or repaved with one or another kind of pavement. This reform is being assisted, too, by the diminishing cost of all kinds of paving, and of asphalt especially, under competition and the cheapening of preparation and laying. Some time ago we gave some figures bearing upon this fact which will bear reproduction. They are contained in the following table, which gives the averages of contract prices of asphalt per square yard for the years named, and the lengths of street that could be paved by the expenditure of $1,000,000 at those several rates:

				With 15 years' guarantee.
1894...	$3,847,	at which	rate	$1,000,000	paved	14.77	miles	of	30	ft. roadway.

1896...	2,671,	"	"	1,000,000	"	21.27	"	"	30	" "
				With 5 years' guarantee.
1894...	3,072	"	"	1,000,000	"	18.49	"	"	30	" "

1896...	2,223,	"	"	1,000,000	"	25.20	"	"	30	" "

Another table which will prove of interest is the following, showing the mileages of the several kinds of pavment in the three years, and from which may be seen the work of improve-

Macadam	21.98	20.68	19.61
Total miles	385.17	387.56	390.84

It will be seen from this table that there has been not only an increase in the pavement laid in two years of something over five miles, but the pavement laid has been of an improved and more suitable character. The reports of the Department of Public Works, prior to last year, did not give the figures in such detail as later reports give them. But it can be seen that the amount of superior stone paving is increasing, and that of the inferior decreasing as a consequence. Stone pavements of all kinds, except Belgian trap, was, in 1895, 241.65 miles, and in this year at a recent date 237.73 miles, as compared with 221.11 miles in 1894. The differences in these figures are explained by the substitution of the best kinds of stone for worn or inferior stone. The length of Belgian trap paving decreased in 1895, 23.89 miles, and 7.93 miles in 1896, a total reduction of 31.82 miles of this poor paving and its substitution by something better. In the 1894 report the length of asphalt paving is given as 62.34 miles, without specifying how much was sheet and how much block asphalt. By the close of 1895, 69.97 miles of street had been laid with asphalt, or 7.63 more miles than in 1894, and there are now so laid 86.06 miles, or 16.09 more than in 1895, and 23.72 more than in 1894, showing how rapidly asphalt is replacing less desirable paving in this city. It must be borne in mind that these figures do not indicate all the paving work done by the Department, in the years named, but merely the new mileage and changes in the kinds of paving used. Where no change was made in the kind of paving used the table does not record it.

The direct benefits of improved streets come in the form of the improved health of the community, increased commerce and greater desirability of the city as a place of residence. Mr. Stevenson Towle, in an article on "Pavement Construction and City Growth," published in the current number of "The Engineering Magazine," says:

Merchants and business men have come to realize that their ability to do business and compete with other cities depends on the ease and cheapness with which goods can be carted and handled in transit through a city. Good pavements mean increased profits; heavier and larger loads can be handled with advantage. It was not until about thirty years ago that the great commercial cities of Europe first became convinced that their welfare depended on their having suitable pavements. They immediately began to construct substantial pavements, on a comprehensive plan. London, Liverpool, Paris and Berlin have spent vast sums for this purpose, and have found these expenditures a most profitable investment, the improved pavements enabling their merchants and manufacturers, by the lessening in the cost of hauling and handling goods within the city limits, to control the markets of the world. The most substantial pavements were laid, and the cost was not considered. These cities also realized the fact that their interests were harmonious with those of the great railroads and steamship companies having their terminals within the city, and that therefore depots, wharves, and warehouses should be connected by well-paved streets. While these improvements were being made abroad, the merchants of this country were losing vast sums of money in trade, due in a great measure to the extra cost they were compelled to bear by reason of the cost of carting goods over bad pavements. New York, in particular, was a sufferer, being the great entrepot for foreign and domestic commerce. Merchants were discouraged in their efforts to compete with foreign cities. * * * * Good pavements not only promote the health of the community, but facilitate the renting of houses, and in no instance is this rental increase more noticeable than when a macadam pavement has been replaced by asphalt. In many instances rents on such streets have been increased by one-third, and it is safe to estimate that improved pavements have increased the rental of dwellings through the city at least 10%—far more on residential streets where asphalt pavement has replaced the cobble or Belgian pavement.

St. John's Park.

By an error in our map and description of the city's parks, St. John's Park was located on the site of the old St. John's Park, now and for many years occupied by the N. Y. C. & H. R. R. Co. as a depot, and about which there is to-day nothing in the least park-like, instead of on the site of St. John's Cemetery, occupying the block front on Hudson street, between Clarkson and Leroy streets, and extending back on the latter streets about 350 feet. It may be remarked, too, that work of making this plot into a park is not very far forward, consisting only of some cleaning off of the weeds and the addition of a handsome and stalwart form in a light grey uniform, whose presence is unaccountable except, perhaps for the protection of the rotten wooden fence around it, and the gravestones in the rear of the plot.

Elm Street Appraisements.

The reports of Messrs. Morris Wilkins, Frederick Southack, Charles S. Brown and Michael Coleman, appraisers appointed under an agreement between the city and certain owners of property required for the Elm street improvement are presented in the tabular form given below, to the Commission of Estimate and Assessment on Thursday last. The several totals covering about three-fourths of the whole property required: Southack, $3,113,825; Wilkins, $2,138,775, with parts of 17 buildings not appraised; Brown, $3,332,535; Coleman, $2,784,685. Two of the appraisers were appointed by the city and two by the property-owners. Each of the four sets of appraisements was made independently, and all are to be accepted as evidence upon the value of the properties appraised, with the right to both parties to cross-examine and to the Commission to call for the additional testimony in its discretion. The property not covered by the agreement is undergoing condemnation in the old way.

A list of the properties appraised and the estimates of the respective appraisers is as follows:

Trade Notes.

BURGLAR-PROOF ROOF SCUTTLE HOLE PROTECTION.

Attention is directed to the cut on another page illustrating the Burglar-Proof Roof Scuttle Protector, recently patented by Mr. A. Ganzenmuller, the well-known bellhanger and electrician. It is auxiliary to the ordinary scuttle and consists of a frame of substantial skeleton construction, a door having a hinged connection with the frame, the door being arranged to drop downward, and locking devices for holding the door in a closed position against the frame. Pulleys located on the under side of the frame and a cord passing over said pulleys and having its ends attached to the underside of the door near its free end. It is especially adapted for use in private houses and high-class apartment houses. Here are the names of some house-owners who have used Mr. Ganzenmuller's Burglar Proof Roof Scuttle Hole Protector with satisfactory results: Messrs. H. Scheuer, 40 West 89th street; C. R. Vincent, 525 West 149th street; J. B. Guttenberg, 118 West 120th street; M. S. Barnett, 27 East 73d street; M. Ottinger, 20 East 70th street; J. W. Love, 35 East 68th street; A. Heimerdinger, 45 East 78th street; G. Leask, 29 East 83d street; J. Kahn, 50 East 83d street and Mr. Seymour, 64 East 81st street. The Scuttle Hole Protector can be seen in operation at Mr. Ganzenmuller's store, 1300 3d avenue, between 74th and 75th streets.

AN EXCELLENT SHOWING.

The New Jersey Terra Cotta Co., Karl Mathiasen, president, No. 108 Fulton street, New York, are supplying, or have lately completed, the delivery of terra cotta for the following important structures: Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Co.'s building, at Hartford, Messrs. Cady, Berg & See, architects; Bank Building, 218 Montague street, Brooklyn, Phoenix Insurance Co., owner, Wm. H. Beers, architect; Synagogue at New Haven, Conn., Brunner & Tryon, architects; Union Passenger Station, West Washington, D. C.; Princeton Bank, Princeton, N. J., W. E. Stone, architect; Young Men's Christian Association Building, at Cambridge, and Masonic Building, at Newton, Mass., Hartwell, Richardson & Driver, architects; four private residences on Riverside Drive and 77th street, C. P. H. Gilbert, architect; Mercantile Building, at Nos. 585 and 587 Broadway, Weil & Mayer, owners; and No. 708 Broadway, F. H. Mela, owner, Cleverdon & Putzel, architects; and Architect Albert Wagner's new stores on 12th and 13th streets, near Broadway. This is certainly an excellent showing, and speaks volumes for the good repute in which architects hold the contracting company, which favor has been earned by conscientious work.

Concerning Real Estate Agents and Brokers.

The long established firm of Wilcox & Shelton have commodious and accessible quarters at No. 245 West 125th street, near 8th avenue. Their specialty is the "Management of Property," and success has been secured by constant, intelligent work, coupled with honest efforts on behalf of their many clients. Messrs. Wilcox & Shelton are thoroughly posted as to values, and have excellent facilities for negotiating sales. Their telephone call is 87 Harlem.

Broker A. E. Thomson now occupies his new and attractive office at No. 29 East 125th street. Long experience in the realty business has secured for Mr. Thomson an extensive acquaintance with owners and capitalists, and frequent reports of sales completed testify to his ability as a negotiator. He is a very energetic worker and deserves success.

Ames & Co., of No. 109 West 34th street, corner of Broadway, have an excellent centrally located, long established office, coupled with first-class facilities for the transaction of a brokerage and agency business, including the sale and management of realty. The firm have many valuable properties in their charge and for sale, and make a specialty of the collection of rents and the management of estates. Their telephone call is 71 38th street.

Real Estate Market.

The market is slow in presenting responsive evidence of any substantial revival of interest on the part of investors. We are, however, able to give this week details of a goodly number of sales, but a regard for truth compels us to state that very many of them were ante-election transactions, reliable information of which has not been obtainable until within the past six days. With old and new combined, the purchases announced, exclusive of the big downtown sale referred to below of an indefinite property, represent an aggregate investment of about $3,200,000, and a very satisfactory sum it would be did it only result from one week's work by the brokers. Uptown builders and others who have improved properties on the market that were bought months ago with a view to profitable speculation, are now asking whether they will have to sacrifice them in the event of money having to be obtained between now and spring. It certainly looks as if they would, as the expected post-election buyers have failed to materialize in any appreciable number. Perhaps their wants have nearly all been supplied at the low prices that have ruled for three months and that another year will be ushered in before there is an improvement in the general demand. In the lower section of the city good business property is being looked up by the wealthier class of investors, but the situation has undergone no change in many months—there is only here and there a paying parcel that an owner cares to part with. Next week the auction room will present the first evidence of the crisis, through which real estate has passed since the beginning of the election campaign. The list of foreclosure sales is larger than has been known in a great while. And there are many more to come if the recent filing of notices of suits can be relied on as a guide. In September, 1895, the number of lis pendens, involving foreclosures of mortgages, that were filed was 81. In September of this year they numbered 109. October, 1895, presented a list of 134, while last month's notices reached the large total of 163. November has thus far shown about the same percentage of licenses over the lis pendens of a year ago. Many of the parcels will, of course, never get into the hands of the auctioneers, as with an easier money market is is to be expected that a fair proportion of the properties involved in the various actions will be saved from sale by the ability of their respective owners to make arrangements to have the loans renewed or replaced with others. Money on bond and mortgage is now plentiful and readily obtainable on a five per cent basis. At any lower rate of interest it is still hard to secure loans unless on superior security, and it is not believed that any easier conditions will be observed before January 1.

The following are the comparative tables for the New York Conveyances, Mortgages and Projected Buildings for the corresponding weeks of 1895 and 1896.

There were many interesting legal offerings during the week at the Broadway Salesroom, those of Tuesday proving the most attractive and drawing the largest crowd. Outsiders disputed with parties in interest in several cases for the possession of property and were the successful bidders at occasional sales. An offering out of the ordinary line was one on Tuesday by Peter F. Meyer under foreclosure. It comprised the southwest corner of Water and Scammel streets, which was knocked down to the plaintiff in the action for $500, subject to ten separate encumbrances that amounted in the aggregate to about $13,900. They were two prior mortgages with accrued interest, taxes past due for the years 1893 to 1896, and the water tax for the same period. The defendant, apparently, could have had no ground for complaint of a lack of leniency. Foreclosure sales of the following were adjourned to the 24th inst.: Nos. 2051 and 2053 8th avenue, by Peter F. Meyer & Co., and a plot on the southwest corner of Bradhurst avenue and 155th street, part of which runs through to Edgecombe avenue, by William Kennelly; and to the 25th inst., No. 3649 3d avenue, by L. J. Phillips & Co.

On Thursday, E. H. Ludlow & Co. withdrew from voluntary sale No. 44 East 73d street, on a bid of $44,500; and Nos. 299 to 305 Water street, on an offer of $40,000.

Walter Stabler, of Stabler & Smith, J. Hamilton Hunt, Samuel H. Stone and John H. Dye, have been elected members of the Real Estate Board of Brokers.

Richard V. Harnett & Co. will sell at auction, at the Real Estate Exchange, No. 59 Liberty street, on Tuesday next, the 17th inst., No. 557 West Broadway; and on the following day, the 18th inst., No. 2305 1st avenue, northwest corner East 118th street; No. 349 East 118th street; No. 318 West 51st street, Nos. 139 and 141 West 67th street, No. 368 Canal street, No. 490 Hudson street and No. 108 6th avenue. Particulars can be found on another page, and book maps, etc., had of the auctioneers at Nos. 71 and 73 Liberty street. On December 2d and at the same place Mr. Harnett will sell a beautiful and extensive country seat at West Park-on-Hudson, by order of the executors of the late Dr. Charles R. Gill, described more fully elsewhere.

Bryan L. Kennelly makes announcement elsewhere in this issue of a list of properties of varying attractiveness and character which he will sell at auction in the Real Estate Salesroom, on the 17th, 18th and 25th instants. His office is at No. 66 Liberty street, and in these days when capital is seeking investment in an era of renewed confidence, his bills may be consulted with advantage. The offerings for next Tuesday consist of Nos. 202, 204, 206, 208 and 226 East 114th street; those for next Wednesday of No. 15 Park avenue, Nos. 302 and 304 West 4th street, No. 249 West 11th street, Nos. 16 and 18 Commerce street, No. 222 Varick street, No. 69 Downing street, Nos. 726 and 728 East 12th street; those for Wednesday week, the 25th inst., of lots on Western Boulevard, 143d, 144th and 145th streets. All these parcels are to be sold for various estates, and are described in the auctioneer's announcement.

D. Phoenix Ingraham will, on Thursday next, the 19th inst., sell the Ward property referred to in this column last and the preceding week. The property consists of 119 vacant city lots on Fort Washington Heights, between 169th and 172d streets, and on Kingsbridge road, Fort Washington and Haven avenues and Boulevard Lafayette. The announcement that this land will be sold at public auction has created a good deal of interest and much inquiry for maps and particulars, an encouraging sign of the probable results of the event. The auctioneers' office is room B, No. 111 Broadway, and the advertisement on another page gives, besides other important particulars, a list of the names and business addresses of the attorneys from whom maps, etc., can be had.

William Kennelly will offer at auction, in partition, on Thursday next, the 19th inst., the valuable investment property, Nos. 54 and 56 Duane street, located between Elm and Centre streets. On Tuesday week, the 24th inst., the same auctioneer will sell a large amount of valuable property belonging to the estate of the late George Chesterman, also by order of the Supreme Court in partition. This is located on 6th, 3d and Park avenues; West 10th, East 9th, Nassau, West 14th, West 15th, Stuyvesant and East 124th streets. By order of the trustees of the same estate Mr. Kennelly will sell at the same time a plot on the northeast corner of 187th street and Bathgate avenue, and two lots and dwellings on the west side of Bathgate avenue, near 187th street. By referring to the announcements of these sales in our advertising pages, it will be seen that much of this property belongs to the good investment class, and is likely to be eagerly bid for on that account. At the same time other information regarding these sales can be obtained, and the auctioneer, whose office is at No. 111 Broadway, is prepared to supply catalogues and full particulars upon application to him.

Peter F. Meyer has a good bill of auction offerings which he will sell in the Real Estate Salesroom, No. 111 Broadway, on Tuesday, the 24th inst. This is made up of apartment-house and tenement properties on Park and Bradhurst avenues, East 10th, Mangin, West 66th, West 103d, East 114th, West 116th, West 124th, East 133d and West 133d streets. The street numbers, etc., can be found in an announcement in our business pages. Book-maps, etc., can be obtained from Charles Henry Butler, attorney, No. 1402 or 111 Broadway, or of the auctioneer at No. 111 Broadway. The number of the offerings and their variety and character will draw out a good attendance at this sale. Those who are looking for opportunities to make desirable purchases in these classes of property should give this announcement careful attention.

James L. Wells will, on Monday, the 30th inst., sell in the Real Estate Salesroom, No. 111 Broadway, 198 city lots in the 23d and 24th Wards, belonging to the Vyse estate. The location of these lots is east of Southern Boulevard, near 172d street, on Jennings, Bryant and Longfellow streets. They are all accessible by trolley lines running on one minute service. Streets are graded to established grade and city improvements are at hand. Our readers will find other details in our business pages and the auctioneer will supply maps, etc., whenever desired to do so. His office is at No. 59 Liberty street.

The John H. Tredwell farm, located at Sand's Point, Queens County, will be sold at auction, in accordance with the announcement on another page, at 11 a. m., of Thursday next, the 19th inst., in front of the Town Hall, Jamaica, L. I.

Real estate interests will be agreeably affected by the announcement on another page of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, No. 120 Broadway, that it is in the market with money to loan on bond and mortgage, not only because this is a pleasant fact in itself but also because of its bearing on the present feeling in financial circles.

Gossip of the Week.

SOUTH OF 59TH STREET.

J. N. Kalley & Son have sold for Reginald G. Barclay, to Frederick T. James, the seven-story fire-proof business structure, 23x90, No. 40 Great Jones street.

The Weld estate has sold No. 596 Broadway and Nos. 126 and 128 Crosby street, a plot 54.11x199.6x64x199.6, on which are the ruins of a building burned down last spring. The contract price is said to be under $350,000. The sum paid for the land and building in 1889 was $325,000. Builder Jere C. Lyons is announced as the buyer and will erect a modern ten-story structure. This sale was practically arranged a month ago, but as the contract lacked the signatures of one or more of the heirs of the late William G. Weld it could not until now be announced as completed. It was also understood at that time that No. 594 Broadway, adjoining, running through to Crosby street, was included in the transaction.

We are able to state positively that the sale of the year in the downtown district, so far as the value is concerned, has been closed this week, but as the principals and their confidants seem to have been pledged to secrecy for the present, we find it impossible to publish any particulars. The price of the property is said to be considerably more than $2,000,000, but less than $2,500,000. It probably consists of a Wall street parcel, running through to Pine street or Exchange place, with possibly an L fronting on a side street. The details, it is said, will be forthcoming in good time.

Hoffman Bros. brought to a conclusion on Monday one of the largest deals of the year. They sold for John T. Williams, the new ten-story mercantile building, Nos. 707 and 709 Broadway, and Nos. 270 to 274 Mercer street, between 4th street and Washington place, to Mrs. Mary M. Ward, who will give in exchange the Parmly building, Nos. 165 and 167 Broadway, an old-style six-story iron front office structure, with plot 37.6x about 104 feet. The dimensions of the former building are 49.3 on Broadway x200 on the northerly line x62.10 on Mercer street x100x about 12.7x100, and the price agreed upon for it in the trade is $800,000; the Parmly building being accepted at a valuation of $500,000. The same brokers have resold the latter for Mr. Williams to a buyer who purchases for a permanent investment, but whose identity will not be disclosed until title is given about ten days hence.

Ruland & Whiting, conjointly with Richard M. Montgomery & Co., have sold for the heirs of the late Thomas Prosser, the old four-story brick buildings, 27.2x103.3, on the southwest corner of Gold and Platt streets, to Rudolph E. Doelling, at a price under $125,000.

Winans & May have sold for Mrs. Mary B. Johnson, the four-story stone front dwelling, with lot 16.8x75.10, No. 79 East 55th street, to a Rufus R. Graves, for about $22,000.

Clarence J. Ramsey has sold for Rev. Gabriel A. Healy to Andrew J. Doyle, the five-story brick tenement with store, lot 22.9 x100, No. 12 Greenwich street.

Seton & Wissmann have sold for Mrs. Mary A. Leveridge, the lot, 25x84.7, with old two-story building, No. 28 Rutgers street, to Weil & Mayer, probably for improvement. The property has been held in the seller's family since it was acquired, with adjacent land, under a grant made to one of the early Dutch settlers. Our enterprising daily contemporaries were unanimous a day or two ago in stating that it had been owned by the family referred to for 300 years. To show how near the truth their reports were, it is only necessary to say what every schoolboy knows, that the first arrival of immigrants from Holland was in 1624, and not until a number of years later was the first grant secured of land on Manhattan island. Rutgers street and vicinity doubtless figured in a grant at a much later period.

M. E. Hewitt & Co. have sold for A. Lyon, the four-story stone front single flat, lot 16.8x100.5, No. 314 West 52d street, to Elizabeth Hugart.

NORTH OF 59TH STREET.

Greene & Taylor, conjointly with W. P. Mangam, have sold for Edward and Henry Hirsh, the plot 99.11x125, on the southwest corner of Lenox avenue and 139th street. The purchase is probably made with a view to improvement.

Potter & Bro. have purchased from the Charles G. Havens estate, through L. J. Phillips & Co., the block front on east side of St. Nicholas avenue, between 119th and 120th streets, with a depth of 96 feet on the former and 202 feet on the latter street; also through the same brokers, from the Beadleston estate, two lots on the south side of 115th street, 120 feet east of Madison avenue, and two on the north side of the same street, 160 feet east of Madison avenue, and two adjoining same on the west, owned by other parties. They have bought, as well, a plot 100 x100.11 on the north side of 114th street, 395 feet west of 5th avenue, from the Morrison estate, and from August Ruff the plot 100.11x95, on the southeast corner of Manhattan avenue and 119th street, which was recently sold by Mrs. Richard O'Gorman, as noted in our issue of October 31. The Messrs. Potter appear to have made of late a specialty of Manhattan avenue lots, as within a few months they have bought in quick succession no less than five corner parcels, each having a half-block frontage. Two of the plots have been resold. Their present holdings embrace all the full lots, except a single one here and there, that are available for building purposes on the line of that thoroughfare.

Builder Charles Lowen has bought of Morris Steinhardt with a building loan, the plot 59.4x83.8x52.2x107.3 on the northeast corner of Riverside Drive and 83d street, and purposes erecting a six-story and basement flat, for which it is intended to break ground on Monday.

Builders David Richey and William J. Brown have bought of George Mulligan, for improvement, a plot 150x100.11, on the north side of 117th street, 125 feet east of 7th avenue. The lots will be utilized for the erection of a row of five-story flats similar to those recently finished and sold by the same builders on the plot adjoining on the east. Brokers, Hall J. How & Co.

The same brokers have sold for William H. Gebhard to Morris Steinhardt, the block front, 201.10x95, on the west side of Madison avenue, between 100th and 101st streets.

John P. Leo has purchased from James Gillies & Son a plot, 75x99.11, on the north side of 141st street, 225 feet east of the Boulevard. A row of three-story and basement houses will be erected.

W. C. Muschenheim has bought of Henry W. Schmidt at about $30,000, a plot, 114x500, on the old Fort Washington Ridge road, near the line of 196th street, and running through to the Boulevard Lafayette. The purchaser intends erecting a residence.

Joseph Bierhoff has sold for Builder Thomas Williams, the new three-story dwelling, No. 113 West 136th street, to Bertha Meier; the adjoining house, No. 115, to Charles Meyerhoff, and expects to close a contract to-day for the sale of another dwelling in the same row.

A. E. Thomson has sold for V. A. Calkin, to a builder, the two four-story stone front dwellings, with plot 38.5x89.9, Nos. 1967 and 1969 Madison avenue, southeast corner of 126th street.

Frederick Zittel has sold for William W. Clendinning, to a builder who will erect a row of flats, four lots on the south side of 117th street, 175 feet east of 7th avenue.

The Horgan & Slattery Company has sold the two five-story American basement brick dwellings, with plot 30x100.11x19.11x irregular, Nos. 254 and 256 West 105th street.

Winans & May have sold for W. W. & T. M. Hall, to H. Proctor, the new four-story dwelling, with lot 25x102.2, No. 21 East 80th street.

L. J. Phillips & Co. have sold for the same firm of builders, to A. Livingston, No. 351 West 87th street, one of a new row of nine four-story brick dwellings, 18x20x60x100.8.

F. Koch & Co. have sold for Builders Ashley & Moore, to Ferdinand Von Graberg, one of their new row of five three-story brick dwellings, 15x55x99.11, on the south side of 150th street, beginning 250 feet west of Amsterdam avenue.

The Sinking Fund Commission, at a meeting on Thursday, decided to purchase a site and erect an armory for the First Battery at a total cost of $225,000. The site selected by the Armory Board has been agreed to by the Commission. It comprises the Drexel lots, 175x100.5, on the south side of 66th street, 150 feet east of Columbus avenue. The plot will cost $105,000, and condemnation proceedings may become necessary in order to acquire it. The late Joseph W. Drexel paid $47,000 for the property in March 1887.

W. C. Dilger has negotiated a trade between Mrs. Rachel Borger and Otto H. Dage by the terms of which the former will sell the five-story tenement, with lot 25x102.2, No. 121 East 77th street, and take in part payment the five-story single flat, 18x 85x100.5, No. 204 West 69th street.

Stabler & Smith have closed an exchange between Builder Paul B. Pugh and Mrs. Amanda Bussing, through which the former agrees to transfer the five-story double flat, 33x90x107, No. 124 West 94th street, and take in trade a plot of about 26 lots, with dwelling, on Kingsbridge road, opposite Macomb's Dam road.

Louis S. Lotsch has sold for Builder August Jacob, the five-story stone front double tenement with stores, 25x64.6x80, No. 1289 2d avenue, between 67th and 68th streets, to Kilian Menninger.

William A. White & Sons, by a deed filed on the 6th inst., completed the purchase in the interest of Washington and Arthur R. Wilson, of a parcel 112x80 on the southeast corner of 126th street and 7th avenue. The transfers of the various other houses and lots comprising the property have been made to several nominal buyers in the last few weeks, and on Monday they will all be reconveyed to the Messrs. Wilson, who will then possess the 7th avenue block front of 200 feet, with a depth of 100 feet on 125th street and 112 feet on 126th street. It is their intention to alter the corner dwelling on the latter street for business purposes.

A report published a few days ago of a sale by Builders Smith & Stewart of a house on West 91st street, proves to be a repetition of an announcement made some time ago that they had sold the four-story house, with lot 25x about 70, one of a row still unfinished, on the north side of 91st street, 225 feet west of West End avenue. Horatio J. Brewer, the buyer, will occupy it when completed.

Despite a report printed in one of the morning papers yesterday Daniel Hennessy has not sold another of his row of dwellings on 82d street between 5th and Madison avenues. The first and only sale was made about a year ago.

NORTH SIDE.

Carl E. Randrupp has sold for John H. Will, at about $4,000, a lot 34x100, on the northeast corner of Brook avenue and 169th street.

BROOKLYN.

The Bay Ridge Park Improvement Co. sold to Walter L. Johnson sixty odd lots on 12th avenue, from 82d to 86th street; also to N. Lehman three lots on the south side of 73d street, 250 feet west of 10th avenue, for improvement.

James R. Ross & Co. have sold for Dr. James G. Butler, the three-story and basement dwelling, 20x65x140, No. 850 Prospect place, to Daniel T. Gateson.

George E. Lovett & Co. have sold for the A. B. See Manufacturing Company, the plot 100x102.6, on the southeast corner of Pearl and Water streets, to Jones Bros, of New York, who will begin before the end of the month the erection of a six-story building.

CONVEYANCES.

Wherever the letters Q. C., C. a. G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee, they mean as follows:

1st—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i. e., a deed wherein all the right, title and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants or warranty.

2d—C. a. G. means a deed containing Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed can be impeached, charged or encumbered.

3d—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein, although the seller makes no express covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it.

The street and avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the Insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the Deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to there having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given and the amount. The general dates used as headings are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date. Whenever the rate is not given, read as 6 per cent.

Mortgages against 23d and 24th Ward properties will be found all together at the foot of this list.

[1]Editor Record and Guide:

The lien of The Norwalk Lock Company for $328.69 against The Metropolitan Improvement Company was filed by that company acting in conjunction with John L. C. Graves. The amount of its claim is erroneous. The amount due the company is $140, for which no demand has been made, but this amount has been tendered to The Norwalk Lock Company to-day and a suit against it for the cancellation of the lien will be commenced at once.

The Metropolitan Impt. Co.

New York, Nov. 13, 1896.

[2]Editor Record and Guide:

The claim for $3,372.50 of John L. C. Graves for work at 81st street and Riverside Drive against The Metropolitan Improvement Company, for which he has filed a lien, is disputed because the work is not done according to contract.

JUDGMENTS.

In these lists of judgments the names alphabetically arranged, and which are first on each line, are those of the judgment debtor. The letter (D) means judgment for deficiency. (*) means not summoned. (†) signifies that the first name is fictitious, real name being unknown. Judgments entered during the week, and satisfied before publication do not appear in this column, but in a list of Satisfied Judgments.

BUILDING MATERIAL MARKET.

NEW YORK.

BRICKS.—Although there have been no changes made in quoted values during the past week, the market has been something of a disappointment to sellers. Demand has not shown the improvement expected; in fact, it has continued of very moderate proportions so that supplies have steadily increased in receivers' hands, the number of barges now carried over amounting to fully 35 barges. Despite the fact that demand has been disappointing, there has been no attempt to force business, and prices have held steady with ordinary Hudson River selling at $4.12½@4.50, and the better grades at $4.62½@4.75; specials have continued at $5.00. Some inquiries have been received for brick to be delivered during the winter months, and sales have been made at about 50c. advance from current prices. The market for pale brick has been slow, but there has been only a limited supply offering, and prices have ruled steady, ranging from $1.50 @2.00, according to quality. Little interest has been shown on the market for Jerseys; shipments have been small and prices have been unchanged at $3.75@4.00, and steady.

CEMENT.—Considering the lateness of the season, there has been a fair amount of business transacted. No new building is expected to be started until spring, but there has been a resumption of work on buildings started but which was stopped during the recent period of depression, as a result of the uneasiness felt over the election, and this has produced something of a demand; prices have ruled steady at 75@80c. for Rosendale. Portland cement, both foreign and domestic, has had a fair trade at steady values.

IRON AND STEEL.—A decided improvement in demand for pig iron has developed since our last report. Foundrymen have been fairly large buyers and with the opening of this week an advance of about 50c. per ton was made in quoted prices. We quote at $12.50@13.00 per ton for No. 1 X foundry, $12.00@12.50 for No. 2 X do, $11.50 @12.00 for No. 2 plain, and $11.00@11.50 for Gray Forge. A firm market has been reported for old material, and a fair amount of business has been transacted at full quoted values. We quote at $12.50@13.00 for old iron rails; $11.00@11.50 for No. 1 wrought scrap; $11.00@11.50 for cast scrap; $10.50@11.50 for old car wheels, and $6.00@9.00 for borings, stove plate, etc. There have been no changes of an important nature in the market for manufactured iron. Few contracts of importance have been placed, but the tone has continued steady and values have been well maintained. Steel rails have been quiet and unchanged at $28 f. o. b. at mill.

LATH.—The market has been in a tame and uninteresting position. Business has been transacted at $1.50 and $1.55, but during the latter part of the week trade was practically at a standstill, as neither sellers nor buyers were disposed to do anything, each waiting for the other. The supply held here amounted to about 1,500,000, and as there were few on the way, sellers named $1.60 as their trading prices, and seemed disposed to await until buyers would advance to that price before they would make an attempt to do business. Buyers were holding back, not naming any figure at which they would trade.

LIME.—The market for eastern lime has been without changes or new features of an interesting nature. The supply arriving has been reported as moderate, but there has been no accumulation in receivers' hands, as demand has been sufficient to absorb offerings and prices have held steady at 70c. for common, and 80c. for finishing. Common State lime has continued in light supply, very little having been shipped to this market, but a moderate business has been transacted in Jointa, and the price has been unchanged and steady at $1.00.

LUMBER.—Now that the excitement of the election has subsided, the market is beginning to show a more settled tone. Confidence has been steadily reviving and buyers have shown a growing disposition to talk business, but no

EXPRESSIONS of disappointment at the movements of the markets are not infrequent. The people who bought stocks on the result of the election, and made the market for brighter people who bought in expectation of that result and used the event to realize their profits, are, of course, disappointed. Commission brokers who, until a few days ago, were as busy as they could be are now thrown back into idleness; they also are dissatisfied. Men in many other lines of business, who thought they saw activity and prosperity ahead for them as soon as the country had declared for sound money, are among the grumblers. These people are disappointed because they expected too much and wanted to get it too quickly. Moreover, they made no allowance for the unforeseen. Speculation in the stock market has been chilled by the apprehensions created by jingo newspapers around Cuba. This talk of the need of intervention on the part of the United States is being timed for the meeting of Congress in the expectation that the matter will be taken up there, as it now, with so much journalistic encouragement promised beforehand, most probably will be. The knowledge of this fact keeps buyers away from stocks, and with dullness in the commission houses and a growingly aggressive professional bear party prices may go off. The strength of foreign exchanges is used as an argument against further advances in quotations. This strength is due partly to covering by speculators who sold exchange short some time ago and partly, doubtless, to renewed buying abroad by merchants and manufacturers who bought comparatively nothing all the summer. Apart from these things we see nothing unfavorable in the situation. What people are complaining of is simply a reaction, a halt, not a setback. The recovery in trade and commerce is as satisfactory as we have a right to expect, in view of the facts that winter is now here and Congress will soon meet and may take up the tariff as well as the Cuban question. So long as we see daily a long list of mills and manufactories resuming or increasing operations and but a short one of those stopping work or reducing output, with grain prices maintained at points showing profits to the farmer, there is no occasion for anxiety on account of our trade.

WHATEVER other nations may think, Spain believes in herself, as is shown by the popularity of the new internal loan of $50,000,000 which has been subscribed several time over. This sum will help the country in its present needs, but it is not sufficient for the tasks it has on hand of putting down rebellion in both extremities of its possessions. However, the subscription will show the world that Spain is not as poverty-stricken as has been thought, and the manner in which it was subscribed suggests reserve forces which may yet be drawn upon. Events are proving the assertion made here some months since, that the tide of European prosperity reached its zenith last summer, and that a period of severe liquidation was at hand. This liquidation shows no sign of abatement, but continues both from general and special causes. Higher rates for money compelled an all-round readjustment of speculative operations, and the apparent imminence of the presentation of a demand by the Boer Government for indemnity for the Jamison raid has a direct effect upon Kaffir shares and explains their continued decline, in spite of previous heavy depreciation. While so important a section of the security market is disturbed, no material improvement can be expected in any other direction. As to the influence of Turkish affairs upon business, the only thing that can be said is the injunction of the children: "Wait and you shall see what you shall see." When the British Parliament meets, Lord Salisbury will have to make some explanation of his action during the recess, as M. Honotaux did on the meeting of the French Chamber of Deputies, and as he must then treat the matter much more seriously than he was required to do as a guest of the new Lord Mayor, his utterances will be awaited with interest, if not with anxiety. The Director of the Paris Mint estimates that the gold coin existing in France must amount to at least 4,000,000,000 francs, and the silver coin to 2,500,000,000 francs. The German Government has fixed the contingent of sugar production for the campaign of 1897 at 17,700,000 cwts. The project of a sugar syndicate comprising all producers of sugar in the country is being proceeded with. Statistics show that Hungary has, in thirty years, accomplished marvels of modern work. It has now 4,000 manufactories, as against scarcely any in 1868. Most of its railroad system has been built in that time, and the number of banks has grown from 110, with a capital of 4½ millions of florins to 1,600, with a capital of 250 millions of florins. The State debt has risen from 280 millions of florins to 2,223 millions, but the price at which issues were made rose from 72 to 91. Austria, under anti-Semitic anti-foreign influences, makes relatively little progress. Alarming reports come by way of London of the commercial and financial conditions in Brazil.

THE pressure of traffic on the downtown streets is creating a serious question, not only for the distant, but for the near future. Already Broadway between Wall and Fulton streets and Nassau street for all its length are overcrowded during the whole of the business day. The same may be said of a number of the side streets leading to the North River ferries. If this is the case now, what will it be under the natural and inevitable expansion of business during the next ten years? If to-day rapid progress of both horse and foot is impeded by the density of the crowd of vehicles on the roadway and people on the sidewalk, in this section of the city, there arises a necessity for looking ahead a few years and providing against actual obstructions to business by the want of clear way to move in. Ten years is a comparatively short space of time, yet those who were familiar with lower Broadway as long ago as that and who will take the trouble to make the necessary comparisons, will see how this necessity is daily becoming more acute. Those whose recollections go still farther back will remember that this is an old question, and that the need of doing something to meet the requirements of an increased traffic has been discussed over and over again. The outcome of one of these discussion was the Loew bridge at Fulton street, by which pedestrians could cross that street or pass from one side of Broadway to another over a bridge at that point, but which proved to be more obstructive than useful, and was finally taken away, much to the relief of the people. The public has a rooted, ineradicable antipathy to stairs and as any form of overhead relief, such as a second story sidewalk and kindred suggestions, involve the use of stairs, there is more likelihood of experiments in that line being as objectionable as the Loew bridge, for their whole length as that was for its short length. It was thought, also, at one time, that the business of the city would accommodate itself to its peculiar physical conditions, but this hope has not been realized. There has been a great growth of trade and manufactures in the upper part of the city, but there has also been at the same time an immense increase in the business that has to be done in close proximity to the banks, and, as the banks have become immovably fixed in that part of Manhattan Island where it is narrowest, the cowding of cars and other vehicles on the roadways and of people on the sidewalks becomes greater and greater as time goes on. The increase in the height of business buildings is also an important agent in producing congestion on the streets, and as these are commonest also in the part of the city where space is most limited and are likely to increase in numbers in the next few years, we can see how rapidly this matter of street communication is growing in importance and how pertinent it is to ask our municipal authorities, as what then constituted the municipal authorities once asked the people, "What are you going to do about it?"

RECENT plans for a rapid transit railroad, as well as the discussion that has been had, favor the greatest consideration being given to existing modes and lines of travel. Mr. W. B. Parsons stated when submitting his latest plans, which were outlined by us two weeks ago, that he had considered the existence of the elevated railroads and had deemed that the best results for the city at large and for the people who could construct the rapid transit railroad would be obtained by building the new railways as far removed as possible from the present lines, leaving the latter free to take care of their legitimate traffic, but by improved and extended facilities if necessary. Ex-Mayor Gilroy now comes forward to urge the Rapid Transit Commission to give the Manhattan Elevated Railroad Company the right to construct third tracks on practically all of its lines, supplemented by loops at the Battery and at the northern end, so that continuous trains could be run all around the city. Mr. Gilroy objects to the proposed viaduct road along Lexington avenue above 110th street, because it would destroy a residential neighborhood of the first-class, and suggests as an alternative an underground road, on the line of 5th avenue above 110th street, under Mount Morris Park and across the Harlem River. But that is only by the way. What we would especially call attention to is the consideration that is being shown on all sides for the Manhattan Elevated Railroad Company contrasted with the utter disregard of the Railroad Company to what is due from it in the premises. We have always taken what is so obviously the sensible view, that the cheapest, most efficient and most satisfactory way in which rapid transit could be procured for New York City would be through the extension and expansion of the existing elevated lines. The Railroad Gazette, which is also favorably inclined toward existing means of transit, points out, when commenting upon Mr. Parsons' new plan, that the difficulty in the way of applying the principle of recognition of the old lines is the great uncertainty as to the future action of the Manhattan Company. That company has shown neither good faith nor foresight in the handling of its great monopoly. The people who have enjoyed the benefits of this great privilege have always had a higher regard for the advantages it gave them in the stock market, than of the responsibilities toward the public it placed upon them. It is exasperating to think what the elevated system would have been had it been developed under such enterprise and skill as have made the Metropolitan Traction system what it is to-day. It is highly probable, too, that the system developed on legitimate lines would have been more profitable to the owners of the property than the course pursued. In view of all this, it would be the height of unwisdom to adopt any plan which is partial in its intent and leaves any part of the work of making a perfect rapid transit system to the Manhattan Elevated Company. Nor would it be wise to give that company any further privileges while it makes so indifferent a use of what it already has.

Experts in Condemnation Proceedings.

THE publication last week of the expert valuations of a large part of the property required for the Elm street widening naturally attracted attention to the question of the value of the so-called expert testimony in such cases. There is a general impression that the process of acquiring land for public improvements is a very simple one, that all a Commission of Estimate and Assessment has to do is to take two sets of valuations presented to them, one placing values entirely too high and another placing them entirely too low and strike a just balance between them. Practically that is the case, but the process of arriving at a just balance is a most difficult one. When doctors differ so widely, it need not be pointed out that the laymen who generally compose the Commissions of Estimate and Assessment are not at the outset acquainted with the values they have finally to deal with. It is here that the great expenditure of time is necessary. They have to be educated. They take not only the expert testimony, but go over the ground, examine properties sold corresponding in character to those they have to appraise. This creates an immense amount of work for the Corporation Counsel's office, but in the end, as will be shown later on, the results are very satisfactory to the city at large, though not, it must be stated, bringing out the value of interested expert testimony in a very striking way. In view of the interest cited by this subject a search was made for figures having a bearing upon it. The following tables were all prepared in the office of Mr. C. D. Olendorf, Assistant Corporation Counsel, in charge of proceedings to condemn land for schools and parks. The first table gives the result of recent proceedings to acquire school sites. It is:

The results of the twenty-one proceedings comprised in this table, all of which were closed in a period of about fourteen months, may be summarized thus: The claims made on behalf of the property-owners amounted to $487,891 more than the appraisements made for the city, and $342,996 more than the final awards, while the latter exceeded the city's appraisements by $144,895. It will be noted that in no case did the Commissioners award as much as the property-owners asked or as little as the city placed the damages at; they in no case regarded the city's figures as under-valuations to anything like the degree they did those named for the property-owners as over-valuations. This table, while intended to show the results obtained for the city in the cases given, also illustrates the tendency of expert figures to rise or fall according to the side they are expected to help. It ought to be remarked also that if it is the fact, and it will probably not be gainsaid, that the city pays more for the land it requires for public improvements than a private individual would do, and if this is brought about by the Commissions dealing generously by the property-owners the appraisements made for the city are about as fair valuations as it would be possible to obtain, considering all the difficulties surrounding the work of making them. The second table, which follows, besides containing all the characteristics of the more general one just given, enables also a comparison to be made of the appraisements of the individual appraisers. This table we have had to divide into two parts. The first part contains the appraisements of land, and buildings, where there were any, contained in twenty parcels acquired for the purpose of laying out Fort Washington Park, and the second part the city's appraisals of the same with the awards of the Commission.

Here, again, we have the Commission leaning toward the views of the city's experts in their findings, rather than toward those of the property-owners, although the latter were three to one as regards the land. Their awards were in fact lower than the lowest of any one of the three, and but moderately higher than the one who testified for the city. Judged by themselves the three appraisements made for the property-owners vary enough to suggest entirely different rules and positions from which to make valuations. In parcel No. 2, for instance, there is a difference of over $59,000, or about 15 per cent, between two of the owners' appraisers on the land alone, and in parcels 7 and 9 of about $53,000 or 25 per cent, and in which the Commission made a further cut of about 20 per cent. On parcels 11, 13 and 16 there was one estimate of $257,971, a second of $291,348 and a third of $234,892, with awards of only $126,000, not much more than one-half of the lowest of the three. There is a difference of about 28 per cent between the highest and lowest of the owners' estimates of parcel No. 14 and a still greater disparity between two separate valuations made of parcel No. 16. These disparities in a greater or lesser degree run through all the figures of the owners' experts. In the total results the claimants' highest estimates for all the property, made up by taking the largest valuation in each case, was $1,548,183, and their lowest, made up by the contrary process, $1,301,990. The city's highest was $742,653, and the awards $804,868. Consequently the awards were $743,314 less than the owners' highest valuation, and $497,122 less than their lowest, and only $62,214 more than the city's highest, and $72,955 higher than its lowest. On the whole this result may be accepted as a rejection of the claimants' valuations and an acceptance of the city's. The Commission, for the condemnation of this land, consisted of William W. MacFarland, William B. Ellison and Matthew Chambers. Their report was confirmed without objection, the significance of which fact after what has been previously stated can hardly be exaggerated. A tabulated statement of the appraisals and awards in the matter of Washington Bridge Park has most of the peculiarities of the preceding one. It is:

[1]Exclusive of buildings. On Parcel No. 2, buildings were valued at $18,838; on Parcel No. 18, buildings were valued at $9,922.
[2]Inclusive of buildings. Valued in Parcel No. 2, at $6,000; valued in Parcel No. 18, at $3,000.

Perhaps the most remarkable thing about this table is the fact it discloses, that the owner of parcels 3, 4 and 5, who did not offer any evidence as to value fared as well as any of the others who did, the Commissioners awarding apparently as much in excess of the city's valuation in this as in the other cases. We have here, too, the experts sufficiently far apart in their estimates of value to make it a matter of surprise how, upon such testimony, a Commission could arrive at a decision at all. This is not only the case with the property-owners' experts, but also with the city's. In the case of the Fort Washington Park, there was only one expert testifying to the value of the land; here there are two, and if their estimates do not diverge as much as those of the experts to whom they were opposed, they do so sufficiently to make it appear conclusively that there is no way by which uniformity of valuation can be reached except by agreement among the professional experts engaged. This is particularly noticeable in the changes made in their valuations by Messrs. Fox and King because of the way the property had improved between 1890 and 1893. What value the Commission of Estimate and Assessment, which, in this case, consisted of David McClure, Samuel W. Milbank and Edward H. Martine, set upon the valuations of the property-owners' experts is shown best by their awards being only about one-half of the lowest total of the two who estimated upon all the 23 parcels upon which evidence was offered from this side. Their view of expert testimony in general is further shown by their award in parcels 3, 4 and 5 regarding which no evidence was offered as to value by the owner.

High Class Residences.

EIGHT HOUSES ON WEST 69TH STREET BY A WELL-KNOWN ARCHITECT AND BUILDER.

Our supplement this week is a pictorial representation of eight high-class residences, Nos. 25 to 39 West 69th street, near Central Park West, designed and built by Mr. Henry F. Cook.

It has been the agreeable duty of this journal to refer to Mr. Cook's work on many occasions, always in terms of commendation. The qualities in his work which always appear are originality in design and plan and conscientiousness in execution. A city lot of the conventional size is naturally an obstacle to variety of plan at least, but Mr. Cook's long experience with residential architecture and his natural ability in that line enable him always in one way or another to introduce novelties, and in any block of his houses will be found ways of gratifying differing tastes, while at the same time there is always harmony in his effects.

The fronts of his 69th street houses are of Indiana limestone and pressed brick (except Nos. 31 and 33, which are of Long Meadow stone and brick) and the ornamental columns of the porticos polished granite; the design is best shown by our illustration. Five of the eight, Nos. 25 to 33 inclusive, are high-stoop and three, Nos. 35 to 39, inclusive, American basement houses, with the interior arrangements subordinated to those several plans. Our space does not permit a detailed description of the differences of interior plans and it must suffice to say that each has an individuality of its own. Generally, each contains an open cellar with hot-air furnace; reception halls, kitchen and laundry in the basement in the case of the American basement houses and billiard rooms in the place of reception halls in the high-stoop houses; on the first floor are parlors, foyers, or music rooms or libraries, dining rooms and butlers' pantries; on the second floors, two or more bedrooms and bathrooms; on the third floors, the same; and on the fourth floors, front bedrooms, linen closets, and separately enclosed servants' quarters containing their own bathrooms, etc.

Throughout the trim is made of the finest woods, with the best effects brought out by skilled workmanship and the addition of carved decorations. For the entries and reception rooms and halls quartered oak is mostly used. In the parlors most artistic effects are produced in ivory and gold or white mahogany and gold. Other and equally good results are produced in the dining rooms with dark, rich red mahogany or quartered oak, and throughout the upper rooms, mahogany, maple, birch, sycamore and ash are distributed. The mantels are of special designs, and the fire-places of beautiful marbles and colored tile. The bathrooms are floored and wainscoted in tile, and their furnishings of the latest and most approved patterns; all the plumbing is set exposed. Kitchens and laundries are most efficiently supplied with dressers, ranges, boilers, washtubs, etc. Butlers' pantries are also complete in every detail. Each house, or rather each floor, has an abundance of closet room, every suitable nook and corner having been availed of for making them. The houses are wired for electric light and also for electric gas lighting and piped for gas. The fire-places are prepared for the use of gas logs, and there is the usual supply of annunciators and speaking tubes. Rear stairways run up to the second story.

Mention should also be made of the handsome vestibules and of the cleverly planned halls and stairways in which very attractive effects are produced. Added to all this and considerably more that has not been mentioned are the quality of the materials used and the excellence of the workmanship put upon them. The accommodations vary somewhat in the eight houses according to their dimensions, which are as follows: Fronts from 20 feet to 23 feet; main depth 58 feet, with varying extensions up to about 90 feet; the lots are all 100.5. Nos. 25 to 33, inclusive, are owned by George F. Johnson, Esq., and are for sale; Nos. 37 and 39 are for sale by Mr. H. F. Cook; No. 35 having recently been sold by him to Mr. William Helmrath.

High-Pressure Elevators in Sky-Scrapers.

An accident with one of the elevator cars in the American Tract Society Building, corner Spruce and Nassau streets, whereby a number of people were badly shaken up and two received bodily injuries this week, has publicly brought out the fact that the elevator service in this building is not a success. The trustees of the Society held a meeting on Wednesday and referred the matter to R. H. Robertson, architect; J. R. Downey, builder, and Hugh Porter, counsel, for recommendations as to the changes it is necessary to make. The elevators in question were put in by Otis Brothers Co., and are what is known as high-pressure elevators, which appear to have been used successfully in London, Philadelphia and Chicago, but not in buildings anyway near as tall as the American Tract Society Building.

Sickness No Bar to Liability for Hold Over.

The Supreme Court-Appellate Division has recently held, in the case of Albert Herter v. Jeremiah H. and Thomas Mullen, that where a tenant under a lease for a year holds over after the expiration of his term, the lease, at the option of the landlord, will be held to have renewed for another year, although the tenant may have previously given express notice that he would surrender the property at the end of the first year; and the fact that the tenant's holding over was not voluntary, but practically necessary because of the sickness of a member of his family, constitutes no defense to an action for the rent of the term so renewed.

Builders and The Department of Public Works.

The Department of Public Work is creating considerable indignation in the minds of members of the building fraternity by certain innovations it has made upon established customs and by its manner of making them. The chief of these complaints relates to the increase in the price for vault space from 75 cents to $2 per square foot, made on August 4th last, and reported in our issue of the following Saturday. This was made without notice and builders, especially those whose contracts provided that they should obtain and pay for all necessary permits for the work contemplated, have since continually protested against the action of the department. This change was effected under Chapter 6, Article 10, Section 184 of the Revised Ordinances of 1880, which authorizes the Commissioner of Public Works to charge a rate of not less than 30 cents or more than $2 per square foot for vault space.

Another complaint arises from the way in which Section 194, of the same charter of the ordinances of 1880, has been interpreted to enable the Department to charge for as vault space the area in front of buildings in certain cases. This section states that every description of opening below the surface of the street, in front of any shop, store, house or other building, if covered over, shall be considered and held to be a vault within the meaning of this chapter; and the master builder, or owner, or person for whom the same shall be made or built, shall be liable to the provisions, payments and penalties of this chapter, severally and respectively. A recent ruling of the Department converts a grilling, grating or perforated platform into a cover, instead of a protection as it really is and under it, the space below is charged for as vault space, so that the permit has to include all space below the surface from the building to the curb line and be paid for accordingly. The extra expense this involves is quite considerable, being $250 in the case of a 25-foot building on an avenue and $200 in one on a side street, and, of course, more in the case of a corner house. Under these regulations the whole cost of a vault permit is about $1,000 for a 25-foot avenue house as against $281.25 under the old regulations and for a street house $750 as against $206.25. Recently work was suddenly stopped by an inspector of the Department on Mr. Chas. Buek's building, corner 81st street and Amsterdam avenue, and Mr. Clenahan's building, corner 76th street and Amsterdam avenue, under these regulations. Mr. Buek wrote, protesting to the Commissioners of Public Works. His position, which is that of the building trade generally, may be seen from the following extract from his letter:

"I claim it has been the invariable and consistent rule of the Department for many years, and has been so universally understood and acted upon by the city officials and by architects, builders and owners, that the language of section 194 of the ordinance, which provides that 'every description of opening below the surface of the street, in front of any shop, store, house or other building, if covered, shall be considered and held to be a vault within the meaning of this chapter,' does not apply to areas which are open to the weather, admitting air, rain and snow, so that they cannot therefore be utilized for producing income or adding to the floor space of a building, but are only intended for admitting light and air to cellars, which would otherwise be dark, ill ventilated and detrimental to health. The distinction between such open areas and those covered vaults or areas which the ordinance contemplated, is radical and fundamental, and the rulings of the Department thereon hitherto in force, were reasonable and proper, and doubtless had legal or judicial warrant. I claim further that if your Department thought it desirable to change this well understood and long established construction or ruling, it should in common fairness, and in view of the large interests involved, have given proper notice that such change was contemplated, and have set some reasonable date, from and after which the new rule would be in force, so that all interested might govern themselves accordingly."

To this Gen. Collis replies as follows:

New York, Nov. 14, 1896.

Mr. Charles Buek, No. 264 Columbus avenue.

Dear Sir: Having received your letter of the 12th inst. in effect complaining of the prohibition, received by you through an inspector of this Department, against placing an iron grating over openings below the street level in front of your buildings at the corner of 81st street and Amsterdam avenue, without permits therefor from this Department, I beg to reply thereto that it is the practice of this Department, under my adminisration, to recognize the laws of the State and the ordinances of the city, and to give them full force and effect, in accordance with their plain meaning and intent, and the interests to be protected thereby. The abuses of power and omissions of duty under former administrations are not recognized as precedents justifying any continuance of a misinterpretation or non-enforcement of any law or ordinance, for any time whatsoever. Gratings or perforated platforms are coverings, within the meaning and intent of the ordinance declaring that "every description of opening below the surface of the street, in front of any shop, store, house or other building, if covered over, shall be considered and held to be a vault."

The ordinances provide various penalties respecting interference with "any grate or covering to the opening or aperture of any vault," or as to the removal of "any grate or covering to any vault."

It is also provided that "All grates of vaults shall be made of iron, the bars whereof shall be ¾ of an inch wide, and ½ of an inch thick, and not more than ¾ of an inch apart," under penalty for any violation.

These terms of the ordinances clearly show that grates of vaults place the openings thereunder below the surface of the street as much within the terms of the ordinances requiring payment for such openings, not more than $2.00 per foot for each square foot of ground for such vault, as though such vault were covered in any other manner.

The construction of areas is governed by ordinances which regulate their dimensions, and which require that "every area shall be enclosed with a railing, the gates of which shall be so constructed as to open inwardly," under penalty for every violation thereof. When the spaces thus permitted to be appropriated out of any street for area uses are not so enclosed, all rights in reference thereto as areas are waived and abandoned.

There is thus no straining of the meaning of the terms of these ordinances, but merely the enforcement thereof according to their plan and proper intent, in seeing to it that all such spaces authorized under any permit by me given, are paid for to the city; and that the construction of any such vault without permit first issued and payment received therefor, shall be prevented.

There is, in my judgment, no discretion left to me in the matter of requiring payment for the vault space in front of your buildings, whether covered by grating or in any other manner, under the ordinances of the city above referred to; and the price of $2.00 per square foot for the superficial area of any vault in front of your premises, is a very reasonable and proper one. Very respectfully,

(Signed.) C. H. T. COLLIS,
Commmissioner of Public Works.

Mr. Howard Payson Wilds, Deputy Commissioner of Public Works, when seen, referred to the letter of General Collis as the proper exposition of the position of the Department, and declined to be quoted in any other terms.

As regards areas heretofore made and protected by gratings the question may arise in the minds of some, whether their owners can be compelled to pay for them at the rate of $2 per square foot. As a matter of fact they could not, but proceedings could be instituted for the collection of penalties, $100 in each case, for violations of the ordinances in constructing a vault without a permit. This, however, is a matter that does not come within the duties of the Department of Public Works, and if any such proceeding was instituted, and the court should concur in the definition of a vault as now laid down by the head of the Department, the party proceeded against would plead the policy and practice of the Department at the time the area was made, and which may be considered to amount to municipal sanction of the work.

So far as our inquiry enables us to understand the matter it is that the Department will insist upon everything back of the curb-line being paid for as vault space when covered in any manner whatever in new buildings, and in old ones where changes are made in present vaults and areas.

City Ordinances.

The Board of Aldermen took up on Thursday last, the consideration of the report of the Committee on Law Department containing certain suggestions for the correction of various ordinances, in the language of the report as follows:

First—We submit herewith a proposed ordinance, reducing to the sum of $100 the penalties for violating various ordinances, 13 in number, the present penalties under which are $250 in every case, except one, where it is $1,000. We deem the present penalties unlawful because section 85 of the Consolidation Act provides that the Board shall have the power to enforce obedience to its ordinances by ordaining penalties for violation thereof "not exceeding $100." In our opinion, these penalties ought to be reduced in every case to at most the sum of $100.

Second—We submit herewith a further ordinance amending various sections, as follows:

1. To amend section 33 of article IV., chapter 6 of the Revised Ordinances of 1880, as amended in 1884. That ordinance originally covered incumbrances in the streets generally, but, by an amendment of April 26, 1884, the words "the sidewalks of" were inserted so as to limit the scope of the ordinance to the sidewalks only. It manifestly should cover the whole of the roadway and sidewalks; and we propose an amendment to restore the substance of the original ordinance. Furthermore, the ordinance now reads on its face that the permit for an encumbrance shall come from the Registrar of Permits. That officer was done away with when the Bureau of Licenses was established in 1886; but the Consolidation Act (section 324) plainly puts this jurisdiction in the hands of the Commissioner of Public Works, and we make our proposed ordinance to conform therewith.

2. In the same ordinance we propose a change in regard to two ordinances about signs. At present there is an ordinance which was passed March 30, 1886, which provides that signs shall not project more than one foot from the house wall, except swinging signs, which may project four feet. There is, however, another ordinance, which was passed Sept. 9, 1889, and which is in form an amendment to section 53 of article IV., chapter 6, which allows signs, signboards and showboards, whether swinging or not, to project three feet. The two ordinances are inconsistent as to both kinds of signs. We have condensed them into one, as an amendment to the ordinance of 1886, and propose the repeal of said section 53, thus limiting the stationary signs and boards to one foot and the swinging signs to three feet.

3. In the same ordinance we propose an amendment to section 52 of article IV., chapter 6, in regard to exhibiting goods, so as to incorporate into it a provision now in a separate ordinance of March 30, 1886, limiting the hanging of goods in front of stores to five feet in height.

The necessary ordinances were passed excepting the one relating to signs, which was held over.

Thursday furnished the star attraction of the week at the Broadway Salesroom, in the lot sale of the Susan B. Ward estate in partition, conducted by D. P. Ingraham & Co. Crowded as it had seldom been before on any occasion the room at the beginning of the sale presented an appearance that gave positive assurance of the successful result that followed. Up to 6 o'clock, p. m., when an adjournment was had until next Monday, 143 lots were disposed of for a total of $348,825, and it is not too much to say that had it been possible to complete the sale on Thursday, not a lot would have failed to secure a buyer. There were other desirable properties offered on the same day by other auctioneers, and each attracted its full share of attention. A withdrawal was announced by John T. Boyd of No. 84 East Broadway, No. 73 Division street and No. 95 Canal street, advertised under a decree of partition. There were three adjournments, one of No. 3097 3d avenue, to December 10, by Richard V. Harnett & Co., one of the northeast corner of Washington avenue and 176th street, to December 21, by William Kennelly, and another of No. 318 East 109th street, until December 22, by Bryan L. Kennelly.

On Tuesday, at both the Real Estate Exchange and Broadway Salesroom executors' sales of single properties took place. In the latter room an uptown parcel of small value, offered at public auction by order of heirs, was also sold. The following were withdrawn: Twelve lots on 136th and 137th streets, between Trinity and St. Ann's avenues, by William Kennelly, on a bid of $2,000 each; No. 226 East 114th street, by Bryan L. Kennelly, and by the same auctioneer, Nos. 202, 204 and 208 East 114th street, the offering of which had been announced by order of an executor who after the intermediate house, No. 206, had been bought in at $7,600, decided to withdraw the others.

The rival auction rooms on Wednesday presented inducements that were successful in dividing the attendance of possible buyers to the detriment of the business of each. In the Broadway Salesroom in addition to the legal offerings a number of parcels were submitted for bidding by Bryan L. Kennelly for the account of heirs of estates and others. Three of them secured buyers and four were bought in as follows: No. 222 Varick street, running through to Downing street, at $14,700; No. 249 West 11th street, at $17,750; No. 16 Commerce street, at $8,300, and the northwest corner of 4th and Bank streets, 72.8x41x70.5x43.5, at $24,500. A vacant plot on Macomb's Dam road, near St. James or 190th street, was withdrawn from foreclosure sale by D. P. Ingraham & Co. A similar sale of a plot on Duncomb avenue, southwest of Elliott avenue, was adjourned to December 9, by Philip A. Smyth, and that of another on West 254th street or River avenue, was postponed by William Kennelly, until March 1st next. The properties listed at the Real Estate Exchange were all offered by Richard V. Harnett & Co. Three of the parcels, owned by the Roosevelt estate, were put up by order of executor, and each brought a satisfactory price. One on Canal street was sold to an outsider and two on 6th avenue and Hudson street, respectively, were disposed of to members of the Roosevelt family, who own adjoining property. Under the direction of the executors of the S. V. R. Cooper estate, No. 318 West 51st street, was offered and withdrawn on a bid of $13,900, and Nos. 139 and 141 West 67th street were withdrawn in consequence of no bids being obtained. No. 2305 1st avenue, corner of 118th street, and the adjoining parcel, No. 349 East 118th street, met with a similar fate, those present failing to respond to the solicitations of the auctioneer.

D. Phoenix Ingraham will continue, on Monday next, the 23d inst., in the Broadway Salesroom, the sale of Fort Washington Heights' lots, begun so successfully on Thursday last, and reported above. Monday's sale will include the lots on Boulevard Lafayette, and on adjoining and parallel private street. Particular attention is called to the fact that those on the east side of Boulevard Lafayette will be sold in plots of from 7 to 9 lots. Terms of sale and other points of interest relating to this property will be found in the auctioneer's announcement on another page. Maps can be had at his office, Room B, No. 111 Broadway.

William Kennelly will conduct the auction sale of property belonging to the estate of George Chesterman, deceased, which is to be sold, by order of the executors, in the Real Estate Salesroom, No. 111 Broadway, on Tuesday next, the 24th inst. Among the parcels to be offered is a good deal of strictly investment property, which is sure to be in demand. The occasion will be a notable one because of the number and value of the offering to be disposed of. Their more exact location can be seen in our business pages, or in the catalogue issued by the auctioneer from his office at No. 111 Broadway, meantime it may be pointed out that they include desirably located parcels on 3d, 6th, Park and Bathgate avenues, West 10th, East 9th, West 9th, West 14th, West 15th, East 124th and Stuyvesant streets.

Peter F. Meyer will, as previously announced, sell at auction, on Tuesday next, the 24th inst., in the Real Estate Salesroom, No. 111 Broadway, a large amount of apartment-house and other property, on Park and Bradhurst avenues, East 10th, West 66th, West 103d, East 114th, West 116th, West 124th, East 133d and West 133d streets, of which more detailed information will be found in our business pages. For book-maps and full particulars, application should be made to the auctioneer, at No. 111 Broadway, or to Charles Henry Butler, attorney, 1402 or 111 Broadway.

Richard V. Harnett & Co. announce for Tuesday next, the 24th inst., the auction sale of No. 34 Sutton place; No. 157 East 75th street, this city; and No. 20 Underhill avenue, Brooklyn. Also for Wednesday, December 2d, next, the seat of the late Dr. Charles R. Gill, at West Park-on-Hudson, which is to be sold by order of the executors. This consists of about 100 acres of land and large house, barns, stables, cottages, etc., located on the west bank of the Hudson River, opposite Hyde Park, and enjoying all the charms for which this country is famous, as well as the traveling facilities afforded by the railroads operating on either side of the river. All these properties will be sold in the Real Estate Exchange, No. 59 Liberty street. Particulars can be found in our business pages, or at the offices of the auctioneer, Nos. 71 and 73 Liberty street.

Bryan L. Kennelly will on Wednesday next, the 25th inst., sell at auction the following parcels by order of the executors of various estates: No. 70 Perry street, No. 459 West 22d street, No. 422 West 26th street, four lots on 144th and 145th streets, five lots, corner Western Boulevard and 143d street; No. 154 Perry street; and, to close the estate of James McGuire, deceased, No. 236 West 54th street; also No. 30 East 126th street. On the Wednesday following, the 2d prox., he will offer eight lots and dwelling on Academy street, northeast corner Cooper street. For details our readers are referred to our business pages, and to the auctioneer, whose office is at No. 66 Liberty street. The place of sale on both days is the Broadway Salesroom, No. 111 Broadway.

James L. Wells again calls attention to the sale by auction of 198 city lots, located in the 23d and 24th Wards, east of Southern Boulevard, near 172d street, on Jennings, Bryant and Longfellow streets. The advantages of these lots, their accessibility, etc., will be found set out in the auctioneer's announcement elsewhere in this issue, and maps can be had at his office, No. 59 Liberty street. The sale will take place in the Real Estate Salesroom, No. 111 Broadway, on Monday, the 30th inst., and it is stated that it will be absolutely unreserved.

TRAVERS ESTATE SALE.

Geo. R. Read announces what promises to be the banner lot sale of the season in the auction market. This will take place on Thursday, December 3d, next, at the Real Estate Exchange, No. 59 Liberty street, by order of the executors of the Travers estate which is thus to be distributed. The property consists of 455 lots, located in the 24th Ward, and fronting upon Webster, Norwood, Hull and Perry avenues, Woodlawn road, 205th, 206th and 207th streets. Fifty-two of these lots adjoin the northerly end of Bronx Park, the site of the Botanical Garden, upon which a very large amount of money, part granted by the city, is being expended, to make it a popular resort, as well as the scene of scientific investigation. It is intended to make this garden to New York what the famous "Zoo" is to London, or the Jardin des Plantes to Paris. The sale will open up a new and very desirable territory to investors and operators, and it is an occasion that is likely to be fully appreciated. Book-maps have been prepared and may be obtained at the offices of the auctioneer, No. 9 Pine street, and No. 1 Madison avenue, or of Mrs. Agnes K. Murphy-Mulligan, No. 777 Tremont avenue.

Wanted.—A first-class renter, to take charge of the renting of a large building; state large buildings handled. Apply by letter to X., No. 59 Liberty street.

Gossip of the Week.

SOUTH OF 59TH STREET.

Lord & Taylor sold yesterday the five-story building, 85.9x100, Nos. 461 to 467 Broadway, northwest corner of Grand street. The buyer is said to be connected with the Boston drygoods firm of Minot, Hooper & Co., with a branch office in this city. The price mentioned is $515,000, or thereabouts. The sale was made without the intervention of a broker. In March we referred to a current rumor that a sale was pending of the same property at $550,000. Shortly afterward we learned that it did not take the form of a contract owing to the prospective buyer declining to purchase at that figure. His offer was, however, much higher than the price at which the sale has just been closed. The land was bought in 1809 for $1,600, and at a much later period the present building was erected by Lord & Taylor. About thirty years ago, during their occupancy, it was still looked upon as the model retail store of the metropolis. As it can hardly be expected to yield a satisfactory income on the purchase price, the buyer will doubtless replace the old building within a short time with a structure better adapted to the present land value.

William Cruikshank's Sons conjointly with Horace S. Ely & Co., have sold for S. F. Barry, the old four-story brick store and dwelling, with lot 25.3x100, No. 7 Great Jones street, to Elias and S. Kempner.

Frederick Billings has bought from the Sixth Avenue Railroad Company, for $166,000, the plot 50x200.10, on the north side of 43d street and south side of 44th street, 290 feet east of 6th avenue, adjoining the new Bar Association Building, and will erect a twelve-story bachelor's apartment house, details of which will be found in another column.

Seton & Wissmann have sold for Mrs. Amelia W. Chapin at about $100,000, the two four-story stone front dwellings with plot, 54x98.9, Nos. 44 and 46 West 25th street.

Daniel Birdsall & Co., representing the Weld estate, and Lalor & Beringer, representing Jere. C. Lyons, are the brokers who negotiated the sale of No. 596 Broadway, referred to last week. The entire transaction involved between $500,000 and $600,000, as a building loan was obtained to cover a new twelve-story fire-proof building. The correct dimensions of the plot are 55x200, and our previous mention of its sale is said to have been premature, as the terms were not agreed to until a few days ago.

The mystery enveloping the big downtown sale, referred to last week, was solved a few days ago, and, after a lot of probing, it was shown to be a trade that probably involves only a small cash payment. Richard M. Montgomery & Co. are the brokers through whom the exchange was negotiated. The most valuable property involved is Nos. 41 and 43 Wall street, a nine-story and basement stone front office building, 30.6x124.11x40.1x116.9, bought in April last for $805,000, with the abutting parcel, Nos. 45 and 47 Exchange place, a four-story and basement similar structure, 50x99.8x50x96.6, acquired in the spring of 1891, for a consideration of $250,000. The interior of the latter building was subsequently remodeled at a large cost, and last year it was connected with, and virtually became part of, the Wall street property. William K. Aston is the owner and present seller, and Christopher R. Robert is the buyer. The price agreed upon is $1,826,000, of which $1,065,000 is represented by a mortgage. Mr. Aston's apparent equity in the property is, therefore, $761,000, and as consideration he will receive from Mr. Robert some cash, the old Coffee Exchange or Tabor building, a five-story office structure, 20.6x54.11x42x50.2, at the junction of Beaver and Pearl streets, mortgaged for $85,000; the four-story stone front dwelling with lot about 25.4x105.10, No. 63 Riverside Drive, north of 78th street; a vacant plot, 172x100, on the Drive, 225 feet north of 116th street, and a handsome country seat at Oakdale, L. I., containing over 850 acres, and accepted at a valuation of $500,000.

Charles MacRae has sold for Mr. Aston to William V. Brokaw, the three-story brick private stable, 25x100.5, No. 48 East 51st street, at about $45,000.

Marcellus Hartley has sold through Diamond & Co., the four-story stone front dwelling, with lot 25x107.6, No. 17 West 30th street, at a price close to $85,000.

Joseph Kirby, of Kirby & Co., has bought of Mrs. Jane E. Kowald, the plot, 35.7x98.9x22.8x99.7, with old buildings, Nos.

141 and 143 West 24th street, 275 feet east of 7th avenue, and purposes improving same by the erection of a seven-story store and loft building.

Mandelbaum & Lewine have purchased from the Butler estate the three-story brick dwelling, 24.9x50x86.6, No. 216 West 15th street.

Edward P. Smith, who acquired the ownership last month of the four-story stone front dwelling, with lot, 16.8x83.4, No. 424 Park avenue, between 55th and 56th streets, has sold same to F. C. Linde for $23,500, and will take in trade the two three-story brick flats, Nos. 235 and 237 9th street, Brooklyn.

Judge David McAdam has bought of Mrs. Margaret Graham the four-story stone front dwelling, with lot, 25x98.9, No. 354 West 33d street, for $25,500.

Hiram Rinaldo & Bro. have sold for a Mrs. Buckbee to Abraham Stern the old three-story front and rear brick tenements with lot, 25x100, No. 37 Chrystie street.

Samuel Epstein is reported to have sold for $36,500, the old three-story brick dwellings with plot, 50x100, Nos. 54 and 56 Henry street.

We are told that a report of a resale, published a few days ago, of No. 300 Broadway, by Jefferson M. Levy, is not founded on fact notwithstanding that a well-known brokerage firm was credited with having negotiated it. The only basis for the statement is said to be a probability that Mr. Levy for reasons of his own, will shortly reconvey the property to a party who will become the owner in name only.

NORTH OF 59TH STREET.

The most interesting rumor afloat yesterday was one to the effect that President Grover Cleveland had bought of Mrs. Mary L. Parsons at a price close to $200,000, the large and handsome four-story stone front dwelling with plot, 77.2x197.7, on the southeast corner of Riverside Drive and 90th street, and would occupy it on the expiration of his term of office in March next. A two-story stone front stable, fronting on the street, occupies the rear end of the plot. The house was formerly the residence of Cyrus Clark and was sold by him a few years ago to the late Mr. Parsons. The hour at which the news reached us was too late a one to enable us to have the report confirmed.

Phillipo Cirrito has bought of John Monks for immediate improvement by the erection of flats, a plot, 50x100.11, on the north side of 114th street, 245 feet west of 5th avenue.

Builder T. J. McLaughlin has bought of the estate of the late William H. De Forest, the plot, 99.11x100, on the southeast corner of Convent avenue and 145th street, and will erect six private houses.

J. Rudolphy has sold to Edward and Henry Hirsh the plot, 49.11x100, on the northwest corner of 8th avenue and 141st street. In reporting this sale recently, the daily papers described the property as the northwest corner of the same avenue and 144th street, on which are two five-story tenements.

Hall J. How & Co. have sold for James A. Mahony, to a Mr. Powers, at $9,000 each, two lots on the south side of 114th street, 125 feet west of 7th avenue, and for John J. Mahony to Builder John Shields, for improvement, the plot, 75x100.11, adjoining the above on the west, for $26,250. The first mentioned lots were bought for $6,225 each, about four years ago, and the other three lots with two adjoining were purchased at the same time for $28,250.

The same brokers have sold for a customer one lot on the north side of 112th street, and two on the south side of 113th street, 100 feet west of the Boulevard.

Max Goldstein has sold for John Gerber, of Weehawken, the two five-story double tenements with plot, 50x100.11, Nos. 538 and 540 East 117th street, at $40,000, to John Heist, who will give in exchange at $54,000, the two five-story double flats, plot 50x99.11, Nos. 181 and 183 West 134th street.

A. Littery, late Littery & Stearns, has sold for James Walsh the five-story brick tenement with stores, with lot 25.6x100, No. 2098 8th avenue, between 113th and 114th streets, to Eva Simon.

A. E. Thomson has sold for F. Gilbert the five-story stone front flat, 22x87x99.11, No. 30 West 134th street.

T. S. Clarkson & Co. have sold for a Mr. Reynolds at about $15,000, the three-story dwelling 17x56x80, No. 1018 Lexington avenue, between 72d and 73d streets.

Jesse C. Bennett has sold for Harry Simon to Robert Hartmann the three-story stone front dwelling, 17x52x100.11, No. 254 West 113th street.

Richmond & Dyer have sold for Hugo D. Rosendorf the three-story brick dwelling, with lot, 16.8x100.11, No. 308 West 113th street, to A. Mills, for about $15,000.

Bernard Smyth & Sons have sold for Jacob Lawson a lot, 25x100.11, on the south side of 98th street, 100 feet west of West End avenue, and for heirs of the Aaron Jacobs estate, a plot 125x100.11, adjoining same on the west and extending to a point about 100 feet east of Riverside Drive. William H. Picken is the buyer.

Builder William Picken has sold to a Mr. Silberman, No. 65 West 119th street, 17x52x100.11, one of a new row of three-story dwellings. He has also an 18-foot house in the same row to a Mr. Walters.

Frederick Zittel has sold for Builder John C. Umberfield to S. Rosenfeld the four-story stone front dwelling, 22x61 and extension x 100.8, No. 29 West 86th street. This is the fourth house disposed of in a new row of nine.

William H. Hall, Jr., is the purchaser of the plot, 100x100.11, on the south side of 117th street, 175 feet east of 7th avenue, reported sold last week through Mr. Zittel.

McHugh & Hesse have negotiated a trade between Builder Albert V. Donnellan and Mrs. Elizabeth A. Williams, by the terms of which the former will exchange the three-story brick dwelling, with lot about 17.6x65, No. 1 Hamilton terrace, for a plot 50x99.11, on the south side of 144th street, 275 feet west of 7th avenue. The latter will probably be improved in the near future.

Fabian Sachs has bought of Alfred J. O'Keefe, the five-story flat, with lot 26x107, No. 374 Columbus avenue, between 77th and 78th streets facing Manhattan square.

J. S. Edmondson has sold for Mrs. George E. Foster, of Pittsburg, Pa., the three-story stone front dwelling, with lot 19x102.2, No. 157 West 79th street, which was acquired by the seller through a trade consummated in August.

LEASES.

Boehm & Coon have leased the store floor of their new building on the northeast corner of Broadway and Howard street to the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Co. for ten years at about $10,000 per annum. The company is the lessee until February 1 next of the old Brandreth building on Broadway, Canal and Lispenard streets.

Gerard on Titles.

We have received from Messrs. Baker, Voorhis & Co., the well-known law publishing firm, of 66 Nassau street, New York City, a copy of the fourth edition of "Gerard's Titles to Real Estate." It is not necessary to speak of the value of this book to the legal profession or of its immense interest and value to all who make real estate a serious study. This book has long been recognized as the standard publication. This new edition has been edited by Mr. Edgar Logan, who, with Mr. Edward B. Hill, it will be remembered, performed a like service for the third edition. Mr. Logan's annotations are very abundant and complete and bring the work with all the numerous changes and modifications down to date. This is a book which should be part of the equipment of all large real estate offices. It can be read with pleasure and consulted with a profit by all who deal in real estate.

The Brooklyn Records.

The following is a copy of a resolution adopted by the Commissioners of Records at their meeting, held September 25, 1896.

"Resolved, That the Clerk of the Commissioners be instructed to notify the Register, County Clerk and Surrogate of the County of Kings, to prohibit the taking of papers, books, maps, and other records on file in their respective offices, for any purpose whatever, except upon an order in writing, signed by one of the Justices of the Supreme Court, or one of the County Judges of Kings County; it being detrimental to the convenient use of said records in said offices, by the general public, or remove the same from said offices unless absolutely necessary; and that a copy of this resolution be served upon the Register, County Clerk and Surrogate."

Trade Notes.

THAT ENTERPRISING PERSON.

O. D. Person, who, until recently, was a dealer in clay products exclusively, has made an extensive addition to his already large business by entering the field as a dealer in general builders' supplies. For that purpose he has secured extensive yard property at 137th street and Harlem River, with a water frontage of 200 feet, and wharfage facilities of the best character, and where contractors and builders can secure everything in the building material line. Mr. Person has the exclusive agency for the sale of the outputs of thirteen of the largest clay product factories in this country, and lays claim to the fact that he is the most extensive dealer in clay products in the United States. He will shortly open a branch yard in Brooklyn for the convenience of his large trade in that city. Mr. Person, with an active business experience of twenty years, and financial standing of the first quality, has the commendable ambition of becoming the largest dealer in building materials in the United States. The main offices will still continue at 160 5th avenue.

IMPORTANT ELEVATOR CONTRACTS.

The contract for elevators in the Park row building, now under course of construction, of which R. H. Robertson is the architect, has been awarded to the Sprague electric elevator company. This gives this company the distinction of furnishing the elevator plant in the highest office building in the world, it being 30 stories in height. The plant will contain ten passenger elevators, to run twenty-eight stories, two passenger elevators in tower, two sidewalk freight elevators for safes and two dumb-waiters. The Sprague Electric Elevator Company point with a great deal of pride to the fact that within a few months they secured the contracts for installing their electric elevators in the Siegel-Cooper Building, the largest store under one roof in the world, where 23 of their machines are in operation, and the Schermerhorn (Astor) Hotel, the largest and most costly hotel in the world, where 17 of their electric elevators are in use. Add to the three foregoing buildings the Manhattan Hotel and the Commercial Cable Building, and we have an aggregate for the five of 78 machines furnished by this company, and in which no less than seven different types and sizes of electric elevators have been used. The average rise for the ten machines in the Park row building is over three hundred feet. They also closed the contract for six warehouse elevators, which work entirely under automatic electric control, for the warehouses of Walter W. Beebe, at No. 206 South street.

DUMB-WAITERS AND REFRIGERATORS.

Mr. A. Larsen, the well-known manufacturer of dumb-waiters and refrigerators, has, by years of careful and conscientious work, earned a deservedly high reputation among architects and builders and owners, for turning out goods of a high grade and lasting qualities. Contracts recently completed embrace two apartment houses on West End avenue and 79th street; two at 91st street and West End avenue; Park Commissioner McMillan's flat, at Boulevard and 91st street; Walker & Lawson's, Boulevard, southeast corner of Boulevard and 84th street; D. C. McKinley's flats, on West 106th street, and apartment houses, corner of Madison avenue and 31st street, and Boulevard and 88th street. Mr. Larsen's commodious and well-equipped factory is located corner of Brook avenue and 134th street.

Concerning Real Estate Agents and Brokers.

Fowler & Nathan have a well-equipped office at No 2175 5th avenue, corner of 133d street, for the transaction of a general real estate business. They make a specialty of managing estates and negotiating loans, and are experienced and painstaking. Their telephone call is 809 Harlem. Mr. George E. Fowler and Louis Nathan comprise the firm.

Broker Jacob Katz, of Katz & Co., 102 East Broadway, has been appointed, by the Supreme Court, Commissioner of Estimate and Assessment, in the matter of opening Tudor place, in the 23d Ward. Mr. Katz is well posted on the value of realty, and he is an energetic worker.

Broker Julius Friend, who makes a specialty of the sale and rental of business property, has taken additional offices and increased his force of workers to keep abreast of the times and serve his numerous clients promptly and satisfactorily. Mr. Friend is a successful negotiator and indefatigable worker. His offices are at No. 695 Broadway, corner 4th street. Telephone, 601 Spring.

The firm of Littery & Stearns has been dissolved, Mr. Stearns retiring. Mr. Littery continues at the old stand, No. 2096 8th avenue, between 113th and 114th streets, and our "Gossip" shows evidence of his energy and success.

Personal.

Warrington G. Lawrence, for many years in the office of the late R. M. Hunt, has opened an office in the Constable Building, No. 111 5th avenue, where he will continue to practice architecture.

Broker Jacob A. King, of No. 699 Broadway, will shortly take a partner for life. Mr. King will marry Miss F. Salz, of No. 129 West 131st street.

George A. Just, of the firm of Lewinson & Just, iron contractors, is in Europe on a pleasure trip. He expects to return in time for the Christmas holidays.

Removals.

Ferndon & Ellicott, architects, have removed to No. 1335 Broadway.

Questions and Answers.

ASSESSMENT.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

I have a corner property in the vicinity of Lewis and Stanton streets, and have been assessed for paving done on Stanton street, from Cannon to Tompkins street, confirmed January 26, 1894. Am I compelled to pay for the improvements made by the city, and to what extent; also is there any appeal as regards exorbitant assessments? By enlightening me as to the above you will greatly oblige.

Answer.—Generally speaking you must pay for the improvement to the extent of the assessment; if, however, you can show fraud, or irregularity you have a remedy, if proceedings are taken in due time.—Law Editor.

LINE POLE.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

I am interested to know from you by your paper about a line pole. It is about eighty feet high. The pole is sunk about five feet from line of fence. The top of the pole hangs about four to five feet over the yard line. I would like to know if I be compelled to remove it? Please answer in your next edition.

Answer.--You can be compelled to remove it.--Law Editor.

CONVEYANCES.

Wherever the letters Q. C., C. a. G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee, they mean as follows:

1st—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i e., a deed wherein all the right, title and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants or warranty.

2d—C. a. G. means a deed containing Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed can be impeached, charged or encumbered.

3d—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein, although the seller makes no express covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it.

The street and avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the Insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the Deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to there having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given and the amount. The general dates used as headings are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date. Whenever the rate is not given, read as 6 per cent.

Mortgages against 23d and 24th Ward properties will be found all together at the foot of this list.

[1]Editor Record and Guide:

The lien filed by Salvatore Spallone against John Connors as owner and me as contractor, is unjust. I claim that I have paid said Spallone in full. Said Connors has carried out the terms of his contract with me and I make no claim on him.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as headings are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Wherever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for further particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date. Whenever the rate is not given, read as 6 per cent.

JUDGMENTS.

In these lists of judgments the names alphabetically arranged, and which are first on each line, are those of the judgment debtor. The letter (D) means judgment for deficiency. (*) means not summoned. (†) signifies that the first name is fictitious, real name being unknown. Judgments entered during the week, and satisfied before publication do not appear in this column, but in a list of Satisfied Judgments.

BUILDING MATERIAL MARKET

NEW YORK.

BRICK.—There has continued a quiet market for Hudson River, and on the ordinary grades there has been a slight weakening in price. Supplies in receivers' hands have continued fairly large, the daily supply averaging about 35 barges. Manufacturers have been fairly free shippers; in fact, they have been forwarding supplies to this market as fast as they can obtain boats, as it is figured that they have moderately large stock on hand, as the shipments to this market from March 1 up to Nov. 18, from the Hudson River, Hackensack and Staten Island, have been about 70,000,000 less than a year ago, and indications are that the make was full equal to last year's. The range of prices for ordinary Hudson River brick has been from $4.00 to $4.25, and the better grades have brought from $4.37½ to $4.75; specials have been unchanged at $5. Pale brick has been in fair supply, but they have had a moderate call and prices have been unchanged and steady at $1.50@2.00. Jersey brick has not had much of a call, but offerings have been small and the range of prices has been from $3.75 to $4.25, according to quality.

CEMENT.—No developments of an interesting nature have been apparent in the market. The amount of business transacted has been only moderate; still, the demand has been sufficient to absorb the offerings and prices have been unchanged and steady at 75@80c. for Rosendale. The demand for Portland cement has been fairly active, having shown if anything something of an increase and values have been well held.

LATH.—There has been a tame and uninteresting market. The stock on hand has not been large and the supply on the way to this market has been limited not exceeding 3,000,000. Demand, however, has been slow as buyers have been indifferent and the bulk of the business transacted has been at $1.50, although sales have been made at $1.55, and up to $1.60 has been paid for carload lots. The close was dull with the supply on hand about 2,000,000.

LIME.—Only a very moderate number of orders have been received for Eastern lime, and although arrivals have not been large, demand has not been sufficient to fully absorb offerings and there has been some accumulation of supplies in receivers' hands. No changes have occurred in quoted values, common holding at 70c., and finishing at 80c., but there has been less stability to the tone of the market. A moderate business has been transacted in State Jointa at steady prices, but for common the market has continued largely nominal, owing to the small offerings as there have been practically no shipments to this market.

LUMBER.—The general market has continued to show a fairly good tone. As a rule, however, the amount of business transacted has shown no material improvement, but as sellers have not been disposed to look for a revival of demand until the opening of the spring trade, no disappointment has been expressed and there has been a general holding for ruling prices, as merchants anticipate a higher range of values later in the season, and consequently, show no disposition to hurry business at ruling values. A better trade has been reported at the yards as a resumption of work on buildings which was stopped by the inability of builders to obtain loans during the depression prior to the election has resulted in an increased call for supplies.

The market for Eastern spruce in particular has shown a decided improvement in tone, and there has been a further advance in prices of $1 per thousand, making the total rise since election $1.50 per thousand. The demand has been on the increase and large dealers have negotiated for supplies, showing a disposition to stock up before the closing of the season. The offerings, however, have continued moderate as shipments to this market have been small despite the advance in prices. Included in the transactions was a sale of 1,000,000 feet at prices ranging from $13 for narrow, up to $16.00 for a 10 x 12-in. cargo. The season for special cargoes has about closed. Mills have been reluctant about taking orders, and prices have advanced from $15 to $17, according to the cargo. A fair amount of business has been transacted in State spruce at steady values. Demand for West Virginia spruce has shown no particular improvement. A moderate amount of business has been transacted in carload lots at steady prices.

There have been no new developments in the market for white pine. No business of importance has been transacted, although in a small way demand has shown a slight improvement. Sellers have shown no disposition to hurry business, as they anticipate a much improved market with the opening of the spring trade, and prices have been held fairly firm for both the coarse and better grades.

The market for yellow and North Carolina pine has shown a fairly firm tone. There have been some negotiations under way, but as yet nothing of importance has resulted as buyers and sellers have been apart in their views. The former have been willing to pay old prices, but in a large way sellers have held for an advance of 50c. per thousand, as all indications favor a better market later in the season.

No changes have been apparent in the general situation of the market for hemlock. No extensive trades have been reported, but buyers have been giving slightly more attention to the market, and the tone has ruled firm with the offerings limited. No increase has been apparent in the movement of cypress, but there has been no attempt to hurry business as sellers have been inclined to expect a better market later in the season, and prices have been steadily maintained.

While there has been a slight improvement in the demand for hardwood, no material increase in trade can be reported. Sellers, however, are sanguine over the future prospects and a fairly healthy tone has appeared to dominate the market. There has been a slightly better call for house trim, oak receiving the bulk of the demand. Chestnut, however, has continued to meet with some trade, and mahogany has had a limited sale. A small business has been transacted in poplar and a few orders have been received for cherry.

As to the lumber manufacture in the Ottawa district, says the "Citizen," practically the season's cut in the district this year is about the same as last, although the quantity made in the

AS the time for the assembling of Congress grows nearer the stock market becomes more disturbed. The professional operator is no believer in the sustaining power of the Federal Legislature wherever the prices of securities are concerned and acts accordingly. Under the fear that we may somehow be dragged into a position that may create diplomatic embarrassment, if not actual hostility, between Spain and ourselves, which would bring about a collapse in prices, stocks have been steadily sold both for investment and speculative accounts and there is no reliable sign that this movement is at an end. Should such references, as the President may make in his message, to the struggle that is going on in Cuba be reassuring they will probably produce a rally, but Congress itself is not likely to let such a rally be very long-lived. There are sure to be Cuban resolutions in plenty in both Houses, and there is no telling whether they can be moulded into harmless forms. Whatever may be the political or sentimental intent of these resolutions it will be upon them that the stock market will be "worked" for some time to come, and prices will move up or down according to the mischievousness or innocuousness of the one that happens to be in front for the time being. Meantime we expect to see general business improve. A good holiday trade will put heart into our merchants and retailers, and with the situation undoubtedly better than it has been for many a long day, the prospect for the spring when Congress has ended and the season for universal activity has come is a cheerful one.

THERE being no reason for dwelling upon the condition of business in Europe, nothing having occurred to change the aspect presented by it a week ago, and it always being an interesting subject, it may be worth while to give some recent figures relating to South African mines, especially as they help to explain the fall in the quotations for the shares issued on those mines. In the first place the output for October was 199,889 ounces, or less than in any one of the three preceding months, though larger than any other month for a year. This falling off in the output seems to have been due to an inadequate supply of water. What, however, affects the value of the shares most is the gradual decrease in the yield per ton. In September, the latest month for which full details were at hand, 3,113 stamps dealt with 362,934 tons of ore, producing 103,945 ounces of gold, or an average of 7½ dwts. per ton, whereas, in the corresponding month of last year, when 2,580 stamps were in operation, 296,365 tons produced 131,517 ounces of gold, or an average of nearly 9 dwts. per ton. This decline in results is due to the more extended treatment of the low grade ores with the introduction of more economical methods and appliances for treating them. It is too soon to say whether the treatment of these ores can be carried on profitably, and meantime the holders of shares in the mines that produce them are anxious, and some of them realizing. But so much bad news has been published while the process of liquidation has been going on and the statements of the responsible managers of the mining companies, intended ostensibly to meet these reports, have been made in such general and vague terms, that it is quite evident that insiders are not averse to seeing prices go down. Westralian gold fields present another picture—the first opening up of a great gold industry. The country is able to supply but few of its own wants, nor has it docks, roads or railways capable of handling business. Meantime people are flocking into the province at the rate of 1,000 to 1,500 a week, and vessels remain on the coast from forty to fifty days before they are able to discharge their cargoes. The colonial government is doing all it can to meet the emergency by building railroads, improving the harbors, providing water supply, etc. A conservative view of the gold fields themselves, coming from a responsible and reliable source, is that there can be no doubt whatever of their extent or richness, and that they are capable of supplying work for a large population for many years to come. These facts invite capital, which will assuredly respond for some time to come. While the colony will be built up and the gold production of the world materially increased by it, it is only later that it can be seen to what extent the work will remunerate the capital.

WE have received several suggestions for the relief of the downtown streets, which deserve consideration. One of these, if adopted, could be put into operation at once, and its effect be immediately realized. It is that pedlers, with or without hand carts, should not be allowed to crowd together as they do now in Park row, Fulton, Vesey and other streets. It is a fact that the sidewalks in these thoroughfares are often impassable because of the crowds that stand to gaze at or examine the pedler's ware. Traffic on the roadways is also impeded by the large numbers of hand carts that line either side of the street. It is impossible for a cart or wagon to back up to deliver goods wherever this state of things exists, without throwing the whole vehicular movement into confusion. If we must have hawkers on the street the regulations ought to provide that a certain interval of clear way shall always be maintained between any two hand carts, and that no two pedlers shall stand on the curb within, say, six or ten feet of each other. Such regulations would relieve the trouble from which we are now suffering considerably. A second suggestion is not of such easy applicability, though it deserves consideration. It is that the city shall take back all the space to the building line on the streets where the crowding is greatest. In narrow streets such a course would afford very appreciable relief. Take Nassau street, for instance. There is five feet on each side of the street now occupied by iron stoops or railed areas and which might be made free and clear for traffic. with an immense increase in the comfort of the people who use that street. Part of this suggestion is that where the area space is not needed for sidewalks it could by a little change in the paving be added to the roadway, or part might be given to the roadway and part to the footway. The advantages of such an arrangement are obvious, but the way to carry it out is not quite so apparent. The property owners would naturally oppose the taking away of this valuable space, as such an act would deprive them of valuable privileges and also compel them to make expensive structural changes in their buildings, especially in the way of entrances, most of which open on to stoops above the areas. Long usage has given them a prescriptive right to the use of the area space of which they could not be deprived without compensation. It would be necessary for the city to institute condemnation proceedings, as for any other improvement, and to pay damages. What would be most regretable would be the time that would be lost in ascertaining what the damages should be. The value of land below the City Hall precludes the thought of the ordinary operation of street widening at present,and this fact, taken in connection with the absolute necessity for providing for an increased traffic in that section, is likely to make the suggestion we have outlined the best that can be offered for the time being.

IT IS wholly the fault of the builders themselves that they are made to suffer from rigorous laws and ordinances, or from arbitrary execution of laws and ordinances that otherwise would not be rigorous. In the first place they never know anything about legal enactments affecting their interests until they are face to face with their worst consequences. Too many builders, like too many members of other trades, have gone on in the belief, encouraged, no doubt, by corrupt administrations, that it was easier to escape the effects of a bad law by paying tribute than to prevent its passage, a work that involves thought, organization and the expenditure of time, trouble and sometimes money. The weakness of this position is that when bribery is no longer possible its only defence disappears. To-day builders are harassed in their work by loosely drawn and severely interpreted city ordinances because they have never taken the trouble to study them as a first step towards seeing that they are not unjust toward themselves. Probably not half a dozen men in the trade know that in a large number of instances the penalties provided for the enforcement of ordinances were illegal until a resolution was passed by the Board of Aldermen two weeks ago repealing them and substituting the penalties permissible under the Consolidation Act. Though these unauthorized penalties, wherever enforced, could, it is reasonable to assume, be recovered back from the city, we do not hear of any one making a move in that direction. We may point out, though we do it more as a matter of duty than in the expectation that it will result in practical good, that the time is opportune for obtaining amendments to the city ordinances. The Committee on Law Department, of the Board of Aldermen, has now under consideration the matter of the revision of the city ordinances, as we have several times pointed out in our news columns. These ordinances contain the provisions for payment for vault spaces, the definition of a vault, regulations for the use of the streets and protection of the public in building operations and many other things directly affecting the building trades, about which we have heard a great deal of complaint from time to time. The Committee would, no doubt, give attention to any representative body of builders who wished to be heard in relation to amendments they think ought to be made, but whatever is done ought to be done at once, or it will be too late to do anything, except, of course, to grumble later on, when the consequences of present neglect are brought home by summonses, fines, etc.

Vault Spaces and Charges.

IN raising the rates for vault space and in requiring areas protected by gratings to be paid for as vaults, we think the Department of Public Works has committed one of those excesses to which the best of administrations is liable. The Department is, we are sure, imbued only with a proper desire to obtain for the public at large what is due to it and to make its work as telling as possible, but this desire is being pushed with an unhealthy excess of zeal, and, as a consequence, the rights of individuals are overlooked in the matters just mentioned. In the first place it is reasonable to suppose that in empowering the head of the Department to charge a minimum of 30 cents per square foot and a maximum of $2 per square foot for vault space, the framers of the municipal ordinances had no idea that either would be made a general rule, but that something between the two would be the customary charge. It may be too, and this is more reasonable still, that the purpose of this latitude was to avoid the necessity for a hard and fast rule for all cases and to give the Commissioner power to make a charge according to the value of the particular privilege asked for. A vault is of more value in one place than in another and the builder of one class of building can afford to pay more for one than can the builder of another. For instance, the vaults of a large down-town business building, which make excellent storage room for many classes of goods, are more directly remunerative to the owner than are those connected with an apartment house, which can be used for little else than the storage of coal. However, as the ordinance reads, whatever may have been the intention of its framers, the Commissioner of Public Works has authority for ordering that the charge shall be the maximum one in every case, though there is quite a savor of arbitrariness about the act. This is heightened by the fact that according to its terms a permit is revocable for violation of any of the conditions under which it is granted, or when the vault space is required for a public improvement. The Department charges a property-owner not a nominal, but a very substantial, price for a privilege that it may recall the next day. In practice the recall is not likely to be made, but the fact that it can be ought to have some bearing upon the cost of the privilege.

Still more unreasonable is the ruling of the Department on the space that shall be paid for. It amounts to making one man pay for a privilege that another has without payment. From time immemorial an owner of a house has been allowed a certain space in front of it in which to move. This is called the area, and it has been a condition of this concession in New York City that this space shall be railed in and entered by a gate opening inwards. The inevitable changes that come to buildings in the course of time has made it more desirable, from the owners' point of view and for the safety and convenience of the public, in very many instances, that these areas should be protected by gratings or perforated platforms. This innovation has been sanctioned by other administrations and is sanctioned in other cities as no violation of the original privilege. The present administration of the Department of Public Works of this city has, however, recently decided that these protections bring the space beneath within the category of vaults under the wording of the Revised Ordinances of 1880. In doing so it avails itself of certain regulations regarding grates or coverings to openings or apertures of vaults, which we claim has reference only to gratings of quite limited size protecting small openings in the vaults proper, and cannot be stretched to cover the protection which it is now found necessary to give to areas in a multitude of cases. As was pointed out by Mr. Buek, in the portion of his letter to the Department quoted in our last issue, this modification confers no pecuniary benefit on the owner, but is intended to admit light and air to cellars which would otherwise be dark, ill-ventilated and dangerous to the health of the occupants of the building. Beyond all this, it is clearly unfair to make one man pay several hundred dollars for the use of a space which is granted gratis to another, simply because the method of protecting it differs in the two instances, especially as this does not in any way change the pecuniary value of the concession. It creates a partiality which we do not believe any court would sustain if the case were put to it. To be consistent, the Department ought to insist that the area space be charged for in all cases, or not to exact payment in any case.

The complaint that these very important and radical changes in the rulings of the Department, affecting great interests and placing what amounts to a heavy tax upon certain classes of new buildings, were made without any notice is one that should receive attention. The fact is admitted by the Department itself; its justice is quite indefensible. It is something no legislative body ever does, and, therefore, quite improper for an administrative department like the Department of Public Works. It may be claimed for the Department that its policy was dictated by a desire to obtain income for the city. We judge from Gen. Collis' letter that he thinks the city had previously been improperly deprived of this income, but that is a point on which there are more than one opinion; some of these opinions are held by men of unquestionable character, and they are opposed to his own. Whichever may be right, in a matter affecting the calculations upon which present operations of an enormous industry are based, it would have been only the barest justice to have given reasonable notice of the intended change. Gen. Collis and the officials under him have in the past two years done admirable work, to some of which we took occasion to refer recently in terms of unstinted commendation, but in the matters to which we have referred above we are compelled to seriously differ with him and them. In these we think the Department has taken a position of arbitrariness and partiality and has, as a consequence, lessened the credit which would otherwise be unqualifiedly due to it. We believe however, that the Department is still amenable to reason on these two points, but if it, unfortunately, should not be, the parties who are injured thereby can have recourse to the courts for immediate relief and for permament relief, as we have pointed out elsewhere, to the Board of Aldermen.

The House Hunter.—No. I.

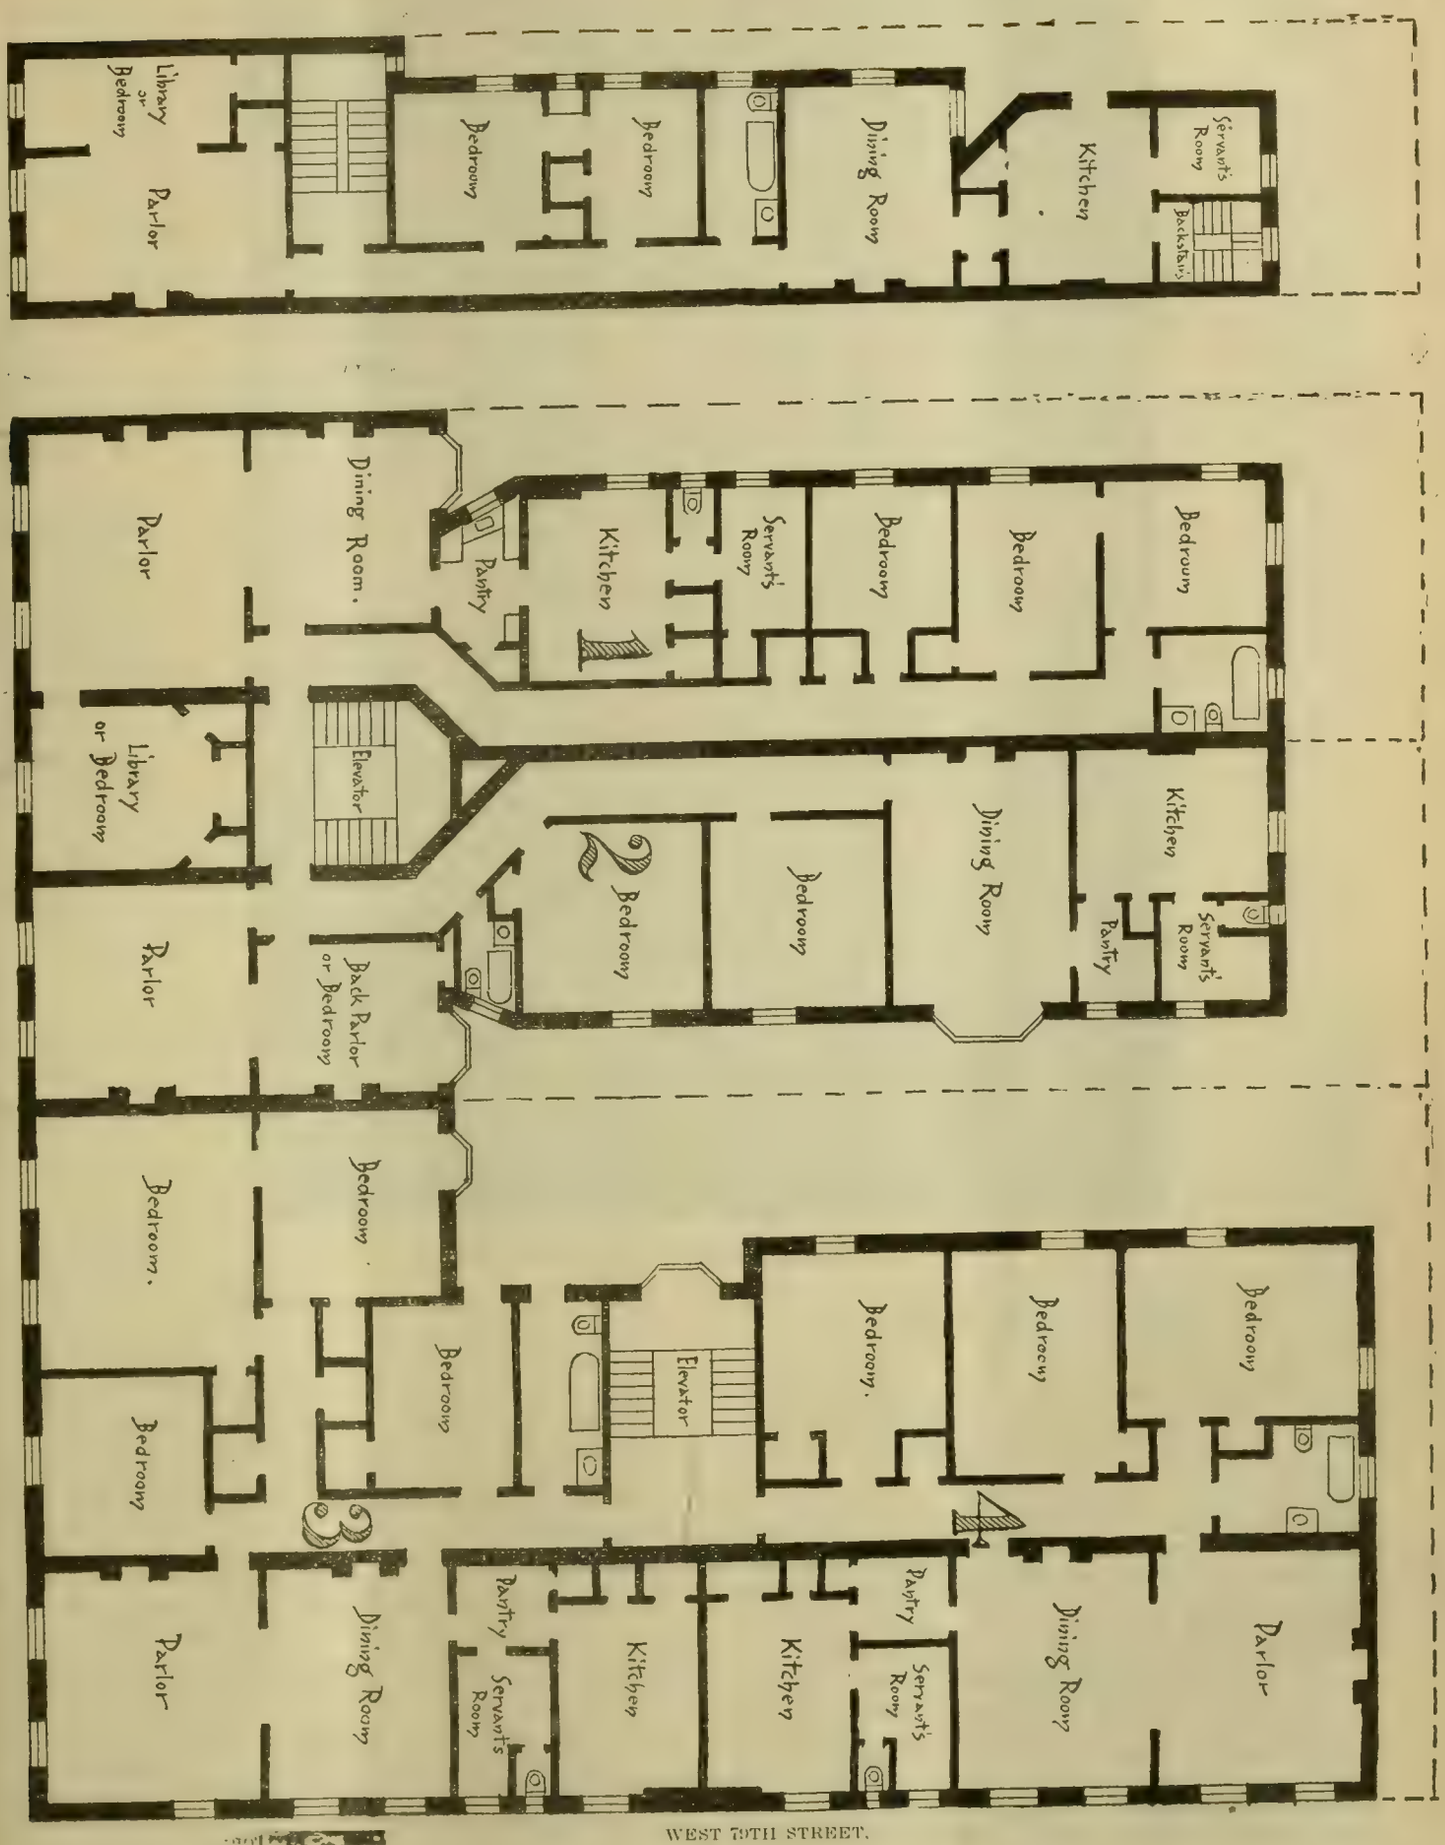
(With Illustration.)

WE purpose publishing, under this heading, at intervals—regularly every week, while occasion warrants, or at longer intervals when necessary, notes and criticisms of recently finished or almost finished houses, together with some mention of flats, and perhaps even of office buildings, as the daytime homes of many men.

We shall note especially all novelties of construction, arrangement or decoration; and shall aim at giving the reader a complete view of all that is going on in the building of habitations from an occupant's point of view.

As we shall frequently have occasion to note the variations from an established type, it may be well to mention at the outset what these types are in this city.

On the west side of West End avenue, and occupying half the block frontage from 79th street south toward 78th street, is an apartment house, finished, all but the finishing touches, decorations and chandeliers, that is well worthy of note by those who prefer their slice of space, in which they must live in this crowded city, to be placed flat, rather than on edge.



Except for this advantage there is no especial inducement to choose a flat rather than a house, as these flats cost as much rent as a good house, yet they are cheaper in proportion to space covered than many less pretentious.

For they are unusually spacious these flats, only four apartments on each floor of a building a hundred feet square, which gives an equivalent of 25 by 100 feet to each flat, courtyard space off, of course. The building is really two buildings, each 50 feet front, each with its own stairs and elevator, which serves two apartments at each landing.

The inside building is divided in the usual way, into two parts, each twenty-five feet frontage, as shown in Fig. 1, the general plan of a floor of the whole building.

This plan also shows the arrangement of the corner building, which is quite different, each flat in this covering a space 50 by 50 feet.

Alongside of this plan is one of a typical New York flat of a good class. Twenty-five feet of frontage, with a depth of ninety feet and covering as much of the lot as the building law will permit. Such a flat contains usually six or seven rooms, besides a bathroom, of which two or three are family bedrooms, in size reckoned generous if they exceed 10 feet square. Compare this with flat No. 2 of the group that we are discussing. In general arrangement it is the same. In the front, the parlor, next to it, toward the rear, a room that may be either a second parlor or a bedroom; or, with the aid of a folding bedstead, both parlor and bedroom.

In the rear a dining-room, with kitchen, servant's room and pantry, clustered beyond it. Between front and rear a tunnel-like passage with two bedrooms and a bathroom opening from it, in all seven rooms besides bathroom and pantry. But here the greater width permits far more spacious rooms, such as will suit the householder who objects to flats because the rooms are such cubby-holes. There are many interesting features, too, that go far toward gaining the good-will of tenants.

Notice the deep window seat of the second parlor in the quaint octagon bay-window with its leaded casements. A like nook in the ample dining-room, only wider and central, and of more importance in the room generally.

Then the hall, although it is a tunnel, is at least a foot wider than such halls usually are, much to the advantage of its looks, and convenient for carrying in furniture.

Except the parlor, which is painted white, in order that it may light up well for festivities, all the woodwork is oak, stained to what is called antique color, dark and rich; while all the floors are stained and oiled, so that no carpets at all are needed, nothing but rugs anywhere. Indeed, in the parlor and dining-room of each flat we find still better floors—parquet floors, with elaborate parquetry borders, smoothed and polished.

The kitchen is provided with a large gas range only—no coal burning range to be seen—a judicious provision in our opinion, notwithstanding the greater cost of gas, even when used with care. There ought to be, however, a hood over the range to intercept the cloud of frying-pan and grid-iron incense that is wont to ascend thence, and conduct it to the exhaust register. Register there is in the wall above the range but of little use without a hood.

Then there is a porcelain sink, and porcelain tubs, and two dressers which every housekeeper will like.

We cannot help commending the skilful planning which places the plumbing conveniences that are intended for the servant's especial benefit, adjacent to her room and opening from it, as well as upon the outside light, where both air and light are obtainable.

The pantry has a built-in refrigerator, which was formerly universal, then relinquished on account of the difficulty of cleansing, and now it would seem again used for its manifest convenience. The very serious objection to these is that it has seemed impossible to keep them free from water-beetles or roaches. In passing we may be pardoned for recommending, even though it be a free ad., to those who have suffered from these creatures as we used formerly to suffer, the use of a compound called, with bitter sarcasm, roach-food, made by somebody with a Norwegian name, Petersen or Ibsen, or something ending in sen. It is in our experience absolutely efficacious.

We regret that there are not more closets, yet if there were more we should probably regret that also. To scoop a large piece out of a fair, spacious oblong room, to reduce an ample bedroom, as flats go, to a cramped one, is a serious price to pay for a closet. And after all there is but one closetless bedroom in each suite.

If we walk through the other flats on the same floor we find precisely the same conveniences and arrangements of details, but a very great modification of general plan. The dining-room and kitchen, together with the pantry and servant's room, of the suite marked No. 2, are grouped together next to the parlor. This throws the family bedrooms all to the rear, giving them far better light and air as well as greater privacy. We much prefer this arrangement to that of No. 1, indeed we have often wondered why the most airy and cheerful corner of a flat was assigned to the servant's room.

The remaining 50-foot half is divided, as we have said, crosswise, instead of fore-and-aft, in double-decker phrase. This disposes the rooms of each flat in a square space, nearly or quite 50 feet, on a side, as the diagram shows. We like the bold way in which the designer has thrown his kitchens to the front; the parlors on the corners, and the bedrooms on the inside are just as they should be. Outside the building is a handsome but restrained piece of Renaissance design, and the entrance halls wainscoted ceiling-high with marble and with big marble fireplaces are very attractive.

Municipal Improvements—The Docks.

A number of articles that have appeared in different newspapers during the past month or so ought to prepare the public mind for an application to the next Legislature for a very large appropriation for the improvement of New York City's dock system; if these articles do not so prepare the mind of the public they will have failed in their obvious intention. It is not necessary to state to readers of this paper that it has always advocated very vigorous treatment of New York City's antiquated dock system for the purpose of bringing it up to latter-day requirements as the commercial gateway of the country, or that it has not yet changed its views and policy. Of all the improvements that the city has now in hand, the reform of the dock system is the one that, guided by conservatism and good judgment, is most likely to make an immediate and direct return upon the investment. We take it, for instance, that if all the plans for making new and larger piers now approved could be executed to-morrow there would be no difficulty in finding tenants for them at rentals that would pay a good income upon the necessary outlay. This being the case, it requires no great commercial instinct to see that it is good business to push them to completion as rapidly as money can be found for doing the work.

But latterly there have come from the Department of Docks signs of an ambition that would push the city into expenditures which, if not imprudent, have not been studied sufficiently to make it sure that they would prove as satisfactory in results as it is evident that the slowly matured and carefully considered policy of the Department of Docks now already adopted would be. The attention of the public is being directed to the growth of the grain business in Galveston, New Orleans, Baltimore, Newport News, Philadelphia and Boston, and it is led to infer that with better facilities for handling this trade it would come to New York instead of going to those cities. It is also stated that one of the means of turning that grain business this way would be the improvement of the waterway between the lakes and the Hudson River, so that vessels of deep draught could pass from one to the other. In this way a plan for improving the water fronts of New York City grows into a plan of tremendous proportions in which there may be as much harm as good to this city. It is well to examine these suggestions in detail and with great deliberation before making too sure that they are exactly what are wanted. Analysis may show very different results than appear on the outside; this is generally the result of analyses whether of mental or chemical products, but the value of the services performed by them in bringing out the full facts is inestimable.

Now, as regards the grain business, we are told that for want of appliances by which a carload of grain can be taken to the ship's side and there loaded directly into its hold, the cost of corn, for example, f. o. b., in New York, is 3¼ cents more than at New Orleans, and greater in varying amounts than at the other ports that have made a specialty of this business, and that consequently the corn prefers those ports for embarkation to New York. On its face that is a very reasonable conclusion. Still the question arises, if New York provides the facilities for handling this business would it get a greater proportion of it than it now does. The growth of the grain business of the Gulf ports of Galveston and New Orleans has come about from easily appreciable and perfectly natural causes. Under the ever present demands of exports to reach the sea by the cheaper if not always quicker routes, thousands of miles of railroads have been built to develop different agricultural sections, and to put their produce on board ship as cheaply and as quickly, cost being always a consideration, as possible. As a consequence of this, much business that at one time had to go through Chicago and New York is now dispersed in different directions. The large difference in cost of water carriage as compared with that of land carriage makes it more profitable to send grain grown on the Pacific slope around the Horn to Liverpool to shipping it across the continent. Consequently with railroads to carry it to the sea the Pacific Coast ports do all that business. In the same way Galveston and New Orleans serve the Southwest and South. So that as far as these sections are concerned there has been a permanent partition of the business which nothing that New York can do will change. With Baltimore, Philadelphia and Boston it is somewhat different. These obtain a large part of their grain business because of the conditions that control the railroad business between St. Louis and Chicago and the East. The New York lines, which dominate, take the best business and leave a pretty open field to their rivals terminating in other cities, in the inferior of which grain happens to form the largest part. This arrangement has been found necessary to maintain harmonious relations among the railroads, and from their point of view works very well. Whether it works as well from the standpoint of New York's commerce is another question, though it is hard to conceive that commerce would be benefited in the long run by disorganization of rates and quarreling among the railroad managers, with consequent loss of dividends and interest to stock and bond security holders. It is necessary also to consider the fact, that the railroads and the cities that had built up a grain business have had to invest a large amount of capital in doing it and that those cities and railroads will, of course, make a vigorous struggle to protect their investments whatever New York may do. If New York enters upon active competition for this business, the calculations will have to be based upon less than the present returns.

As to the deepening and widening of the waterway between this city and the lakes, this suggestion is based on the known fact that grain and many other things, not perishable, will always prefer water transit because of its cheapness, and to a large extent is sound. It may, however, be carried farther than this city would like to see it carried. It is a string that has two ends. At one of these ends is New York City that would wish to see an improvement limited to directing freight her way, but to be handled by her; and at the other the lake ports that want to have freight pass from the Atlantic to them in bulk. Whether the latter wish is possible of gratification cannot be stated here, as it involves several engineering problems that, so far, no one is competent to solve. It would mean a ship canal between the Hudson River and Lake Erie, which some authorities have declared to be impracticable. However, the probable cost and difficulty of the work are so great that New York City can regard this phase of the discussion with equanimity. While treating this question, a point that should not be lost sight of is the enormous amount of this city's foreign trade and its constant growth. To-day New York City's share of this trade is nothing less than the very pick of it, besides being by far the largest proportion of the total. It is for this that the great Atlantic liners are built, while the vessels they supersede are sent to the ports that are said to be taking New York City's business away from it. The competitive ports get little or no freight from Europe, the import trade is almost wholly controlled here. This being the fact, the question arises whether the wiser policy for this city will not be to hold and encourage that trade rather than seek for other business which can only be obtained by competition or conflict, the outcome of which is by no means sure.

If it should be the general view that it would be best for New York City to facilitate the trade it already has, expression to that view can best be given by continuing the policy of dock improvement already adopted. What has been suggested in order to carry out this policy can be seen by our summaries of the reports of the Board of Consulting Engineers appointed to examine and report upon plans for the improvement of the water fronts, in our issues of Feb. 29 and Oct. 10 last, and from the plans in our issues of Oct. 7, 1893, and Dec. 1, 1894.

New Flat Approaching Completion.

On the south side of 81st street, close to Lexington avenue, Agent and Broker Arthur Gorsch is finishing an attractive flat which was designed by Architect W. Ormiston Tait, who has made the most of exceptional advantages of location and surroundings. It is five stories high, the lower story being of Indiana limestone and the upper ones of light brick, the materials harmonizing nicely, and the front allows a fine easterly view, because the houses on the rest of the block are set back from the building line. The side and rear views, too, are excellent. The private houses not being of great depth make every room light and cheerful, thus emphasizing the careful and practical plans selected by the owner. The house is arranged for five families, each suite containing eight rooms and bath. Steam heat, open plumbing, hot water and every accessory of a first-class house is provided, and all the work bears evidence of honest, careful construction. An idea of the desirability of the flat can be gained when it is stated that every apartment was spoken for long before completion.

Personal.

Mr. Samuel McMillan has been elected President of the Park Board in the place of Mr. S. V. R. Cruger, resigned.

Architect Alonzo T. Harmer, formerly of Harmer & Hardenbrook, Jamaica, L. I., has opened a handsome suite of offices on the first floor of the "Palace" Building, No. 1151 Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., where he will be pleased to meet his many friends and clients.

Mr. Thom, of the firm of Thom & Wilson, No. 111 5th avenue, has returned from Europe after a pleasant trip of four months' duration through the principal cities of that continent.

What is a "Fire-proof" Buiding ?

An architect was describing to the Trustees of a bank what would be necessary to make a new building they contemplated erecting, thoroughly fire-proof. The requirements may be guessed from the remark of one of the trustees, half satirical and half remonstrative; "But, Mr. —— we shall want to keep a little kindling in the basement." As a matter of fact the kindling in the basement, as well as all wood, would be objectionable from the point of view which would reject anything in a building that was in any way combustible. This would apply to window sashes and frames, and, indeed, to the windows themselves, because glass easily cracks and breaks and admits flames from a nearby burning building. An absolutely fireproof building, that is a building which would withstand any excess of heat, and whose contents would be equally unapproachable by fire would be useless for any but very few purposes—a storage warehouse or a prison say. The best specimen of a fire-proof building in this city is a storage warehouse which has no windows, only iron shutters, and whose floors are divided off into small apartments by fire-proof brick partitions. But an office building must have windows, because light is a very important element to its success and a mercantile building must not only have light but large show rooms also, so that the fire-proof partitions are not possible to the same extent in its case.

Now, the problem before the architect is to provide for the uses to which a building is to be put, and remove from them every possible danger from fire. He knows from the beginning that there is nothing that will not undergo change of form through contact with heat, though the resistance to change is different in the various cases. Brick is one of the very best protectives against fire, and fire proof buildings are made in Europe by vaulting, but this is only possible in comparatively low buildings. The requirements of a greater thickness of brick wall in proportion to the height of the buildings made it necessary that some other material should be found to carry the floors before our high buildings could be thought of. But the fire-resisting qualities of brick, or the clay of which it is made, is shown not only by the degree of heat to which it is subjected to in making, but also by its use in great furnaces where the intense heat is generated to melt metal. The use of brick being for the reason stated impracticable, the architect selected iron for his structure, but as iron would be likely to warp and bend and lose its power of support under the heat that could be created in a burning building he had to look around for a protective, and he found it in the kitchen stove. The principle that protects the inner sides of the cooking range from the burning coal with which they are always in contact is the same as that which is applied to the iron in buildings. Neither a kitchen range or a building could be constructed wholly of fire-bricks, nor for practical purposes wholly of iron, but either may be made of iron and made practical in use by the protection of the fire-brick.

This principle of construction and protection has been proved to be sound not only in the small degree furnished by the kitchen range, but in the greater degree furnished by the burning building. One of the most striking examples of this fact is the fire that occurred a year or so ago in the Western Union Building. This fire broke out in the battery room and was carried to the operating room on the next floor. In the battery room were 35,000 cups, each containing an inch of sperm oil, always in use, and handled by boys, who had in the course of time spilled a great deal of oil on the floor, so that it was thoroughly soaked, as were also the white pine racks in which the cups were kept. Finer kindling could not be imagined than a room so prepared. From the battery-room a wire ran up through the floor to each of the many operating tables in the room above, so that there were some hundreds of flues to convey the fire from the room below to that above. The ceiling of the upper room was covered by a net work of wires insulated by a rubber covering. A better combustion chamber could not be devised. As may be imagined the fire that raged in these rooms was a very fierce one. The beams in the floor between the two rooms were protected on the top by a layer of concrete, the feet of the beams were not protected at all, but only a few of these beams were deflected and none showed signs of important weakness, while an unprotected iron gallery and stairway were twisted all out of shape. Fires have occurred in modern fire-proof buildings, but have burnt themselves without doing any more than destroying the furniture and trim and bringing down the plaster; leaving exposed but unhurt the fire proof brick. All the material in an ordinary office, cannot create enough heat to break through the fire-proof partitions or the ceilings.

Having proved his materials the architect sets to work to place them so that they will give the most effective service in the several parts they have to play. When the skeleton or frame which is to carry all the weights is up, or going up, every portion, except the interior columns in some cases, are covered up with porous terra cotta bricks. The spaces between the beams are filled in with the same materials, the bricks at either end are so shaped that they enclose the flanges of the beams, or if these happen to be too wide to permit this, the space between the two bricks receives a thick coating of cement. Above the bricks and between the beams is a coating of cement, and above that one of cinders sometimes brought up to the level of the beams so that when the floors are laid there is a solid thickness from the outer line of the plater of the ceiling below to the top of the flooring above. But there is some objection to this practice occasioned by fear of dry-rot in the timber of the flooring, and to meet this a space sufficient to receive the floor beams is left within the iron beams broken at intervals by metal plates which would act as permanently closed fire-doors should occasion arise. After filling in the spaces between the beams with fire-proofing, the next step is to enclose the supports. When the outer supports are built into masonry the best practice requires that this masonry shall be 8 inches thick on all sides, though the building law demands only that interior columns supporting walls shall be enclosed in masonry 4 inches thick. For interior columns there should be a covering of porous terra cotta 2 inches thiuk laid in courses in cement mortar and plastered on the outside. This should be begun in the basement story and carried all the way up. In dividing up the floors partitions are built of terra cotta blocks 4x6x12 inches laid the 4 inch way and plastered on both sides. The roof, when flat, is made in the same way as the floor, except that the level is brought up with concrete covered with ashpalt, and five thicknesses of tarred felt held down by a course of bricks let into Portland cement. Where there is a steep slope in the roof, the terra cotta bricks are carried in a metal frame and covered with clay or metal tiles or sheet metal. In the flat roof, of course, more precautions have to be taken against the percolation of moisture than in the slanting one.

So far it will be seen that nothing inflammable has gone into the building except the wooden floors. It is at this point that the building departs from the strictly fire-proof conditions, and it depends upon how far that departure extends that the building acquires perviousness to fire. Window sashes and frames, doors and their frames, wainscotting and mouldings will all ignite readily on contact with flame or heat of sufficient degree. As before stated an office does not contain sufficient combustible material to penetrate the protecting shell of terra cotta which boxes it entirely. But when to the trim and furniture are added large quantities of inflammable goods the danger is very much increased; consequently architects are excluding wood as much as possible from storage warehouses, manufactories and lofts and substituting metal and stone, so that in these classes of buildings the use of wood is being reduced to window sashes and doors and door-frames. Some go so far as to exclude wooden floors, using concrete instead, though there is objection to the concrete floor on the ground that it cracks and breaks under the influence of changing temperature and the variations from dryness to moisture. A wooden floor set upon concrete requires a very fierce and continuous heat upon its upper surface to destroy it. As an additional precaution in good construction, where wooden floors are used especially, it is the practice to carry the terra cotta partitions down to the concrete, thus effectively separating the flooring of each room and preventing the spread of a conflagration from one room to another. Metal coverings for wood-work are coming into greater use and will increase further when it is shown that the wood beneath does not deteriorate because of its exclusion from the air.

The cornices, too, ought to be, and are in some instances, protected by fire-proofing, because fires are communicated by them very often. In good construction the practice of backing them with wood is being abandoned, and the ends are securely protected against fire from adjoining roofs. There are other minor details which are all carefully looked to to remove every conceivable danger of injury to the building or its contents by fire. For instance, every hole in the floor made by a pipe is carefully closed up with fire-proof materials. From these statements it will be seen that there are what may be practically called fire-proof buildings; that is to say in which the danger from fires is made as remote as possible.

Building News.

MERCANTILE.

Hudson street, northeast corner North Moore street, a six-story buff brick and limestone warehouse, 32.6x88.6; to cost about $40,000; Joseph H. Bearns, No. 10 Hubert street, owner; Julius Kastner, No. 744 Broadway, architect. Condition, plans in progress.

FLATS AND TENEMENTS.

Lenox avenue, southeast corner 117th street; a six-story brick and stone apartment house, 100x100; to cost $200,000; Francis J. Schnugg, No. 78 East 96th street, owner; Thomas Graham, No. 1236 Madison avenue, architect.

One Hundred and Sixty-third street, north side, 125 feet east of Amsterdam avenue; two five-story brick flats, each 25x100; to cost $22,000 each; John Freidel, No. 516 West 159th street, owner and builder; John C. Burne, 101 West 42d street, architect; condition, plans in progress.

Henry street, Nos. 54 and 56, two six-story brick stores and tenements, each 25x86.2, total cost, $40,000; Kidansky & Fine, No. 309 Henry street, owners and builders; Horenburger & Straub, No. 122 Bowery, architects.

Chrystie street, No. 37, six-story tenement, lot 25x100; Jos. Polstein, No. 198 East Broadway, and Wm. Feinberg, No. 217 East 69th street, owners and builders.

One Hundred and Fifty-first street, between Melrose and Courtlandt avenues; four four-story brick flats, to cost $15,000 each; John and M. Haffen, on premises, owners; A. F. A. Schmitt, No. 604 Courtlandt avenue, architect.

ALTERATIONS.

Second avenue, southwest corner 73d street; the six-story brick cigar factory, 100x50, recently damaged by fire will be repaired at once; cost, about $10,000; Bernard Newmark & Co., on premises, owners.

Twenty-second street, No. 452 West; alteration of a four-story brick dwelling to flats, cost about $15,000; Mrs. Helen Stein, owner; Theodore G. Stein, No. 2 West 14th street, architect; condition, plans in progress.

Eighty-second street, No. 174 East; alterations to a four-story and basement flat; Mr. Miller, owner; Kurtzer & Rohl, No. 1 7th street, architects.

One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street, No. 120 East; alterations to a one-story brick saloon; cost about $1,000; Schaeffer Brewing Co., owners; Julius Katner, No. 744 Broadway, architect.

CHURCH PARISH HOUSE AND PARSONAGE.

Kingsbridge avenue, Marble Hill; a local stone and frame church and parsonage; to cost about $22,000; Methodist Church Extension Society, No. 150 5th avenue, owners; Dr. North, secretary; Alexander M. Welch, No. 503 5th avenue, architect; condition, plans in progress. Work will not be started before next spring.

One Hundred and Seventh street, north side, 370 feet west of Amsterdam avenue: a four-story brick and stone parish house, 25x70; to cost about $15,000; Roman Catholic Church of the Ascension, owners; Rev. Father Nicholas M. Reinhardt, No. 258 West 107th street, pastor; Schickel & Ditmar, No. 111 5th avenue, architects. Work will not be started before next spring.

MUNICIPAL.

John Slattery, No. 370 Park avenue, was the lowest bidder for constructing a roadway on 153d street and Macomb's Dam road.

Joseph Benedetta, No. 119 Sullivan street, has been awarded the contract for the parapet wall to be erected on Riverside Drive, from 86th to 87th street.

Sealed proposals for erecting and finishing a pier for the Manhattan State Hospital, at Ward's Island, will be received by Henry E. Howland president of the Board of Managers, No. 1 Madison avenue, until 3.30 p. m., Dec. 3. Plans may be seen at the office of I. G. Perry, architect, Albany, N. Y., and at the office of the Board of Managers.

Sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Education, No. 146 Grand street, until 4 p. m., Dec. 7, for improving premises of and new lots adjoining Grammar School No. 25; also for alterations, repairs and erection of new iron and stone stairs at Grammar Schools Nos. 97 and 101.

Sealed proposals for repairs to building occupied as Quarters of Engine Co. No. 33, at No. 15 Great Jones street, will be received by the Fire Department, No. 157 East 67th street, until 10 a. m., Dec. 9.

Sealed proposals for removing the old centre casting, putting in new casting, removing two old engines, supplying new engine, shafting, etc., for the Madison avenue bridge, will be received by the Department of Public Parks, Arsenal Building, 5th avenue and 64th street, Central Park, until 2 p. m., Dec. 7.

CONTRACTS AWARDED.

Elm street, Nos. 30 and 32, southwest corner of Pearl street; Chas. T. Wills, No. 156 5th avenue, has the general contract for the twelve-story loft building; cost, about $150,000; New York Life Insurance Co., owners.

Seventy-sixth street West, No. 26; J. Zimmerman, No. 1368 Broadway, has received the general contract for the four-story and basement dwelling; cost, $40,000; Henry Goldman, No. 9 Pine street, owner; Schickel & Ditmar, No. 111 5th avenue, architects.

Broadway, Nos. 290 to 294, twenty-three-story office building; to cost about $1,000,000; R. G. Dun & Co., owners; George Edward Harding & Gooch, No. 253 Broadway, architects; W. A. & F. E. Conover, No. 253 Broadway, have the contract for tearing down the old buildings; contract sub-let to Thomas E. Tripler, 18th street and Avenue B.

Bleecker street, Nos. 12, 14 and 16; Burwell & Lee, No. 216 State street, Brooklyn, N. Y., have the contract for the carpenter work, and Levering & Garrigues, No. 552 West 23d street, have the contarct for the iron work, for the two eight-story brick warehouses; total cost, $274,000; Henry S. Wood, No. 154 Broadway, owner; F. T. Camp, No. 114 Nassau street, architect; Theodore Cornfeld, No. 114 Nassau street, manager.

Fulton street, northwest corner Gold street; addition to the Market and Fulton National Bank and office building; Wm. B. Tabby, No. 81 Fulton street, architect; Jeremiah T. Smith, No. 16 East 23d street, has been awarded the general contract.

METROPOLITAN DISTRICT.

Cedarhurst, L. I.—Middleton S. Burrill, No. 15 Broad street, New York City, will erect a brick dwelling here some time next year. Architect not selected.

Wainscott, L. I.—A two-and-a-half-story frame dwelling, 28x30: to cost about $4,000; H. O. Wood, No. 51 Wall street, New York City, owner; Geo. P. Chappell, No. 24 State street, New York City, architect; condition, plans in progress

Astoria, L. I.—Ely avenue, corner Elm street; a frame store, dwelling, stable and wagon shed; G. Miller, on premises, owner and builder; Paul C. Hunter, No. 802 Park avenue, New York City, architect.

Brentwood, L. I.—A two-and-a-half story frame dwelling; James A. Kemp, No. 41 Vesey street, New York City, owner; Clinton A. Kellam, architect; condition, plans in progress.

Corona, L. I.—A two-story frame dwelling; to cost, $2,500; M. Mercer, No. 82 Elm street, Astoria, owner and builder; Paul C. Hunter, No. 802 Park avenue, New York City, architect; condition, plans in progress.

Rosebank, Staten Island.—Two two-and-a-half-story frame dwellings; cost, $5,000; D. T. Cornell, owner and builder; Chas. Schmeiser, No. 62 Water street, Stapleton, architect.

Mt. Vernon, N. Y.—A two-story brick and stone engine house, 20x75; Washington Engine Co., owners; H. S. Rapolye, No. 25 South 4th avenue, architect.

New Rochelle.—A two-and-a-half-story frame dwelling; to cost $5,000; Walter Large, owner; R. Hanford Sturgis, architect; condition, plans in progress.——Main street; a three-story fame store and flat, 40x55; P. Donohue, owner; O. W. Dugon, architect.

Yonkers.—Nepera Park; a one-story frame factory, 16x120; Nepera Chemical Co., owners; A. J. Horton, architect.

Spring Hill, N. Y.—A frame passenger station will probably be erected here by the N. Y. C. & H. R. R. R. Co.; Col. Walter Katte, Room 48, Grand Central Depot, New York City, architect.

Hudson Park, N. Y.—A frame passenger station will probably be erected here by the N. Y. C. & H. R. R. R. Co.

THE WILSON & BAILLIE MFG. CO.

Our subscribers can hardly fail to notice the strong letter of commendation for the "Kosmocrete" work of this concern on page 9 by Mr. O. F. Nichols, 1st Asst. Engineer of the New East River Bridge, formerly Chief Engineer of the Brooklyn Elevated R. R. Co. Testimony from such high authority is unquestioned.

INDESTRUCTIBLE METAL CORNER BEAD.

The Union Metal Corner Bead, recently patented and introduced, possesses advantages which many of the leading architects, builders and plasterers have been quick to recognize and adopt, a fact which is evidenced by its use already in several prominent buildings in this city, and its specification for many others. The advantages claimed for it are: (1) Indestructibility; (2) can be easily applied to any kind of construction; (3) makes a straight and elegant looking corner, which the plastering cannot be chipped off from; (4) can be used on arches as well as on straight edges. It is formed of rolled steel plate, folded double and adapted to be placed upon wood, brick, terra cotta or steel. It is perforated in such a way that the plaster goes through, and thereby forms a solid corner of mortar and steel securely locked together. It can be supplied in lengths of 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10 feet. Mr. John W. Baker, sole agent, Presbyterian Building, 156 5th avenue, will furnish samples and further information to interested persons.

For a New Hall of Records.

As the responsible municipal offices evidently intend that the Register's office shall fall or burn down before they take any action to provide for the proper housing of the real estate records of this county, some well-known lawyers in this city, who do not think it necessary or desirable that the need for a new hall of records shall be emphasized by a catastrophe either to the old building or its contents, have formed an organization to procure the erection of a new building with temporary officers as follows: S. Stanwood Menken, president; Geo. F. Butterworth, treasurer; Thomas H. Baskerville, secretary. A committee, consisting of Sidney Ward, chairman; Gibson Putzell, Noah C. Rogers, Myer S. Isaacs and Ferdinand Schack has been formed to provide for permanent organization. The aid of everyone connected with real estate interests is desired for furthering the object of the association. Those desiring information as to membership, etc., can obtain it by applying to S. Stanwood Menken, at No. 111 Broadway, or to Thomas H. Baskerville, at No. 52 William street. It is proposed to hold a meeting on December 8th, in a suitable place, for the purpose of drawing public attention to the dangers that surround the safety of the priceless and indispensable records of New York County, and of providing necessary remedies. The following resolution was passed at the meeting, at which the association was organized:

Whereas the safe preservation of the records of all instruments affecting titles to real estate in this city is of the greatest importance and the destruction of such records by fire would work irreparable loss, and cause untold confusion, and

Whereas the present Register's Office or Hall of Records in this city by reason of its age, faulty construction, inadequate space, inflammable nature and poor sanitary condition is totally unfit and unsafe to be the repository of such valuable records, and

Whereas in the other large cities of the United States the real estate records are kept in fireproof buildings especially adapted for the purpose.

Now, therefore, be it resolved, that this Association take such action as may be necessary to secure the speedy erection of a new fireproof municipal building in this city adapted to safely preserve the rapidly accumulating records affecting titles to real estate, and for the convenient examination of the same and commensurate with the growing needs of so large a city, and to that end that a committee of nine members be appointed by the president to confer with the city and State authorities and take such further action as they may deem advisable for the accomplishment of the above purpose; and be it

Further resolved, that the members of the Bar of the City of New York, individually, the Association of the Bar of the City of New York, the Real Estate Exchange of the City of New York and all other associations and individuals interested in this movement be urged to co-operate to secure the requisite action on the part of the proper authorities authorizing and directing the erection of a new municipal building for the safe preservation of such records.

Rejected Title.

The Supreme Court-Appelate Division has sustained the judgment of the lower court in the case of Maria Katz, executrix, and another v. Joseph Kaiser, requiring the latter to take title to a piece of property on 9th street. The case is an interesting one. The court holds that an unsatisfied mortgage made in 1839 as to which there is no proof of payment or subsequent written acknowledgment forms no valid objection to title, and that an encroachment of half an inch upon the street by a building which has stood for over thirty years without objection is immaterial. The property in question was conveyed to one Roberts in 1851 by a description fixing the east line at a point 93 feet west of Avenue D, running west 25 feet on the north side of 9th street, with dimensions of lot 25x92.3. A house was built on this lot and Roberts subsequently became the owner of the lot adjoining on the west. He mortgaged the property in dispute, locating it 93 feet 2 inches west of Avenue D, with dimensions of 24.8½x92.3. Testimony showed the house to be in front 93 feet 2 or 3 inches west of Avenue D, and precisely 93 feet in the rear. The front width of the house is 24.6 or 24.8 and the rear width 25 feet ¼ inch. The court held that Roberts had practically located the proper place for the wall; that the case is controlled by the rule that natural or artificial boundaries plainly referred to must control measurements and distances; that Roberts and his grantees would be estopped by the covenants from raising any question as to the position of the wall, and that therefore the title is marketable.

The Real Estate Exchange.

The report of the Directors of the Real Estate Exchange and Auction Room (Lim.), which will be presented to the stockholders at the next annual meeting on the 14th prox., state that, notwithstanding the many unfavorable features of the business situation of the past year, and the competition from new buildings, the Exchange has paid all its expenses; has maintained the property in good order and has on hand a cash balance of $3,322.30. Every room in the building was rented, but clemency had to be exercised towards tenants in arrears to the aggregate of $1,317.18, which, however, the Directors believed to be collectible within a reasonable time. Taxes had been increased $2,045.38. Rigid economy was practised, and a reduction of $2,114.96 made in running expenses. Early in the year the following scale of auction fees was adopted: Knockdown on amounts of real estate less than $5,000, $3; between $5,000 and $20,000, $5; between $20,000 and $100,000, $10; between $100,000 and $200,000, $25; above $200,000, $50. Auctioneers not renting stands to pay 10 per cent in addition to these fees. The Board had directed the preparation of forms of leases and contracts, to be issued under the authority and sanction of the Exchange. Acknowledgment was made of the valuable service rendered by the Real Estate Sound Money Club in the late presidential contest. A summary of the accompanying financial statement is the following: Balance on hand Nov. 15, 1895, $7,529.69; income from all sources, $32,131.79; total, 39,671.48. Expenditures—Dividend, $6,250; interest on mortgage, $3,285; other, $26,814; balance on hand, Nov. 15, 1896, $3,322.30, part of which is to be applied to reducing the mortgage debt.

The Nomination Committee yesterday made their report. They present the names of the following gentlemen to serve as Directors of the Real Estate Exchange for the ensuing year: Augustus H. Carpenter, John F. Doyle, Solomon de Walltearss, Richard V. Harnett, Charles F. Hoffman, Jr., Samuel F. Jayne, J. Edgar Leayeraft, Alfred E. Marling, Samuel McMillan, Moses Ottinger, Charles A. Peabody, Jr., Frederick Southack, and Thomas S. Walker.

The foregoing ticket was unanimously adopted at a meeting held in the office of Geo. R. Read. It was the sense of the meeting that only real estate men should be placed upon the Board, but for good reasons some exceptions were made. The idea also prevailed that there should be a change in the Board every three or four years, and acting on this Mr. Douglas Robinson refused to serve again. Six of the old members were retained. They were Messrs. Carpenter, Jayne, Walker, Marling, Harnett and Leayeraft. The new ones nominated were Messrs. Doyle, Hoffman, Southack, Peabody, McMillan, De Walltearss and Ottinger.

A copy of the following was mailed to each stockholder on Tuesday:

Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of Article III., Section 1, of the By-Laws, the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Real Estate Exchange and Auction Room, Limited, will be held on Monday, the 14th day of December, at 1 p. m., on the floor of the Exchange, Nos. 59 to 65 Liberty street, to receive the report and balance sheet of the Directors for the past year, to elect Directors, and for other purposes. The polls will be open fom 1:30 p. m. until 3 p. m.

The books for the transfer of stock will be closed from Dec. 4 to Dec. 14, inclusive.

By the Board of Directors. IRVING RULAND, Secretary.

We want to buy, or to lease for a long term, a piece of ground about 50x100, suitable to erect factory, on the West Side, near shipping points and produce markets. Corner lot preferred. Franco-American Food Co., Franklin street and West Broadway.

Real Estate Market.

The week, notwithstanding the observance of Thanksgiving Day, has been productive of no small number of sales. Those given in detail below will involve an aggregate consideration of about $2,200,000. The showing is satisfactory, considering the limited time which the brokers had to bring their deals to a close, and may be taken as an indication that during the balance of the year fairly active conditions will prevail. The section west of Central Park seems to have been almost entirely ignored by this week's buyers, and a canvass of the district yesterday failed to discover a likelihood of any substantial improvement for some time to come. Elsewhere throughout the city investors have made their appearance in unusual numbers.

The indifferent success that has attended the auctions of the last few days renders more impressive and gives added importance to the Ward partition sale of lots on Washington Heights, between the lines of 169th and 172d streets, conducted by D. P. Ingraham & Co., on Thursday of last week. On that occasion bidders were more responsive and prompt with their offers than had been noticed in many a day. If, as the experts present seemed to agree, the lot prices averaged about 10 per cent less than what were claimed to be current values, that fact signified nothing. At offerings of low-priced lots the expert not infrequently overlooks the advantages derived from the sale of a large number of them in a single day, even when made at prices considerably below supposed market rates. He seldom takes into consideration the probable cost and loss of interest that their sale by private contract in small or large parcels would involve when prolonged over a period of years as it would naturally have been in the case of the Ward lots. Situated in a section not easily accessible, with street and other improvements to be made and paid for and very few of the lots at present available for even the cheapest kind of building operations their value as investments lies entirely with the future, and a future likely to be no more promising five years hence than it is to-day. Under the circumstance the sale of 143 of them to 48 individual buyers, at an average price of over $2,400, must be considered a great feat. The revised figures show that a total of $345,625 was realized. The decision reached by the Ward heirs late on Saturday, not to offer the remainder of the lots on Monday, as had been advertised, while it disappointed many people, was, we think, a wise one. That the same big crowd of bidders would have returned for the proposed continuation sale was not to be expected and doubtless the second day's business would have given far less satisfaction than did that of the day originally appointed.

Among this week's auctions the sale in partition by William Kennelly, on Tuesday, of property owned by the estate of George Chesterman, deceased, was the leading attraction. It brought to the Broadway Salesroom as substantial a gathering of investors and speculators as it has held in a long time. Their interest laid, however, in a few of the most desirable parcels, and more especially in the sale of No. 80 Nassau street. Flake & Dowling, the buyers of the latter property, started the bidding at $100,000, and after a brisk competition secured it for $160,000, which is $7,500 less than the trustees of the estate were offered for it some months ago at private contract. Another valuable property was the plot, with buildings, on the northeast corner of 6th avenue and 9th street, for which $77,500 was paid. The price looks to be a liberal one. Only two of the remaining parcels fell to outsiders. The others, six in number, were bought in by brokers, who, acting for heirs or trustees, followed instructions by securing for their respective principals the properties that failed to draw forth satisfactory offers from disinterested bidders. As the sale, however, took place under a decree of court the knock-downs must, until other advices are received, be regarded as actual sales. Several of them to representatives of single heirs will, it is said, prove to be bona fide. The purchases by outsiders aggregated $298,000, while those made for heirs amounted to $361,800. Auctioneer Kennelly also offered for account of the trustees of the same estate, three parcels on Bathgate avenue. Of these a house and lot secured a buyer at $2,500, another was withdrawn without being presented, and a plot of four lots on the corner of 187th street was bought in at $6,000.

The withdrawals on Tuesday consisted of the following parcels: By D. P. Ingraham & Co., Nos. 614 and 616 Water street, from foreclosure sale; by William M. Ryan, Nos. 1402 to 1406 Vanderbilt avenue, corner of 170th street, from a similarly announced sale, and by Peter F. Meyer & Co., from public auction, a number of properties owned by Potter & Bro. The latter were No. 215 East 10th street, at $39,750 the closing bid; Nos. 97 and 99 Mangin street, at $23,250 each; No. 101 Mangin street, at $14,850; Nos. 247 and 249 West 66th street, at $18,400 each; Nos. 787 and 789 Park avenue, at $21,800 each; No. 133 West 103d street, at $22,800, and No. 309 West 116th street, at $26,750; also No. 785 Park avenue, Nos. 72 and 74 East 114th street, No. 352 West 124th street, No. 50 East 133d street, No. 540 West 133d street, and No. 14 Bradhurst avenue, none of which was submitted for bidding, owing to the low offers made on each of the other parcels. The adjournment under foreclosure of Nos. 510 and 512 West 33d street was announced by Bryan L. Kennelly, until December 15.

Two valuable houses were disposed of on the same day by order of executors. They were No. 32 West 31st street, sold by Peter F. Meyer, for $63,500, and No. 4 West 18th street, by Geo. R. Read, for $60,000, the latter sale taking place in the Real Estate Exchange. At the same auction room all of the other offerings of the day were withdrawn by Richard V. Harnett & Co. The New York property submitted for bidding by that firm comprised No. 34 Sutton place, knocked down at $15,000; No. 157 East 75th street, for which the final bid was a like amount; No. 324 West 28th street, leasehold, the highest offer for which was $6,250, and a plot of four lots on the southeast corner of Park avenue and 98th street.

Bryan L. Kennelly, on Wednesday, had the field all to himself, as far as voluntary auctions were concerned, and succeeded in selling at the Broadway Salesroom five improved properties by order of executors, and for account of individuals. No. 154 Perry street, offered at executor's sale by the same auctioneer, was bid in at $14,200; a plot 99.11x125, on the southwest corner of the Boulevard and 143d street, similarly offered, was withdrawn on bids aggregating $40,000, and another consisting of a 50-foot plot on 144th street, running through to 145th street, 400 feet west of Amsterdam avenue, met the same fate on a bid of $5,500 per lot. On the same day the habitues of the auction room were surprised by an innovation that has a very slim chance of meeting with popular approval. It was the initial appearance of a woman referee, Miss A. H. Haggerty, in a foreclosure sale. The property was an insignificant one sold by H. C. Mapes & Co., to the plaintiff in the action.

Yesterday Bryan L. Kennelly adjourned sine die a frequently postponed foreclosure sale of the block of tenements on the west side of 1st avenue, extending from 95th to 96th street.

James L. Wells will sell at auction in the Real Estate Salesroom, No. 111 Broadway, 198 city lots, part of the Vyse estate, on Monday next, the 30th inst. These lots are located in the 23d and 24th Wards, east of Southern Boulevard, near 172d street, on Jennings, Bryant and Longfellow streets; streets are graded; city improvements are at hand; trolley cars run to the property; the section is being rapidly built up; the sale is absolutely unreserved; the terms easy and titles insured free of charge to the buyer. The auctioneer will furnish maps on application at his office, No. 59 Liberty street.

Bryan L. Kennelly announces that he will sell at auction on Wednesday next, the 2d prox., in the Broadway Salesroom, in three parcels, eight lots, a Queen Anne dwelling and one-story stable, located on Academy street, northeast corner Cooper street; the house contains gas fixtures and is finished in hardwood and the land fronts 100 feet on Academy street and 200 on Cooper street. At the same time and place he will also sell No. 319 West 89th street, and lot with brick stable on rear, No. 61 Mangin street. Maps and full particulars of these desirable properties can be obtained at the office of the auctioneer, No. 66 Liberty street.

Richard V. Harnett & Co.s' auction announcements for the coming week include the sales of city and country property. The latter is the country seat at West Park-on-Hudson, situated about 80 miles up the river on its west bank in the midst of most picturesque scenery. It embraces about 106 acres of land, 4 acres being under water, large mansion conservatory, outbuildings, cottages, etc.; riparian rights, yacht anchorage, and other things that serve to make this a delightful country residence. There is a good train service with the city, both by West Shore railroad and by ferry and New York Central railroad. The sale is by order of the executors of the late Dr. Chales R. Gill. The city property is composed of No. 1989 7th avenue, this city, and No. 602 Bergen street, Brooklyn; all will be offered on Wednesday next, 2d prox., in the Real Estate Exchange, No. 59 Liberty street. The auctioneers' offices are at No. 71 and 73 Liberty street, where maps and full particulars are to be had.

THE SALE OF THE TRAVERS ESTATE IN LOTS.

Geo. R. Read has received many inquiries regarding the great sale of lots that he will conduct in the Real Estate Exchange, No. 59 Liberty street, on Thursday next, 3d prox. The property to be sold consists of the Travers Estate, which has been mapped out into lots for this purpose. There are 455 of these lots located upon Webster, Norwood, Hull and Perry avenues and 205th, 206th and 207th streets; 52 are in the immediate vicinity of the Botanical Garden now being laid out in Bronx Park. It is needless to point out that a sale of so many lots, located in so desirable a section of the city as this whole property is, will afford many excellent opportunities for acquiring land for investment and improvement. Such an occasion occurs rarely, a fact that makes it all the more interesting and ought to insure a good attendance with a satisfactory outcome to all concerned. Those who want to post themselves beforehand should apply to the auctioneer, at No. 9 Pine street, or at No. 1 Madison avenue, or to Mrs. Agnes K. Murphy-Mulligan, at No. 777 Tremont avenue, for book-maps, terms, etc.

C. T. Barney offers for sale the Donnelly property, Boulevard and 134th street, a large plot suitable as the site for an institution or other large operation; also, to those who will improve at once, lots purchased at the Ward sale. Application should be made to Mr. Barney between 12 and 1 o'clock p. m. at No. 7 Wall street.

J. O. Baker has for sale the northwest corner of Boulevard and 131st street and Boulevard and 132d street. His office is at No. 7 Wall street.

Gossip of the Week

SOUTH OF 59TH STREET.

Wm. A. White & Sons have sold for Charles J. Clinch, the plot, about 110.8x55.3x irregular x100, Nos. 5 to 15 Elm street, southeast corner of Duane street, with old buildings, to Louis M. Jones. The latter bought at auction last week, for $44,000, the adjoining property, 47x36.9x46.5x47.10, Nos. 54 and 56 Duane street, with which the former parcel gives him a plot about 110.8 x103.1x86.7x100, well adapted for improvement.

Geo. R. Read has sold for Anna G. Du Bois and Bertha G. Brooks, at $210,000, the five-story business building, about 25.6x 142x27.10x153.10, No. 23 Park row, running through to Theatre alley. The nominal buyer is Charles A. Peabody, Jr., who represents William Waldorf Astor, owner of the two adjacent parcels, Nos. 25 and 27. By his latest purchase, which adjoins the new skyscraper the Ivins syndicate has under way, Mr. Astor secures a plot having a total frontage on Park row of about 76 feet, and it seems reasonable to expect that it will eventually be utilized as the site of a companion building to the big Ivins structure.

Mr. Read has also sold his four-story stone front residence, with lot 20.10x100.5, No. 33 West 46th street, to Mrs. Alfred L. Loomis, for $60,000. It was purchased in May, 1894, for $41,000, and a very large sum has since been expended by the seller on internal improvements. Mr. Read's future residence is mentioned under the head of "Leases."

Douglas Robinson & Co. have sold for Mrs. Sarah C. W. Irving, at $22,000, the three-story stone front dwelling, with lot 19x98.9, No. 110 East 31st street.

The same firm has sold for Prescott Hall Butler, at $65,000, a lot, 29x98.9, on the north side of 35th street, 100 feet west of Park avenue. The buyer, whose name has not been obtained, will erect a handsome residence thereon.

Julius Friend has sold for Mrs. Swenarton No. 225 Greene street, 20x87.6, to a builder for improvement.

Hiram Merritt has sold for the M. Fox estate to Mandelbaum & Lewine the plot, 50x80, on the southeast corner of Rivington and Lewis streets, with four old three-story brick houses fronting on the latter.

Henry Wise has sold for Mrs. Levin, to Virginia Bankey, the five-story brick tenement, with lot 25x100, No. 86 James street.

H. Rinaldo & Bro. have resold for Abraham Stern to Joseph Polstein and William Feinberg for improvement, the lot, 25x100, and old buildings, No. 37 Chrystie street, of which mention was made last Saturday.

William O'Brien, the present lessee of the corner building, has bought of a Mr. Sommer, at about $130,000, Nos. 875 to 879 7th avenue, southeast corner of 56th street, with plot 75.5x100. No. 875 is a two-story brick shop and Nos. 877 and 879 two four-story brick tenements and stores, with two two-story brick stables, Nos. 162 and 164 West 56th street, on the rear of the lots. The corner property, 50.5x100, was bought in 1868 for $36,000, and the shop adjoining in 1883 for $19,000.

Fitzsimons & Smith have sold for Mrs. Margaret H. Abell the five-story tenement, 25x88x100.5, No. 509 West 48th street.

James J. Buckley has bought of E. J. Butler, at $9,000, the old four-story brick tenement with lot 21.4x97.9, No. 410 Cherry street.

Charles MacRae & Sons have sold for William K. Aston, the three-story brick stable, 25x100.5, No. 43 East 50th street, to J. E. Martin, for about $45,000.

Folsom Bros. have sold for the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company to S. Miller, the four-story dwelling, No. 50 East 10th street, with lot 25x95 (Sailors' Snug Harbor leasehold); and for the Delafield estate the old four-story brick tenement, with lot 25x 100, No. 615 11th avenue, for $12,000.

The members of the National Academy of Design, at a meeting in their present quarters, at 4th avenue and 23d street, on Wedesday evening, failed once again to arrive at any agreement regarding the purchase of a site for a new Academy, and finally decided to leave its selection to a committee composed of the following members: Thomas W. Wood, James M. Hart, J. Carroll Beckwith, George H. and James D. Smillie, Walter Shirlaw, J. G. Brown, Robert Blum, F. S. Church, Frederick Dielman, H. Bolton Jones, J. C. Nicoll, E. Wood Perry and H. W. Watrous. The society has $517,000 to spend on the site and a building, the plans for which will also be decided on by the above committee.

Winans & May have sold for the heirs of Henrietta Rindskoff, the four-story dwelling, 22.8x60x100.5, No. 46 West 47th street. Mrs. H. C. Bowers is said to be the buyer.

P. T. Canavan has sold for the Flynn estate to Catharine Bruen the lot 25x92, No. 419 West 17th street.

James Kyle & Sons have sold for Mrs. H. L. Burdett, at about $21,500, the three-story dwelling, 21.8x50x98.9, No. 136 East 39th street.

An agreement was recorded a few days ago, the contents of which show that Charles Steckler has agreed to sell to Leon Cohen, for $47,000, the five-story brick tenement with stores, lot 26x96, No. 208 Avenue A, southeast corner of 13th street.

Kidansky & Fine, builders, are the buyers of Nos. 54 and 56 Henry street, referred to last week, and will improve same as stated in another column.

Judson Lawson requests us to expose the falsity of a report of a sale of one of his two new dwellings on 54th street, between 5th and 6th avenues, published in the daily papers during the week. There was no foundation whatever for it.

It was reported yesterday that Herman Koenig had sold, at about $30,000, the four-story stone front dwelling with lot 19.11x 100.5x20x100.5, No. 106 East 57th street, to a Mr. Elias.

NORTH OF 59TH STREET.

William C. Whitney has bought of Amzi L. Barber, the large four-story stone front residence, with plot 55x200, No. 871 5th avenue, northeast corner of 68th street. Mr. Barber bought the property in January, 1895, from the executors of the will of Mrs. Robert L. Stuart, the former occupant of the mansion, for $562,-500, and is believed to have sold it for $600,000, or a sum slightly larger. Governor Levi P. Morton is at present in possession under a lease for the season, and on its expiration in the spring the new owner will take possession. The latter's present residence on the southwest corner of 57th street and 5th avenue will then be transferred to Harry Payne Whitney, the ex-Secretary's son, who is now abroad on his wedding trip.

Douglas Robinson & Co. have sold for Thomas R. Harris, the four-story stone front dwelling, with lot 20x102.2, No. 44 East 73d street.

Noble & Gauss have bought of William H. Hall for immediate improvement, the plot, 100.11x100, on the southeast corner of Lexington avenue and 98th street.

Jonas Kolb has sold for Richard Muenz to Albert Vogel, the two five-story brick double flats with stores, plot 49.11x100, Nos. 2359 and 2361 8th avenue, between 126th and 127th streets.

W. P. Mangam has sold for Mrs. Tate to a Mrs. Manning, the three-story stone front house, 20x50x70, No. 369 Pleasant avenue.

Builder William Picken has sold No. 83 West 119th street. This is the third house disposed of in a new row of fourteen three-story dwellings, completed a few weeks ago.

W. F. & C. H. Smith have sold or traded, at $26,000, for L. Leonhardt, the five-story brick flat, 25x90x100.8, No. 208 East 87th street.

S. De Walltearss & Co. have sold for Mrs. John McKimmin and Thomas Hunt the lot, 24.11x75, on the southeast corner of 7th avenue and 134th street, to a builder for improvement.

D. H. Scully has sold for Alexander Burgheimer the four-story brick double tenement with stores, No. 2267 1st avenue, between 116th and 117th streets, 29x70x100, at $19,500, to Mrs. Catha-

stone front single flat with lot, 21.3x100.11, No. 69 East 121st rine A. Kein, who will give in trade, at $17,000, the four-story street.

Builders Wagner & Wallace have sold to Max Jaegerhuber No. 14 West 68th street, and to a Mr. Goldman No. 10 West 68th street. Both are four-story English basement houses, 18x56x100.5, for which the asking price was $30,000 apiece. No. 12 was sold a short time ago before it was finished, and No. 16, a companion dwelling, will probably be disposed of to-day.

Max Marx has bought of Anna T., wife of Builder Frank Dale, the four five-story brick flats, 100.6x72.2x84, on the southeast corner of Edgecombe avenue and 142d street, for $93,700, and will give in trade a plot on the south side of 151st street, 350 feet east of Amsterdam avenue, 50x84.10, to Convent avenue, x16.4 along same x43.5x99.11. The latter, it is said, will be improved without delay.

J. Romaine Brown has sold to E. Vanderhorn, at an advance of $800, the plot, 100x103.4, on the west side of Haven avenue, at about 170th street, if extended, which was purchased last week at the Ward estate sale, for $10,000. The buyer is credited with an intention to erect on the plot a detached dwelling for his own occupancy.

Arthur R. Parsons has sold for the Horgan & Slattery Co., to a Mr. Cogan, the four-story limestone front dwelling, 20x60x90, No. 812 West End avenue, between 104th and 105th streets, together with the four-and-a-half-story American basement dwelling, 15x60x100, No. 250 West 105th street.

Winans & May have sold for Leonard Lewisohn to A. B. Frank the four-story stone front dwelling, with lot 24x102.2, No. 48 East 80th street.

Edward McDonald is reported to have sold the plot, 250x99.11, on the north side of 148th street, 275 feet west of the Boulevard, which was bought at auction for $13,000 in the spring of 1891.

Charles E. Johnson is the purchaser of Nos. 44 and 46 West 25th street, the sale of which was reported last week. He will give in trade, at $30,000, the two three-story stone-front dwellings, 18.9x45x100.11 each, Nos. 27 and 29 East 110th street.

Thomas F. Roys and Joseph Murphy, Jr., have bought of John S. Reid of Brooklyn, through Maclay & Davies, a plot of five lots on the northeast corner of 148th street and Bradhurst avenue.

Builder Harry Chaffee has sold to an investor, at a price close to $60,000, the new two-and-a-half-story stone front store and business building, 25x100, No. 230 Amsterdam avenue, adjoining the Sherman Square Hotel. The building is leased to Coogan Bros. for 10 years, from November 1, at $3,000 per annum and taxes.

NORTH SIDE.

Brooker & Dunn have sold for M. J. Phelan, two lots on the south side 173d street, 80 feet west of Webster avenue, to Joseph P. O'Donnell, and for John Aldersly four lots on the east side of Anthony avenue, 225 feet north of Burnside avenue to Marshall & Flagg. Both plots will be improved by the erection of frame dwellings in accordance with plans filed this week.

W. F. & C. H. Smith have sold for Annie F. Vreeland, at about $20,000, three new three-story single flats, 16.8x55x90 each, on the east side of Webster avenue, about 300 feet north of 170th street; also the two-story dwelling, with lot 25x100, on the west side of Anthony avenue, 118 feet north of Burnside avenue, for about $6,000. The same firm has sold for C. M. Fowler, at about $7,000, the two-story brick dwelling, 18.9x52x97, No. 716 Union avenue.

LEASES.

Boehm & Coon's lease to the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, of the store floor in the new building, on the northeast corner of Broadway and Howard street, is for a 10 years' term, from the 1st of February next, at an annual rental of $12,000, not "about $10,000," as we stated last week. It may be as well to say to prevent misapprehension that the commodious and well-finished basement of the building is not included in the lease.

Richard V. Harnett & Co. have leased for H. O. Havemeyer the ground-floor and basement of the new St. Paul Building, at Broadway and Ann street, to the recently incorporated Colonial Trust Company for a term of years, probably ten, from January 1. The rent asked not long ago for the quarters secured by the company was $35,000 per annum, but a lower rate has doubtless been agreed upon. The lessee will expend a very large sum on safe deposit vaults to occupy the basement. Theodore W. Myers is president of the company, which is capitalized at $1,000,000. The same agents have secured tenants for many offices in the upper floors, among them being the New England Mutual Insurance Company, which will remove from the Post building, where its offices have been located for twenty-three years to the Broadway half of the fourth floor. The term in this case is five years, from January 1.

Floyd Clarkson & Son have leased for Woodbury G. Langdon the handsome four-story dwelling, 30x100, on the northeast corner of 5th avenue and 55th street, to Geo. R. Read, for a term of 10 years.

H. Rinaldo & Bro. have leased for the estate of Maurice O'Brien, the building Nos. 345 and 347 Grand street, formerly known as the "Grand Museum," to Louis Minsky, for 5 years, at an annual rental of $6,500.

Personal.

Ludlow & Valentine, architects, have removed their offices from No. 97 Franklin street to the American Surety Building, No. 100 Broadway.

Questions and Answers.

OBSTRUCTION TO VIEW.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Will you kindly answer the following in the next issue of the "Record and Guide"? I have a house on one of the business streets of this city; my neighbor has rented the basement of his house to a party who has erected a soda water fountain in front of his house, inside the stoop line, and has placed an awning over it, thereby obstructing the view from my house. Is there any law to prevent this?

Answer.—We know of none.—Law Editor.

CONVEYANCES.

Wherever the letters Q. C., C. a. G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee, they mean as follows:

1st—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i. e., a deed wherein all the right, title and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants or warranty.

2d—C. a. G. means a deed containing Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed can be impeached, charged or encumbered.

3d—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein, although the seller makes no express covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it.

The street and avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the Insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the Deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to there having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.

JUDGMENTS.

In these lists of judgments the names alphabetically arranged, and which are first on each line, are those of the judgment debtor. The letter (D) means judgment for deficiency. (*) means not summoned. (†) signifies that the first name is fictitious, real name being unknown. Judgments entered during the week, and satisfied before day of publication, do not appear in this column, but in list of Satisfied Judgments.
